DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES.

TITLE I.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

General provisions.

CHAPITRE I.

PRESCRIPTIONS À OBSERVER PAR LES PAYS SIGNATAIRES DE LA CONVENTION DÈS QUE LA PESTE, LE CHOLÉRA OU LA FIÈVRE JAUNE APPARAÎT SUR LEUR TERRITOIRE.

CHAPTER I.

RULES TO BE OBSERVED BY THE COUNTRIES SIGNING THE CONVENTION AS SOON AS PLAGUE, CHOLERA, OR YELLOW FEVER APPEARS IN THEIR TERRITORY.

Rules to be observed when plague, etc., appears.

SECTION I.—NOTIFICATION ET COMMUNICATIONS ULTÉRIEURES AUX AUTRES PAYS.

ARTICLE PREMIER. — Chaque Gouvernement doit notifier immédiatement aux autres Gouvernements le premier cas avéré de peste, de choléra ou de fièvre jaune constaté sur son territoire.

De même, le premier cas avéré de choléra, de peste ou de fièvre jaune survenant en dehors des circonscriptions déjà atteintes doit faire l'objet d'une notification immédiate aux autres Gouvernements.

Section I.—NOTIFICATION AND SUBSEQUENT COMMUNICATIONS TO THE OTHER COUNTRIES.

ART. 1.—Each Government shall immediately notify the other Governments of the first authentic case of plague, cholera, or yellow fever discovered in its territory.

Notification to other governments.

Likewise, the first authentic case of cholera, plague, or yellow fever occurring outside the districts already stricken shall constitute the object of an immediate notification to the other Governments.

Detailed information.

ART. 2.—Toute notification prévue à l'article premier est accompagnée ou très promptement suivie de renseignements circonstanciés sur:

1° l'endroit où la maladie est apparue;

2° la date de son apparition, son origine et sa forme;

3° le nombre des cas constatés et celui des décès;

4° l'étendue de la ou des circonscriptions atteintes;

5° pour la peste, l'existence parmi les rats de la peste ou d'une mortalité insolite;

6° pour la fièvre jaune, l'existence du stegomya calopus;

7° les mesures immédiatement prises.

Notice to diplomatic, etc., officers.

ART. 3.—La notification et les renseignements prévus aux articles 1 et 2 sont adressés aux agences diplomatiques ou consulaires dans la capitale du pays contaminé.

Pour les pays qui n'y sont pas représentés, ils sont transmis directement par télégraphe aux Gouvernements de ces pays.

Information as to progress of epidemic.

ART. 4.—La notification et les renseignements prévus aux articles 1 et 2 sont suivis de communications ultérieures données d'une façon régulière, de manière à tenir les Gouvernements au courant de la marche de l'épidémie.

Ces communications, qui se font au moins une fois par semaine et qui sont aussi complètes que possible, indiquent plus particulièrement les précautions prises en vue de combattre l'extension de la maladie.

Details.

Elles doivent préciser: 1° les mesures prophylactiques appliquées relativement à l'inspection sanitaire ou à la visite médicale, à l'isolement et à la désinfection; 2° les mesures exécutées au départ des navires pour empêcher l'exportation du mal et spécialement dans les cas prévus par le 5° et le 6° de l'article 2 ci-dessus, les mesures prises respectivement contre les rats ou contre les moustiques.

ART. 2.—Every notification as provided for in article 1 shall be accompanied or very promptly followed by particulars regarding:

1st. The neighborhood in which the disease has appeared;

2d. The date of its appearance, its origin, and its form;

3d. The number of established cases and the number of deaths;

4th. The extent of the area or areas affected;

5th. In the case of plague, the existence of plague or of an unusual mortality among rats;

6th. In the case of yellow fever, the existence of Stegomya calopus;

7th. The measures immediately taken.

ART. 3.—The notification and the information contemplated in articles 1 and 2 are to be addressed to the diplomatic or consular agencies in the capital of the contaminated country.

In the case of countries not represented there, they shall be transmitted directly by telegraph to the Governments of these countries.

ART. 4.—The notification and the information contemplated in articles 1 and 2 shall be followed by subsequent communications sent regularly, so as to keep the Governments informed as to the progress of the epidemic.

These communications, which shall be sent at least once a week and which shall be as complete as possible, shall state more particularly the precautions taken with a view to preventing the spread of the disease.

They shall specify: 1st The prophylactic measures applied in regard to sanitary or medical inspection, isolation, and disinfection; 2d the measures enforced upon the departure of ships in order to prevent the exportation of the disease and especially, in the cases contemplated under Nos. 5 and 6 of article 2 above, the measures taken respectively against rats and mosquitoes.

ART. 5.—Le prompt et sincère accomplissement des prescriptions qui précèdent est d'une importance primordiale.

Les notifications n'ont de valeur réelle que si chaque Gouvernement est prévenu lui-même, à temps, des cas de peste, de choléra, de fièvre jaune et des cas douteux survenus sur son territoire. On ne saurait donc trop recommander aux divers Gouvernements de rendre obligatoire la déclaration des cas de peste, de choléra et de fièvre jaune et de se tenir renseignés sur toute mortalité insolite des rats, notamment dans les ports.

ART. 6.—Il est désirable que les pays voisins fassent des arrangements spéciaux en vue d'organiser un service d'informations directes entre les chefs des administrations compétentes, en ce qui concerne les territoires limitrophes ou se trouvant en relations commerciales étroites.

SECTION II.—CONDITIONS QUI PERMETTENT DE CONSIDÉRER UNE CIRCONSCRIPTION TERRITORIALE COMME CONTAMINÉE OU REDEVENUE SAINE.

ART. 7.—La notification d'un premier cas de peste, de choléra ou de fièvre jaune n'entraîne pas, contre la circonscription territoriale où il s'est produit, l'application des mesures prévues au chapitre II ci-après. Mais, lorsque plusieurs cas de peste ou de fièvre jaune non importés se sont manifestés ou que les cas de choléra forment foyer[1], la circonscription peut être considérée comme contaminée.

ART. 8.—Pour restreindre les mesures aux seules régions atteintes, les Gouvernements ne doivent les appliquer qu'aux provenances des circonscriptions contaminées.

[1] Il existe un foyer quand l'apparition de cas de choléra au delà de l'entourage du ou des premiers cas prouve qu'on n'est pas parvenu à limiter l'expansion de la maladie là où elle s'était manifestée à son début.

ART. 5.—The prompt and faithful execution of the foregoing provisions is of prime importance. Prompt notification recommended.

The notifications are of no real value unless each Government is itself opportunely informed of cases of plague, cholera, and yellow fever and of doubtful cases occurring in its territory. It can not therefore be too strongly recommended to the various Governments that they make compulsory the announcement of cases of plague, cholera, and yellow fever and that they keep themselves informed of any unusual mortality among rats, especially in ports.

ART. 6.—It is desirable that neighboring countries make special arrangements with a view to organizing a direct information service among the competent heads of departments in matters concerning contiguous territories or those which have close commercial relations. Special arrangements.

SECTION II.—CONDITIONS WHICH WARRANT CONSIDERING A TERRITORIAL AREA AS BEING CONTAMINATED OR AS HAVING BECOME HEALTHY AGAIN.

ART. 7.—The notification of a single case of plague, cholera, or yellow fever shall not involve the application, against the territorial area in which it has occurred, of the measures prescribed in Chapter II hereinbelow. Application of restrictions.

Post, p. 1835.

However, when several unimported cases of plague or yellow fever have appeared or when the cholera cases become localized,[1] the area may be considered contaminated.

ART. 8.—In order to confine the measures to the stricken regions only, the Governments shall apply them only to arrivals from the contaminated areas. Limiting restrictions, etc.

[1] There is localization when the appearance of cases of cholera beyond the immediate environments of the first case or cases proves that the spread of the disease has not been checked where it appeared first.

Meaning of "area."

On entend par le mot circonscription une partie de territoire bien déterminée dans les renseignements qui accompagnent ou suivent la notification, ainsi: une province, un gouvernement, un district, un département, un canton, une île, une commune, une ville, un quartier de ville, un village, un port, un polder, une agglomération, etc., quelles que soient l'étendue et la population de ces portions de territoire.

By the word area is meant a portion of territory definitely specified in the particulars which accompany or follow the notification; for instance, a province, a government, a district, a department, a canton, an island, a commune, a city, a quarter of a city, a village, a port, a polder, a hamlet, etc., whatever be the area and population of these portions of territory.

Preventing exportation of articles, etc.

Mais cette restriction limitée à la circonscription contaminée ne doit être acceptée qu'à la condition formelle que le Gouvernement du pays contaminé prenne les mesures nécessaires: 1° pour combattre l'extension de l'épidémie et 2°, s'il s'agit de peste ou de choléra, pour prévenir, à moins de désinfection préalable, l'exportation des objets visés aux 1° et 2° de l'article 13, provenant de la circonscription contaminée.

Post, p. 1836.

However, this restriction to the contaminated area shall only be accepted upon the formal condition that the Government of the contaminated country take the necessary measures: 1st To combat the spread of the epidemic and 2d, if it is a question of cholera, to prevent, unless previously disinfected, the exportation of the things mentioned under Nos. 1 and 2 of article 13 and coming from the contaminated area.

Quand une circonscription est contaminée, aucune mesure restrictive n'est prise contre les provenances de cette circonscription, si ces provenances l'ont quittée cinq jours au moins avant le début de l'épidémie.

When an area is contaminated, no restrictive measures shall be taken against arrivals from such area if such arrivals have left it at least five days before the beginning of the epidemic.

Areas no longer contaminated.

ART. 9.—Pour qu'une circonscription ne soit plus considérée comme contaminée il faut la constatation officielle:

1° qu'il n'y a eu ni décès, ni cas nouveau, en ce qui concerne la peste ou le choléra depuis cinq jours, en ce qui concerne la fièvre jaune depuis dix-huit jours, soit après l'isolement, soit après la mort ou la guérison du dernier malade;

2° que toutes les mesures de désinfection ont été appliquées; en outre, s'il s'agit de cas de peste, que les mesures contre les rats sont exécutées, et, s'il s'agit de fièvre jaune, que les précautions contre les moustiques ont été prises.

ART. 9.—In order that an area may be considered as being no longer contaminated it must be officially stated:

1st. That there has neither been a death nor a new case, as regards the plague or cholera for five days, and as regards the yellow fever for eighteen days, either since the isolation or since the death or cure of the last patient;

2d. That all measures for disinfection have been applied; besides, if it is a case of plague, that the measures against rats have been executed, and, in case of yellow fever, that the precautions against mosquitos have been taken.

SECTION III.—MESURES DANS LES PORTS CONTAMINÉS AU DÉPART DES NAVIRES.

SECTION III.—MEASURES IN CONTAMINATED PORTS UPON THE DEPARTURE OF VESSELS.

Preventing affected persons from departing, etc.

ART. 10.—L'autorité compétente est tenue de prendre des mesures efficaces:

ART. 10.—The competent authority shall be obliged to take effective measures:

1° pour empêcher l'embarquement des personnes présentant des symptômes de peste, de choléra ou de fièvre jaune;

2° en cas de peste ou de choléra pour empêcher l'exportation des marchandises ou objets quelconques qu'elle considérerait comme contaminés et qui n'auraient pas été préalablement désinfectés à terre, sous la surveillance du médecin délégué de l'autorité publique;

3° en cas de peste, pour empêcher l'embarquement des rats;

4° en cas de choléra, pour veiller à ce que l'eau potable embarquée soit saine;

5° en cas de fièvre jaune, pour empêcher l'embarquement des moustiques.

1st. To prevent the embarkation of persons showing symptoms of plague, cholera, or yellow fever;

2d. In case of plague or cholera, to prevent the exportation of merchandise or any articles which he may consider contaminated and which have not been previously disinfected on land, under the supervision of the physician delegated by the public authority;

3d. In case of plague, to prevent the embarkation of rats;

4th. In case of cholera, to see that the drinking water taken on board is wholesome;

5th. In case of yellow fever, to prevent mosquitos from coming on board.

CHAPITRE II.

MESURES DE DÉFENSE CONTRE LES TERRITOIRES CONTAMINÉS.

SECTION I.—PUBLICATION DES MESURES PRESCRITES.

ART. 11.—Le Gouvernement de chaque pays est tenu de publier immédiatement les mesures qu'il croit devoir prescrire au sujet des provenances d'un pays ou d'une circonscription territoriale contaminée.

Il communique aussitôt cette publication à l'agent diplomatique ou consulaire du pays contaminé, résidant dans sa capitale, ainsi qu'aux Conseils sanitaires internationaux.

Il est également tenu de faire connaître, par les mêmes voies, le retrait de ces mesures ou les modifications dont elles seraient l'objet.

A défaut d'agence diplomatique ou consulaire dans la capitale, les communications sont faites directement au Gouvernement du pays intéressé.

SECTION II.—MARCHANDISES.—DÉSINFECTION.—IMPORTATION ET TRANSIT.—BAGAGES.

1° Les linges de corps, hardes et vêtements portés (effets à usage), les literies ayant servi.

Lorsque ces objets sont transportés comme bagages ou à la suite d'un changement de domicile (objets d'installation), ils ne peuvent être prohibés et sont soumis au régime de l'article 20.

Post, p. 1838.

Les paquets laissés par les soldats et les matelots et renvoyés dans leur patrie après décès sont assimilés aux objets compris dans le premier alinéa du 1°.

De même, lorsque les marchandises ou objets sont transportés de telle façon qu'en cours de route ils n'aient pu être en contact avec les objets souillés, leur transit à travers une circonscription territoriale contaminée ne doit pas être un obstacle à leur entrée dans le pays de destination.

It only becomes dangerous when contaminated by plague or cholera products.

ART. 13.—Disinfection shall be applied only in case of plague or cholera and only to merchandise and articles which the local health authority considers contaminated.

However, in case of plague or cholera, the merchandise and articles enumerated below may be subjected to disinfection or even prohibited entry, independently of any proof that they are or are not contaminated:

1st. Body linen, clothing worn (wearing apparel), and bedding which has been used.

When these articles are being transported as baggage or as a result of a change of residence (household goods), they shall not be prohibited and are subject to the provisions of article 20.

Packages left by soldiers and sailors and returned to their country after death are treated the same as the articles comprised in the first paragraph of No. 1.

ART. 14.—The transit of the merchandise and articles specified under Nos. 1 and 2 of the preceding article shall not be prohibited if they are so packed that they can not be manipulated en route.

Likewise, when the merchandise or articles are transported in such a manner that it is impossible for them to have been in contact with contaminated articles en route, their transit across an infected territorial area shall not constitute an obstacle to their entry into the country of destination.

ART. 15.—Les marchandises et objets spécifiés aux 1° et 2° de l'article 13 ne tombent pas sous l'application des mesures de prohibition à l'entrée, s'il est démontré à l'autorité du pays de destination qu'ils ont été expédiés cinq jours au moins avant le début de l'épidémie.

ARTICLE 15.—The merchandise and articles specified under Nos. 1 and 2 of article 13 shall not be subject to the application of the measures prohibiting entry if it is proven to the authorities of the country that they were shipped at least five days before the beginning of the epidemic.

ART. 16.—Le mode et l'endroit de la désinfection ainsi que les procédés à employer pour assurer la destruction des rats, des insectes et des moustiques sont fixés par l'autorité du pays de destination. Ces opérations doivent être faites de manière à ne détériorer les objets que le moins possible. Les hardes, vieux chiffons, pansements infectés, papiers et autres objets de peu de valeur peuvent être détruits par le feu.

ARTICLE 16.—The mode and place of disinfection, as well as the methods to be employed for the destruction of rats, insects, and mosquitoes, shall be determined by the authorities of the country of destination. These operations should be performed in such a manner as to cause the least possible injury to the articles. Clothing, old rags, infected materials for dressing wounds, papers, and other articles of little value may be destroyed by fire.

Mode of disinfection, etc.

Il appartient à chaque État de régler la question relative au payement éventuel des dommages-intérêts résultant de la désinfection ainsi que de la destruction des objets ci-dessus visés et de celle des rats, des insectes et des moustiques.

It shall devolve upon each Nation to determine the question as to the possible payment of damages as a result of the disinfection and destruction of the articles mentioned above and of the destruction of rats, insects, and mosquitoes.

Payment of damages.

Si, à l'occasion des mesures prises pour la destruction des rats, des insectes et des moustiques à bord des navires, des taxes sont perçues par l'autorité sanitaire, soit directement, soit par l'intermédiaire d'une société ou d'un particulier, le taux de ces taxes doit être fixé par un tarif publié d'avance et établi de façon à ce qu'il ne puisse résulter de l'ensemble de son application une source de bénéfices pour l'État ou pour l'Administration sanitaire.

If, on the occasion of the taking of measures for the destruction of rats, insects, and mosquitos on board vessels, the health authorities should levy a tax either directly or through a society or private individual, the rate of such tax must be fixed by a tariff published in advance and so calculated that no profit shall be derived by the Nation or the Health Department from its application as a whole.

Warehousing of contaminated goods.

Toutefois, si des marchandises arrivant par mer en vrac ou dans des emballages défectueux, ont été, pendant la traversée, contaminées par des rats reconnus pesteux et si elles ne peuvent être désinfectées, la destruction des germes peut être assurée par leur mise en dépôt pendant une durée maxima de deux semaines.

Il est entendu que l'application de cette dernière mesure ne doit entraîner aucun délai pour le navire ni des frais extraordinaires résultant du défaut d'entrepôts dans les ports.

Certificate from health authorities.

ART. 19.—Lorsque des marchandises ont été désinfectées, par application des prescriptions de l'article 13, ou mises en dépôt temporaire, en vertu du 3e alinéa de l'article 18, le propriétaire ou son représentant a le droit de réclamer de l'autorité sanitaire qui a ordonné la désinfection ou le dépôt, un certificat indiquant les mesures prises.

Disinfection of soiled linen, baggage, etc.

ART. 20.—La désinfection du linge sale, des hardes, vêtements et objets qui font partie de bagages ou de mobiliers (objets d'installation) provenant d'une circonscription territoriale contaminée n'est effectuée qu'en cas de peste ou de choléra et seulement lorsque l'autorité sanitaire les considère comme contaminés.

to them are specified in articles 13 and 16 above.

However, if merchandise arriving by sea in bulk or in defective bails has been contaminated during the passage by rats known to be stricken with plague, and if it can not be disinfected, the destruction of the germs may be insured by storing it in a warehouse for a maximum period of two weeks.

It is understood that the application of this last measure shall not entail any delay upon the vessel or any extra expense as a result of the lack of warehouses in the ports.

ART. 19.—When merchandise has been disinfected by applying the provisions of article 13, or temporarily warehoused in accordance with the third paragraph of article 18, the owner or his representative shall be entitled to demand from the health authority who has ordered the disinfection or storage, a certificate setting forth the measures taken.

ART. 20. Soiled linen, clothing, and articles constituting part of baggage or furniture (household goods) coming from a contaminated territorial area shall only be disinfected in case of plague or cholera and only when the health authority considers them contaminated.

A.—Classification of vessels.

ART. 21.—A vessel is considered as infected which has plague, cholera, or yellow fever on board, or which has presented one or more cases of plague, cholera, or yellow fever within seven days.

A vessel is considered as suspicious on board of which there were cases of plague, cholera, or yellow fever at the time of departure or have been during the voyage, but on which there have been no new cases within seven days.

Est considéré comme indemne, bien que venant d'un port contaminé, le navire qui n'a eu ni décès ni cas de peste, de choléra ou de fièvre jaune à bord, soit avant le départ, soit pendant la traversée, soit au moment de l'arrivée.

A vessel is considered as uninfected which, although coming from an infected port, has had neither death nor any case of plague, cholera, or yellow fever on board either before departure, during the voyage, or at the time of arrival. Nonsuspects.

B.—Mesures concernant la peste.

B.—Measures concerning plague. Measures as to plague.

ART. 22.—Les navires infectés de peste sont soumis au régime suivant: Restrictions for plague-infected ships.

1° visite médicale;

2° les malades sont immédiatement débarqués et isolés;

3° les personnes qui ont été en contact avec les malades et celles que l'autorité sanitaire du port a des raisons de considérer comme suspectes sont débarquées si possible. Elles peuvent être soumises soit à l'observation[1], soit à la serveillance[2], soit à une observation suivie de surveillance, sans que la durée totale de ces mesures puisse dépasser cinq jours, à dater de l'arrivée.

Il appartient à l'autorité sanitaire du port d'appliquer celle de ces mesures qui lui paraît préférable selon la date du dernier cas, l'état du navire et les possibilités locales;

4° le linge sale, les effets à usage et les objets de l'équipage[3] et des passagers qui, de l'avis de l'autorité sanitaire, sont considérés comme contaminés sont désinfectés;

5° les parties du navire qui ont été habitées par des pesteux ou qui, de l'avis de l'autorité sanitaire, sont considérées comme contaminées doivent être désinfectées;

3d. All persons who have been in contact with the patients and those whom the health authority of the port has reason to consider suspicious shall be landed if possible. They may be subjected either to observation,[1] or to surveillance,[2] or to observation followed by surveillance, and the total duration of these measures shall not exceed five days from the date of arrival.

It is within the discretion of the health authority of the port to apply whichever of these measures appears preferable to him according to the date of the last case, the condition of the vessel, and the local possibilities.

[1] Le mot "observation" signifie: isolement des voyageurs soit à bord d'un navire, soit dans une station sanitaire, avant qu'ils n'obtiennent la libre pratique.

[2] Le mot "surveillance" signifie que les voyageurs ne sont pas isolés, qu'ils obtiennent tout de suite la libre pratique, mais sont signalés à l'autorité dans les diverses localités où ils se rendent et soumis à un examen médical constatant leur état de santé.

[3] Le mot "équipage" s'applique aux personnes qui font ou ont fait partie de l'équipage ou du personnel de service du bord, y compris les maîtres d'hôtel, garçons, cafedji, etc. C'est dans ce sens qu'il faut comprendre ce mot chaque fois qu'il est employé dans la présente Convention.

[1] By "observation" is meant the isolation of the passengers, either on board a vessel or at a sanitary station, before they are granted pratique.

[2] By "surveillance" is meant that the passengers are not isolated and that they immediately obtain pratique, but that the attention of the authorities is called to them wherever they go and that they are subjected to a medical examination to ascertain the state of their health.

[3] The term "crew" is applied to all persons who form or have formed part of the crew or of the servants on board the vessel, including stewards, waiters, "cafedji," etc. The term is to be construed in this sense wherever employed in the present Convention.

Pour les navires sur lest, cette opération doit se faire le plus tôt possible avant le chargement.

Vessels supected of plague.

ART. 23.—Les navires suspects de peste sont soumis aux mesures qui sont indiquées sous les numéros 1, 4, 5 et 6 de l'article 22.

En outre, l'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis à une surveillance qui ne dépassera pas cinq jours à dater de l'arrivée du navire. On peut, pendant le même temps, empêcher le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

Inspection, etc., of uninfected ships.

ART. 24.—Les navires indemnes de peste sont admis à la libre pratique immédiate, quelle que soit la nature de leur patente.

Le seul régime que peut prescrire à leur sujet l'autorité du port d'arrivée consiste dans les mesures suivantes:

1° visite médicale;

Rat destruction.

3° sans que la mesure puisse être érigée en règle générale, l'autorité sanitaire peut soumettre les navires venant d'un port contaminé à une opération destinée à détruire les rats à bord, avant ou après le déchargement de la cargaison. Cette opération doit être faite le plus tôt et le plus rapidement possible et, en tout cas, ne doit pas durer plus de vingt-quatre heures en évitant d'entraver la circulation des passagers et de l'équipage entre le navire et la terre ferme et, autant que possible, de détériorer les marchandises, les tôles et les machines. Pour les navires sur lest, il sera procédé, s'il y a lieu, à cette opération le plus tôt et le plus rapidement possible et, en tout cas, avant le chargement.

ART. 23.—Vessels suspected of plague shall be subjected to the measures indicated under Nos. 1, 4, 5, and 6 of article 22.

Moreover, the crew and passengers may be subjected to a surveillance not to exceed five days from the arrival of the vessel. The landing of the crew may be forbidden during the same period except in connection with the service.

ART. 24.—Vessels uninfected with plague shall be granted pratique immediately, whatever be the nature of their bill of health.

The only measures which the authority of the port of arrival may prescribe with regard to them shall be the following:

1. Medical inspection.

2. Disinfection of the soiled linen, wearing apparel, and other articles of the crew and passengers, but only in exceptional cases when the health authority has special reason to believe that they are contaminated.

3. Although the measure should not be laid down as a general rule, the health authority may subject vessels coming from a contaminated port to an operation designed to destroy the rats on board, either before or after the discharge of the cargo. This operation should take place as soon and as quickly as possible and should not in any event last more than twenty-four hours, avoiding hindrance to the movement of the passengers and crew between the vessel and the shore and, as far as possible, injury to the cargo, plating, and engines. As for vessels in ballast, that operation will, if there be occasion, be performed as soon and as quickly as possible, and at all events before taking on cargo.

L'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis à une surveillance qui ne dépassera pas cinq jours à compter de la date où le navire est parti du port contaminé. On peut également, pendant le même temps, empêcher le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

L'autorité compétente du port d'arrivée peut toujours réclamer sous serment un certificat du médecin du bord, ou, à son défaut, du capitaine, attestant qu'il n'y a pas eu de cas de peste sur le navire depuis le départ et qu'une mortalité insolite des rats n'a pas été constatée.

ART. 25.—Lorsque, sur un navire indemne, des rats ont été reconnus pesteux après examen bactériologique, ou bien que l'on constate parmi ces rongeurs une mortalité insolite, il y a lieu de faire application des mesures suivantes:

I. Navires avec rats pesteux:

a) visite médicale;

b) les rats doivent être détruits, avant ou après le déchargement de la cargaison, en évitant autant que possible de détériorer les marchandises, les tôles et les machines. L'opération doit être faite le plus tôt et le plus rapidement possible et, en tout cas, ne pas durer plus de quarante-huit heures. Les navires sur lest subissent cette opération le plus tôt et le plus rapidement possible et, en tout cas, avant le chargement;

c) les parties du navire et les objets que l'autorité sanitaire locale juge être contaminés sont désinfectés;

d) les passagers et l'équipage peuvent être soumis à une surveillance dont la durée ne doit pas dépasser cinq jours comptés à partir de la date d'arrivée.

II. Navires où est constatée une mortalité insolite des rats:

a) visite médicale;

b) l'examen des rats au point de vue de la peste sera fait autant et aussi vite que possible;

The crew and passengers may be subjected to a surveillance not to exceed five days from the date on which the vessel left the contaminated port. The landing of the crew may also be forbidden during the same time except in connection with the service. Surveillance of crew, etc.

The competent authority of the port of arrival may always demand an affidavit from the ship's physician, or in default of such physician, from the captain, to the effect that there has not been a case of plague on the vessel since its departure and that no unusual mortality among the rats has been observed. Clean bill of health required.

ART. 25.—When rats have been recognized as plague-stricken on board an uninfected vessel as a result of a bacteriological examination, or when an unusual mortality has been discovered among these rodents, the following measures shall be applied: Rats on uninfected ships.

I. Vessels with plague-stricken rats: Vessels with plague-stricken rats.

a) Medical inspection.

b) The rats shall be destroyed either before or after the discharge of the cargo, avoiding injury, as far as possible, to the cargo, plating, and engines. This operation should take place as soon and as quickly as possible, in no case lasting more than forty-eight hours. On vessels in ballast this operation shall be performed as soon and as quickly as possible and at all events before taking on cargo.

b) An examination of the rats with regard to the plague shall be made as far and as quickly as possible.

c) si la destruction des rats est jugée nécessaire, elle aura lieu dans les conditions indiquées ci-dessus relativement aux navires avec rats pesteux;

d) jusqu'à ce que tout soupçon soit écarté, les passagers et l'équipage peuvent être soumis à une surveillance dont la durée ne dépassera pas cinq jours comptés à partir de la date d'arrivée.

Periodical riddance of rats recommended.

ART. 26.—Il est recommandé que les navires soient soumis à la dératisation périodique pratiquée au moins une fois tous les six mois. L'autorité sanitaire du port, où la dératisation a été effectuée, délivre au capitaine, à l'armateur ou à son agent, toutes les fois que la demande en est faite, un certificat constatant la date de l'opération, le port où elle a été faite et la technique employée.

Il est recommandé que les autorités sanitaires des ports, où touchent les navires qui pratiquent la dératisation périodique, tiennent compte des certificats susvisés, dans l'appréciation des mesures à prendre, notamment en ce qui concerne les prescriptions du n° 3 du 2e alinéa de l'article 24.

d) Until all suspicion is removed, the passengers and crew may be subjected to a surveillance whose duration shall not exceed five days from the date of arrival.

ART. 26. It is recommended that vessels be periodically rid of their rats, the operation to take place at least once every six months. The health officer of the port in which the rat ridding operation is performed shall deliver to the captain, owner, or agent, whenever request is made therefor, a certificate showing the date of the operation, the port where it was performed, and the method employed.

It is recommended that the health authorities of ports at which vessels stop which practice periodical rat ridding keep account of the aforementioned certificates in determining the measures to be taken, especially as regards the provisions of No. 3 of the 2d paragraph of article 24.

L'autorité sanitaire peut interdire le déversement dans les ports de l'eau de lest (water-ballast) si elle a été puisée dans un port contaminé, à moins qu'elle n'ait été préalablement désinfectée.

Il peut être interdit de laisser s'écouler ou de jeter dans les eaux du port des déjections humaines ainsi que les eaux résiduaires du navire, à moins de désinfection préalable.

ART. 28.—Les navires suspects de choléra sont soumis aux mesures qui sont prescrites sous les numéros 1, 4, 5 et 6 de l'article 27.

L'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis à une surveillance qui ne doit pas dépasser cinq jours à dater de l'arrivée du navire. Il est recommandé d'empêcher, pendant le même temps, le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

En ce qui concerne la peste, elle aura égard également à l'installation à bord d'appareils de destruction des rats.

Les autorités sanitaires des Etats auxquels il conviendrait de s'entendre sur ce point pourront dispenser de la visite médicale et d'autres mesures les navires indemnes qui auraient à bord un médecin spécialement commissionné par leur pays.

2° en ce qui concerne la peste, demande de renseignements relatifs à l'existence d'une mortalité insolite parmi les rats;

3° en ce qui concerne le choléra, remplacement, par une eau de bonne qualité, de l'eau potable emmagasinée à bord, lorsque celle-ci est considérée comme suspecte.

Passengers.

Il peut également être autorisé à débarquer les passagers qui en font la demande, à la condition que ceux-ci se soumettent aux mesures prescrites par l'autorité locale.

Disinfected ships from contaminated ports.

ART. 37.—Les navires d'une provenance contaminée qui ont été l'objet de mesures sanitaires appliquées, d'une façon suffisante, dans un port appartenant à l'un des pays contractants ne subiront pas une seconde fois ces mesures à leur arrivée dans un port nouveau, que celui-ci appartienne ou non au même pays, à la condition qu'il ne se soit produit depuis lors aucun incident entraînant l'application des mesures sanitaires prévues ci-dessus et qu'ils n'aient pas fait escale dans un port contaminé.

N'est pas considéré comme ayant fait escale dans un port le navire qui, sans avoir été en communication avec la terre ferme, débarque seulement des passagers et leurs bagages ainsi que la malle postale, ou embarque seulement la malle postale ou des passagers, munis ou non de bagages, et qui n'ont pas communiqué avec ce port ni avec une circonscription contaminée. S'il s'agit de fièvre jaune, le navire doit, en outre, s'être tenu éloigné des côtes autant que possible et au moins à 200 mètres pour empêcher l'invasion des moustiques.

Certificate of sanitary measure applied.

ART. 38.—L'autorité du port qui applique des mesures sanitaires délivre au capitaine, à l'armateur ou à son agent, toutes les fois que la demande en est

3d. In regard to cholera, the substitution of good water in place of the drinking water stored on board, when the latter is considered suspicious.

It may also be permitted to land passengers who so request, upon condition that they submit to the measures prescribed by the local authority.

ART. 37.—Vessels hailing from a contaminated port and which have been subjected to sanitary measures applied in an efficient manner in a port belonging to one of the contracting countries, shall not undergo the same measures a second time upon their arrival in a new port, whether or not the latter belong to the same country, provided no incident has occurred which would involve the application of the sanitary measures contemplated hereinbefore, and provided they have not touched at a contaminated port.

A vessel shall not be considered as having stopped at a port when, without having been in communication with the shore, it lands only passengers and their baggage and the mail, or takes on only the mail, or passengers with or without baggage who have not communicated with the port or with a contaminated area. In case of yellow fever, the vessel must besides have kept away from shore as much as possible, and at a distance of 200 meters, in order to prevent the invasion of mosquitoes.

ART. 38.—A port authority who applies sanitary measures shall deliver to the captain, owner, or agent, whenever requested, a certificate specifying the nature of

ART. 39.—Les passagers arrivés par un navire infecté ont la faculté de réclamer de l'autorité sanitaire du port un certificat indiquant la date de leur arrivée et les mesures auxquelles ils ont été soumis, ainsi que leurs bagages.

ART. 40.—Les bateaux de cabotage feront l'objet d'un régime spécial à établir d'un commun accord entre les pays intéressés.

ART. 41.—Les Gouvernements des Etats riverains d'une même mer peuvent, en tenant compte de leurs situations spéciales et pour rendre plus efficace et moins gênante l'application des mesures sanitaires prévues par la Convention, conclure entre eux des accords particuliers.

ART. 42.—Il est désirable que le nombre des ports pourvus d'une organisation et d'un outillage suffisants pour recevoir un navire, quel que soit son état sanitaire, soit, pour chaque Etat, en rapport avec l'importance du trafic et de la navigation. Toutefois, sans préjudice du droit qu'ont les Gouvernements de se mettre d'accord pour organiser des stations sanitaires communes, chaque pays doit pourvoir au moins un des ports du littoral de chacune de ses mers de cette organisation et de cet outillage.

En outre, il est recommandé que tous les grands ports de navigation maritime soient outillés de telle façon qu'au moins les navires indemnes puissent y subir, dès leur arrivée, les mesures sanitaires prescrites et ne soient pas envoyés, à cet effet, dans un autre port.

Sanitary stations at ports.

ART. 42.—It is desirable that the number of ports provided with a sufficient organization and equipment to receive a vessel, whatever be her sanitary condition, should, in the case of each Nation, be in proportion to the importance of traffic and navigation. However, and without prejudice to the rights of the Governments to agree on organizing common sanitary stations, each country should provide at least one of the ports on the coast line of each of its seas with such an organization and equipment.

Moreover, it is recommended that all great ports of maritime navigation be equipped in such a way that at least uninfected vessels may undergo the prescribed sanitary measures therein as soon as they arrive and not be sent to another port for this purpose.

Notification of open ports.

The Governments shall make known the ports which are open in their country to arrivals from ports contaminated with plague, cholera, and yellow fever, and particularly those which are open to infected or suspicious vessels.

ART. 45.—Il ne doit pas être établi de quarantaines terrestres.

Detention of infected persons.

ART. 46.—Il importe que les voyageurs soient soumis, au point de vue de leur état de santé, à une surveillance de la part du personnel des chemins de fer.

Medical interference limited.

ART. 47.—L'intervention médicale se borne à une visite des voyageurs et aux soins à donner aux malades. Si cette visite se fait, elle est combinée, autant que possible, avec la visite douanière de manière que les voyageurs soient retenus le moins longtemps possible. Les personnes visiblement indisposées sont seules soumises à un examen médical approfondi.

ART. 46.—It is important that travelers be subjected to surveillance on the part of railroad employees with a view to determining the state of their health.

ART. 47.—Medical interference shall be limited to an examination of the passengers and the care to be given to the sick. If such an examination is made, it should be combined as far as possible with the custom house inspection to the end that travelers may be detained as short a time as possible. Only persons who are obviously ill shall be subjected to a thorough medical examination.

ART. 48.—Dès que les voyageurs venant d'un endroit contaminé seront arrivés à destination, il serait de la plus haute utilité de les soumettre à une surveillance qui ne devrait pas dépasser, à compter de la date du départ, cinq jours s'il s'agit de peste ou de choléra et six jours s'il s'agit de fièvre jaune.

ART. 49.—Les Gouvernements se réservent le droit de prendre des mesures particulières à l'égard de certaines catégories de personnes, notamment des bohémiens et des vagabonds, ainsi que des émigrants et des personnes voyageant ou passant la frontière par troupes.

ART. 50.—Les voitures affectées au transport des voyageurs, de la poste et des bagages ne peuvent être retenues aux frontières.

S'il arrive qu'une de ces voitures soit contaminée ou ait été occupée par un malade atteint de peste ou de choléra, elle sera détachée du train pour être désinfectée le plus tôt possible.

Il en sera de même pour les wagons à marchandises.

ART. 51.—Les mesures concernant le passage aux frontières du personnel des chemins de fer et de la poste sont du ressort des administrations intéressées. Elles sont combinées de façon à ne pas entraver le service.

ART. 52.—Le règlement du trafic-frontière et des questions inhérentes à ce trafic ainsi que l'adoption des mesures exceptionnelles de surveillance, doivent être laissés à des arrangements spéciaux entre les États limitrophes.

ART. 53.—Il appartient aux Gouvernements des États riverains de régler, par des arrangements spéciaux, le régime sanitaire des voies fluviales.

Surveillance of persons from infected areas.

ART. 49.—The Governments reserve the right to take special measures in regard to certain categories of persons, notably gypsies, vagabonds, emigrants, and persons traveling or crossing the frontier in troops. Reservation as to gypsies, etc.

Mail and passenger ships having a physician.

S'il s'agit de navires postaux ou de paquebots spécialement affectés au transport des voyageurs, sans appareil de désinfection (étuve), mais ayant un médecin à bord, si l'autorité locale a l'assurance, par une constatation officielle, que les mesures d'assainissement et de désinfection ont été convenablement pratiquées, soit au point de départ, soit pendant la traversée, le passage en quarantaine est accordé.

S'il s'agit de navires postaux ou de paquebots spécialement affectés au transport des voyageurs, sans appareil de désinfection (étuve), mais ayant un médecin à bord, si le dernier cas de peste ou de choléra remonte à plus de sept jours et si l'état sanitaire du navire est satisfaisant, la libre pratique peut être donnée à Suez, lorsque les opérations réglementaires sont terminées.

b) Other suspected vessels having neither physician nor disinfecting apparatus (chamber) on board shall, before being permitted to pass through in quarantine, be detained at Suez or Moses Spring a sufficient length of time to carry out the disinfecting measures prescribed and to ascertain the sanitary condition of the vessel.

In the case of mail vessels or of packets specially utilized for the transportation of passengers, having no disinfecting apparatus (chamber), but having a physician on board, if the local authority can through official evidence satisfy itself that sanitation and disinfection measures have properly been carried out, either at port of departure or in the course of the voyage, passage in quarantine shall be granted.

In the case of mail vessels or of packets specially utilized for the transportation of passengers and having no disinfecting apparatus (chamber) but having a physician on board, if the last case of plague or cholera dates back longer than seven days and if the sanitary condition of the vessel is satisfactory, pratique may be granted at Suez when the operations prescribed by the regulations are completed.

When a vessel has had a run of less than seven days without infection, the passengers bound for Egypt shall be landed at an establishment designated by the Board of Health of Alexandria and isolated a sufficient length of time to complete the observation period of five days. Their soiled linen and wearing apparel shall be disinfected. They shall then receive pratique.

Vessels having had a run of less than seven days without infection and desiring to obtain pratique in Egypt shall be detained in an establishment designated by the Board of Health of Alexandria for a sufficient length of time to com-

Lorsque la peste ou le choléra s'est montré exclusivement dans l'équipage, la désinfection ne porte que sur le linge sale de celui-ci, mais sur tout ce linge sale, et s'étend également aux postes d'habitation de l'équipage.

ART. 61.—Les navires infectés se divisent en navires avec médecin et appareil de désinfection (étuve) et navires sans médecin et sans appareil de désinfection (étuve).

a) Les navires sans médecin et sans appareil de désinfection (étuve) sont arrêtés aux Sources de Moïse [1]; les personnes présentant des symptômes de peste ou de choléra sont débarquées et isolées dans un hôpital. La désinfection est pratiquée d'une façon complète. Les autres passagers sont débarqués et isolés par groupes composés de personnes aussi peu nombreuses que possible, de manière que l'ensemble ne soit pas solidaire d'un groupe particulier si la peste ou le choléra venait à se développer. Le linge sale, les objets à usage, les vêtements de l'équipage et des passagers sont désinfectés ainsi que le navire.

Les passagers resteront pendant cinq jours dans un établissement désigné par le Conseil sanitaire maritime et quarantenaire d'Egypte. Lorsque les cas de peste ou de choléra remonteront à plusieurs jours, la durée de l'isolement sera diminuée. Cette durée variera selon l'époque de la guérison, de la mort ou de l'isolement du dernier malade. Ainsi, lorsque le dernier cas de peste ou de choléra se sera terminé depuis six jours par la guérison ou la Infected vessels.

ART. 61.—Infected vessels are divided into vessels with a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber) on board, and vessels without a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber).

Without a physician and disinfecting apparatus.

a) Vessels without a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber) shall be stopped at Moses Spring;[1] persons showing symptoms of plague or cholera shall be landed and isolated in a hospital. The disinfection shall be carried out in a thorough manner. The other passengers shall be landed and isolated in groups composed of as few persons as possible, so that the whole number may not be infected by a particular group if the plague or cholera should develop. The soiled linen, wearing apparel, and clothing of the crew and passengers, as well as the vessel, shall be disinfected.

No discharge of cargo allowed.

It is to be distinctly understood that there shall be no discharge of cargo but simply a disinfection of the part of the vessel which has been infected.

Detention of passengers.

The passengers shall remain for five days in an establishment designated by the Sanitary, Maritime, and Quarantine Board of Egypt. When the cases of plague or cholera date back several days, the length of the isolation shall be diminished. This length shall vary according to the date of the cure, death, or isolation of the last patient. Thus, when the last case of plague or cholera has terminated six days before by a cure or death, or when the last patient has

With a physician and disinfecting apparatus.

b) Vessels with a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber) on board shall be stopped at Moses Spring. The ship's physician must declare, under oath, what persons on board show symptoms of plague or cholera. These patients shall be landed and isolated.

After the landing of these patients, the soiled linen of the rest of the passengers which the health authority may consider dangerous, as well as that of the crew, shall undergo disinfection on board.

If only crew infected.

Lorsque la peste ou le choléra se sera montré exclusivement dans l'équipage, la désinfection du linge ne portera que sur le linge sale de l'équipage et le linge des postes de l'équipage.

When plague or cholera shall have appeared exclusively among the crew, the disinfection of the linen shall be limited to the soiled linen of the crew and the linen of the living apartments of the crew.

Ship's physician to declare suspected persons, etc.

Le médecin du bord doit indiquer aussi, sous serment, la partie ou le compartiment du navire et la section de l'hôpital dans lesquels le ou les malades ont été transportés. Il doit déclarer également, sous serment, quelles sont les personnes qui ont été en rapport avec le pestiféré ou le cholérique depuis la première manifestation de la maladie, soit par des contacts directs, soit par des contacts avec des objets qui pourraient être contaminés. Ces seules personnes seront considérées comme suspectes.

The ship's physician shall indicate also, under oath, the part or compartment of the vessel and the section of the hospital in which the patient or patients have been transported. He shall also declare, under oath, what persons have been in contact with the plague or cholera patient since the first manifestation of the disease, either directly or through contact with objects which might be contaminated. Such persons alone shall be considered as "suspects".

Places to be disinfected.

La partie ou le compartiment du navire et la section de l'hôpital dans lesquels le ou les malades auront été transportés, seront complètement désinfectés. On entend par "partie du navire" la cabine du malade, les cabines attenantes, le couloir de ces cabines, le pont, les parties du pont sur lesquelles le ou les malades auraient séjourné.

S'il est impossible de désinfecter la partie ou le compartiment du navire qui a été occupé par les personnes atteintes de peste ou de choléra, sans débarquer les personnes déclarées suspectes, ces personnes seront ou placées sur un autre navire spécialement affecté à cet usage, ou débarquées et logées dans l'établissement sanitaire, sans contact avec les malades, lesquels doivent être placés dans l'hôpital.

La durée de ce séjour sur le navire ou à terre pour la désinfection sera aussi courte que possible et n'excédera pas vingt-quatre heures.

Le temps pris par les opérations réglementaires est compris dans la durée de l'observation.

Le passage en quarantaine peut être accordé avant l'expiration des délais indiqués ci-dessus si l'autorité sanitaire le juge possible. Il sera, en tout cas, accordé lorsque la désinfection aura été accomplie si le navire abandonne, outre ses malades, les personnes indiquées ci-dessus comme "suspectes".

Une étuve placée sur un ponton peut venir accoster le navire pour rendre plus rapides les opérations de désinfection.

Les navires infectés demandant à obtenir la libre pratique en Égypte sont retenus aux Sources de Moïse cinq jours; ils subissent, en outre, les mêmes mesures que celles adoptées pour les navires infectés arrivant en Europe.

Treatment of suspects.

If it is impossible to disinfect the part or compartment of the vessel which has been occupied by the persons stricken with plague or cholera without landing the persons declared suspects, these persons shall be either placed in another vessel specially designated for this purpose or landed and lodged in the sanitary establishment without coming in contact with the patients, who shall be placed in the hospital.

The duration of this stay on the vessel or on shore shall be as short as possible and shall not exceed twenty-four hours.

The suspects shall undergo, either on their vessel or on the vessel designated for this purpose, an observation period whose duration shall vary according to the cases and under the conditions provided in the third paragraph of subdivision (a).

Ante, p. 1853.

The time taken up by the prescribed operations shall be comprised in the duration of the observation period.

Passage through in quarantine after complete disinfection.

The passage through in quarantine may be allowed before the expiration of the periods indicated above if the health authority deems it possible. It shall at all events be granted when the disinfection has been completed, if the vessel leaves behind not only its patients but also the persons indicated above as "suspects."

A disinfecting chamber placed on a lighter may come alongside the vessel in order to expedite the disinfecting operations.

Infected vessels at Moses Spring.

Infected vessels requesting pratique in Egypt shall be detained at Moses Spring five days; they shall, moreover, undergo the same measures as those adopted for infected vessels arriving in Europe.

Ils sont soumis aux mesures préventives et au traitement imposés à ces navires.

If bound for Egypt.

S'ils sont à destination de l'Égypte, ils subissent, dans un établissement sanitaire désigné par le Conseil sanitaire maritime et quarantenaire, une observation de cinq jours, à compter de la date du départ, pour le choléra comme pour la peste. Ils sont soumis, en outre, à toutes les mesures prescrites pour les bateaux suspects (désinfection, etc.) et ne sont admis à la libre pratique qu'après visite médicale favorable.

In case, however, the master of a merchant vessel should be under the necessity of disposing of a part of his cargo in order to defray the expenses, he shall be bound to conform to the regulations and tariffs of the place to which he may have come.

Temporary possession, etc., in absence of will.

In the event of any citizens or subjects of either of the High Contracting Parties dying without will or testament, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the Consul General, Consul, Vice Consul, or other Consular Officer or Agent, of the nation to which the deceased belonged, or, in his absence, the representative of such Consul General, Consul, Vice Consul, or other Consular Officer or Agent, shall, so far as the laws of each country will permit and pending the appointment of an administrator and until letters of administration have been granted, take charge of the personal property left by the deceased for the benefit of his lawful heirs and creditors.

PROTOCOL CONCERNING JURISDICTION APPLICABLE IN THE KINGDOM OF SIAM TO AMERICAN CITIZENS AND OTHERS ENTITLED TO THE PROTECTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Protocol as to rights of American citizens in Siam.

Agreement.

At the moment of proceeding this day to the signature of the new Treaty of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation between the United States and the Kingdom of Siam, the Plenipotentiaries of the two High Contracting Parties have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

Extraterritoriality to cease.

The system of jurisdiction heretofore established in Siam for citizens of the United States and the privileges, exemptions and immunities now enjoyed by the citizens of the United States in Siam as a part of or appurtenant to said system shall absolutely cease and determine on the date of the exchange of ratifications of the above-mentioned Treaty and thereafter all citizens of the United States and persons, corporations, companies and associations entitled to its protection in Siam shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Siamese Courts.

ARTICLE II

Temporary retention until Siamese Codes promulgated, etc.

Until the promulgation and putting into force of all the Siamese Codes, namely, the Penal Code, the Civil and Commercial Codes, the Codes of Procedure and the Law for Organization of Courts and for a period of five years thereafter, but no longer, the United States, through its Diplomatic and Consular Officials in Siam, whenever in its discretion it deems it proper so to do in the interest of justice, by means of a written requisition addressed to the judge or judges of the Court in which such case is pending, may invoke any case pending in any Siamese Court, except the Supreme or Dika Court, in which an American citizen or a person, corporation, company or association entitled to the protection of the United States, is defendant or accused.

Transfer of cases to American diplomatic and consular representatives.

Such case shall then be transferred to said Diplomatic or Consular Official for adjudication and the jurisdiction of the Siamese Court over such case shall thereupon cease. Any case so evoked shall be disposed of by said Diplomatic or Consular official in accordance with the laws of the United States properly applicable, except that as to all matters coming within the scope of Codes or Laws of the Kingdom of Siam regularly promulgated and in force, the texts of which have been communicated to the American Legation in Bangkok, the rights and liabilities of the parties shall be determined by Siamese law.

For the purpose of trying such cases and of executing any judgments which may be rendered therein, the jurisdiction of the American Diplomatic and Consular officials in Siam is continued.

Notice of objections to promulgated Siamese Codes.

Should the United States perceive, within a reasonable time after the promulgation of said Codes, any objection to said Codes, namely, the Penal Code, the Civil and Commercial Codes, the Codes of Procedure and the Law for Organization of Courts, the Siamese Government will endeavor to meet such objections.

ARTICLE III

Jurisdiction of Siamese Courts.

Appeals by citizens of the United States or by persons, corporations, companies or/and associations entitled to its protection, from judgments of Courts of First Instance in cases to which they may be parties, shall be adjudged by the Court of Appeal at Bangkok.

An appeal on a question of law shall lie from the Court of Appeal at Bangkok to the Supreme or Dika Court.

A citizen of the United States or a person, corporation, company or association entitled to its protection, who is defendant or accused in any case arising in the Provinces may apply for a change of venue and should the Court consider such change desireable the trial shall take place either at Bangkok or before the judge in whose Court the case would be tried at Bangkok.

ARTICLE IV

Agreement on transfer of jurisdictions.

In order to prevent difficulties which may arise from the transfer of jurisdiction contemplated by the present Protocol, it is agreed, Actions subsequent to effective date of treaty to be brought in Siamese Courts.

(a) All cases in which action shall be taken subsequently to the date of the exchange of ratifications of the above-mentioned Treaty, shall be entered and decided in the Siamese Courts, whether the cause of action arose before or after the date of said exchange of ratifications.

Pending cases before American officials continued until disposed of.

(b) All cases pending before the American Diplomatic and Consular officials in Siam on said date shall take their usual course before such officials until such cases have been finally disposed of,

and the jurisdiction of the American Diplomatic and Consular officials shall remain in full force for this purpose.

Protection of legal rights of Americans. Ante, p. 1934.

In connection with any case coming before the American Diplomatic or Consular officials under clause (b) of Article IV, or which may be evoked by said officials under Article II, the Siamese authorities shall upon request by such Diplomatic or Consular officials lend their assistance in all matters pertaining to the case.

Signatures.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned Plenipotentiaries have hereto signed their names and affixed their seals, this sixteenth day of December, in the nineteen hundred and twentieth year of the Christian Era, corresponding to the sixteenth day of the ninth month in the two thousand four hundred and sixty-third year of the Buddhist Era.

SIAMESE LEGATION,
Washington, December 16, 1920.

Mr. Secretary:

By Siamese Minister. Ante, p. 1928.

Referring to Article I of the treaty signed by us this day which provides among other things for the leasing and ownership of real property in Siam by Americans, I have the honor to state that:

Status of mission lands stated.

1. As to the lands for which the missions now possess papers of any kind or of which the missions are otherwise in legal occupation they should apply to have title papers issued in the regular way.

2. As to the lands held under lease from Government, the Siamese Government will not interrupt the possession by the missions as long as they continue to use the land for mission purposes.

3. However, in Ratburi the Mission is now occupying a house belonging to the Siamese Government; this must be returned when asked for.

4. It should be understood that the Siamese Government is not identified with Wat administration; that is to say, the foregoing understanding must not be construed as a promise by the Government to interfere with lands held and claimed by religious authorities, whether Buddhists or of any other faith.

5. Of course, all Mission lands are held subject to the exercise by the Siamese Government of the right of eminent domain.

I avail myself of the occasion to offer to you the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

Ratification by the President of the United States.

KNOW YE, That whereas a Treaty between the United States of America and Hungary to restore the friendly relations existing between the two nations prior to the outbreak of war, was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Budapest on August 29, 1921, a true copy of which Treaty, in the English language, is word for word as follows:

And Whereas, the Senate of the United States, by their resolution of October 18, 1921, (two-thirds of the Senators present concurring therein) did advise and consent to the ratification of the said Treaty, subject to the understanding, made a part of the resolution of ratification, "that the United States shall not be represented or participate in any body, agency or commission, nor shall any person represent the United States as a member of any body, agency or commission in which the United States is authorized to participate by this Treaty, unless and until an Act of the Congress of the United States shall provide for such representation or participation"; and subject to the further understanding, made a part of the resolution of ratification, "that the rights and advantages which the United States is entitled to have and enjoy under this Treaty embrace the rights and advantages of nationals of the United States specified in the Joint Resolution or in the provisions of the Treaty of Trianon to which this Treaty refers";

NOW, therefore, be it known that I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, having seen and considered the said Treaty, do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid advice and consent of the Senate, ratify and confirm the same and every article and clause thereof, subject to the understandings hereinabove recited.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, the twenty-first day of October, in the year of Our Lord one thousand [SEAL] nine hundred and twenty-one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-sixth.

WHEREAS, it was agreed by Article VI (e), 1, and 3, of the Final Protocol entered into between the Powers and China, concluded at Peking, September 7, 1901, that the import tariff on goods imported into China by sea should be an effective five per cent. ad valorem;

AND WHEREAS, following the conclusion of said Protocol, and pursuant to the provisions of the first paragraph of Article XI thereof, a Treaty regarding Commercial Relations between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of China was concluded at Shanghai on the 8th day of October, 1903, ratifications of which were duly exchanged on the 13th day of January, 1904;

Vol. 33, p. 2208.

AND WHEREAS, by Article V and Annex III of the said Treaty it was agreed that the tariff of duties to be paid by the citizens of the United States of America on goods imported into China should be as set forth in the schedule annexed to and made a part of that Treaty as Annex III thereof, subject only to such amendments and changes as were authorized by Article IV of that treaty or as might thereafter be agreed upon by the High Contracting Parties, and that the citizens of the United States of America should at no time pay other or higher duties on goods imported into China than those paid by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation;

ANNEX II. Annex II.

RULES Rules.

RULE I. Rules I.

Tariff on unenumerated imports.

Imports unenumerated in this Tariff will pay Duty at the rate of 5 per cent ad valorem; and the value upon which Duty is to be calculated shall be the wholesale market value of the goods in local currency. This market value when converted into Haikwan Taels shall be considered to be 12 per cent higher than the amount upon which Duty is to be calculated.

Market value determined.

If the goods have been sold before presentation to the Customs of the Application to pay Duty, the gross amount of the bona fide contract will be accepted as evidence of the market value. Should the goods have been sold on c. f. and i. terms, that is to say, without inclusion in the price of Duty and other charges, such c. f. and i. price shall be taken as the value for Duty-paying purposes without the deduction mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

Arbitration of difference.

If the goods have not been sold before presentation to the Customs of the Application to pay Duty, and should a dispute arise between

Board of arbitration.

Customs and importer regarding the value or classification of goods, the case will be referred to a Board of Arbitration composed as follows:—

An official of the Customs;
A merchant selected by the Consul of the importer; and
A merchant, differing in nationality from the importer, selected by the Senior Consul.

Procedure.

Questions regarding procedure, etc., which may arise during the sittings of the Board shall be decided by the majority. The final finding of the majority of the Board, which must be announced within fifteen days of the reference (not including holidays), will be binding upon both parties. Each of the two merchants on the Board will be entitled to a fee of ten Haikwan Taels. Should the Board sustain the Customs valuation, or, in the event of not sustaining that valuation, should it decide that the goods have been undervalued by the importer to the extent of not less than 7½ per cent., the importer will pay the fees; if otherwise, the fees will be paid by the Customs. Should the Board decide that the correct value of the goods is 20 per cent. (or more) higher than that upon which the importer originally claimed to pay Duty, the Customs authorities may retain possession of the goods until full Duty has been paid and may levy an additional Duty equal to four times the Duty sought to be evaded.

Production of invoices.

In all cases invoices, when available, must be produced if required by the Customs.

Rule II.

RULE II.

Articles exempt from duty.

The following will not be liable to Import Duty: Foreign Rice, Cereals, and Flour; Gold and Silver, both Bullion and Coin; Printed Books, Charts, Maps, Periodicals, and Newspapers.

Tonnage dues.

A freight or part freight of Duty-free commodities (Gold and Silver Bullion and Foreign Coins excepted) will render the vessel carrying them, though no other cargo be on board, liable to Tonnage Dues.

Ships' stores, etc.

Drawbacks will be issued for Ships' Stores and Bunker Coal when taken on board.

Rule III.

RULE III.

Prohibition of arms, etc.

Except at the requisition of the Chinese Government, or for sale to Chinese duly authorized to purchase them, Import trade is prohibited in all Arms, Ammunition, and Munitions of War of every description. No Permit to land them will be issued until the Customs have proof that the necessary authority has been given to the importer. Infraction of this rule will be punishable by confiscation of all the goods concerned.

Salt.

The import of Salt is absolutely prohibited.

RULE IV.

Opium prohibition.

Medicines admitted under bond.

The importation of opium and poppy seeds is absolutely prohibited. The importation of the following articles is prohibited except under bond by qualified medical practitioners, druggists and chemists: Morphia and cocaine and hypodermic syringes; anti-opium pills containing morphia, opium or cocaine, novocaine, stovaine, heroin, thebaine, ghanja, hashish, bhang, Cannabis indica, tincture of opium, laudanum, codeine, dionin, and all other derivatives of opium and cocaine.

Preamble. Source of authority

Les soussignés, plénipotentiaires des Gouvernements des pays ci-dessus énumérés, s'étant réunis en Congrès à Madrid, en vertu de l'article 25 de la Convention postale universelle conclue à Rome le 26 mai 1906 ont, d'un commun accord et sous réserve de ratification, revisé ladite Convention conformément aux dispositions suivantes:

Vol. 35, p. 1663.

The undersigned, plenipotentiaries of the Governments of the above-named countries, being assembled in Congress at Madrid, by virtue of Article 25 of the Universal Postal Convention concluded at Rome on the 26th of May, 1906, have by mutual consent and subject to ratification, revised the said Convention to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1.

Définition de l'Union Postale.

ARTICLE 1.

Definition of the Postal Union.

Object of convention.

Les pays entre lesquels est conclue la présente Convention, ainsi que ceux qui y adhèreront ultérieurement forment, sous la dénomination d'Union postale universelle, un seul territoire postal pour l'échange réciproque des correspondances entre leurs bureaux de poste.

The countries between which the present Convention is concluded, as well as those which may adhere to it hereafter, form, under the title of Universal Postal Union, a single postal territory for the reciprocal exchange of correspondence between their post offices.

ARTICLE 2.

Envois auxquels s'applique la Convention.

ARTICLE 2.

Articles to which the Convention applies.

Scope of provisions.

Les dispositions de cette Convention s'étendent aux lettres, aux cartes postales simples et avec réponse payée, aux imprimés de toute nature, aux papiers d'affaires et aux échantillons de marchandises originaires de l'un des pays de l'Union et à destination d'un autre de ces pays. Elles s'appliquent également à l'échange postal des objets ci-dessus entre les pays de l'Union et les pays étrangers à l'Union, toutes les fois que cet échange emprunte les services de deux des parties contractantes au moins.

papers of every kind, commercial papers, and samples of merchandise originating in one of the countries of the Union and addressed to another of those countries. They also apply to the exchange by post of the articles above mentioned between the countries of the Union and countries outside of the Union, whenever the services of two of the contracting parties at least are used for that exchange.

ARTICLE 3.

Transport des dépêches entre pays limitrophes; services tiers.

1.—Les Administrations des postes des pays limitrophes ou aptes à correspondre directement entre eux sans emprunter l'intermédiaire des services d'une tierce Administration, déterminent, d'un commun accord, les conditions du transport de leurs dépêches réciproques à travers la frontière ou d'une frontière à l'autre.

2.—A moins d'arrangement contraire, on considère comme services tiers les transports maritimes effectués directement entre deux pays, au moyen de paquebots ou bâtiments dépendant de l'un d'eux, et ces transports, de même que ceux effectués entre deux bureaux d'un même pays, par l'intermédiaire de services maritimes ou territoriaux dépendant d'un autre pays, sont régis par les dispositions de l'article suivant.

3.—Les hautes parties contractantes s'engagent à ne pas imposer, au titre postal, d'obligations spéciales aux paquebots affectés à des services réguliers de transport des correspondances et dépendant d'un pays de l'Union, en échange des avantages et privilèges qui pourraient exister ou être institués en faveur d'une catégorie quelconque de navires marchands, notamment pour les formalités et opérations au départ des ports ou à l'arrivée.

ARTICLE 3.

Conveyance of mails between contiguous countries; third services.

Special agreement by contiguous countries.

1. The Postal Administrations of contiguous countries or countries able to correspond directly with each other without making use of the services of a third Administration settle, by mutual consent, the conditions of conveyance across the frontier or from one frontier to the other of the mails which they exchange.

2. In the absence of any other arrangement, the direct sea conveyance between two countries by means of packets or vessels maintained by one of them is considered as a third service; and this conveyance, as well as conveyance between two offices of the same country, by means of sea or land services maintained by another country, is governed by the terms of the following article.

No special regulations to be imposed on mail vessels.

3. The high contracting parties undertake not to impose, on postal grounds, special obligations on packets employed in regular mail services and maintained by a country of the Union, in exchange for advantages and privileges which may exist or be established in favor of any class of merchant ships, especially as regards the formalities and arrangements on entering or leaving port.

Transit guaranteed.

1.—La liberté du transit est garantie dans le territoire entier de l'Union.

Service suppressed if not accorded.

Les Administrations ont le droit de supprimer le service postal avec tout pays qui n'observerait pas les dispositions de l'alinéa précédent. Ces Administrations doivent donner préalablement, par télégramme, avis de cette mesure à l'Administration intéressée.

Reciprocal rights.

2.—Les diverses Administrations postales de l'Union peuvent s'expédier réciproquement par l'intermédiaire d'une ou de plusieurs d'entrelles, tant des dépêches closes que des correspondances à découvert, suivant les besoins du trafic et les convenances du service postal.

Transit charges for closed mails.

3.—Les correspondances échangées en dépêches closes entre deux Administrations de l'Union, au moyen des services d'une ou de plusieurs autres Administrations de l'Union, sont soumises, au profit de chacun des pays traversés ou dont les services participent au transport, aux frais de transit suivants, savoir:

Land transits.

ARTICLE 4.

Transit and warehousing charges.

1. Freedom of transit is guaranteed throughout the entire territory of the Union.

Administrations have the right to suppress the postal service with any country which does not observe the provisions of the preceding paragraph. These Administrations must give previous notice of this measure, by telegraph, to the Administration concerned.

b) à 4 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et à 50 centimes par kilogramme d'autres objets, pour les échanges effectués sur un parcours excédant 300 milles marins, entre pays d'Europe, entre l'Europe et les ports d'Afrique et d'Asie sur la Méditerranée et la mer Noire ou de l'un à l'autre de ces ports, et entre l'Europe et l'Amérique du Nord. Les mêmes prix sont applicables aux transports assurés dans tout le ressort de l'Union entre deux ports d'un même Etat, ainsi qu'entre les ports de deux Etats desservis par la même ligne de paquebots lorsque le trajet maritime n'excède pas 1500 milles marins;

c) à 8 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et à 1 franc par kilogramme d'autres objets, pour tous les transports ne rentrant pas dans les catégories énoncées aux alinéas a et b ci-dessus.

4.—L'entrepôt, dans un port, de dépêches closes apportées par un paquebot et destinées à être reprises par un autre paquebot, donne lieu au payement d'une rémunération fixée à 50 centimes par sac au profit de l'Office des postes du lieu d'entrepôt, pourvu que cet Office ne reçoive pas de payement pour un service de transit territorial ou maritime. Toutefois, le simple transbordement de paquebot à paquebot ne donne lieu à aucun payement.

Open mail transit charges.

5.—Les correspondances échangées à découvert entre deux Administrations de l'Union sont soumises, par article et sans égard au poids ou à la destination, aux frais de transit suivants, savoir:

En outre, partout où le transit, tant territorial que maritime, est actuellement gratuit ou soumis à des conditions plus avantageuses, ce régime est maintenu.

Expenses borne by country of origin.

7.—Les frais de transit et d'entrepôt sont à la charge de l'Administration du pays d'origine.

4. For the warehousing in a port of closed mails, brought by one vessel and intended to be taken on by another, a fixed payment of 50 centimes per bag is made to the Post Office of the place where the mails are warehoused, provided that such Office does not receive payment for a land or sea transit. Simple transshipment, however, from vessel to vessel does not give rise to any payment.

5. Correspondence exchanged à découvert between two Administrations of the Union is subject to the following transit charges per article, and irrespective of weight or destination, namely:

Letters... 6 centimes each.
Post cards 2½ centimes each.
Other articles... 2½ centimes each.

6. The transit rates specified in the present article do not apply to conveyance within the Union by means of extraordinary services specially established or maintained by one Administration at the request of one or several other Administrations. The conditions of this class of conveyance are regulated by mutual consent between the Administrations concerned.

Moreover, in all cases where the transit, either by land or by sea, is at present gratuitous or subject to more advantageous conditions, such state of things is maintained.

7. The expenses of transit and warehousing are borne by the Administration of the country of origin.

8. The general accounting for these expenses is based on statements prepared once in every three years, during a period of 28

10.—Lorsque le solde annuel des décomptes des frais de transit et d'entrepôt entre deux Administrations ne dépasse pas 1000 francs, l'Administration débitrice est exonérée de tout payement de ce chef.

ARTICLE 5.

Services aériens.

Sont assimilés aux services extraordinaires dont il est fait mention à l'article 4, § 6, les services aériens établis pour le transport de correspondances entre deux ou plusieurs pays.

Les conditions du transport sont déterminées de gré à gré entre les Administrations intéressées. Toutefois, les frais de transit afférents à chaque parcours effectué par voie aérienne sont uniformes pour toutes les Administrations qui font emploi de ce service sans participer aux frais d'exploitation.

ARTICLE 5.

Aerial services. Aerial services.

Aerial services established for the conveyance of correspondence between two or more countries are considered as analogous to the extraordinary services to which article 4, § 6, refers. Charges analogous to extraordinary service. Ante, p. 1976.

les Administrations conviennent d'assurer ce service.

Les objets contre remboursement sont soumis aux formalités et aux taxes des envois recommandés.

L'expéditeur paie, en outre, un droit fixe de remboursement de 10 centimes.

Le maximum du remboursement est égal à celui fixé pour les mandats de poste à destination du pays d'origine de l'envoi.

Sauf arrangement contraire entre les Administrations intéressées, le montant du remboursement est exprimé dans la monnaie du pays de destination.

2.—Sous la même réserve, le montant encaissé du destinataire doit être transmis à l'expéditeur au moyen d'un mandat de poste après déduction d'un droit d'encaissement de 15 centimes et de la taxe ordinaire des mandats calculée sur le montant du reliquat.

Les mandats de remboursement, qui n'ont pas été payés aux bénéficiaires pour un motif quelconque ne sont pas remboursés à l'Office d'émission, et le montant en revient définitivement à l'Administration du pays expéditeur des envois grevés de remboursement, après l'expiration du délai légal de prescription.

A tous les autres égards les mandats de remboursement sont soumis aux dispositions fixées par l'Arrangement concernant le service des mandats de poste.

3.—La perte d'un envoi recommandé grevé de remboursement engage la responsabilité du service postal envers l'expéditeur dans les conditions déterminées par l'article 10 ci-après pour les envois recommandés.

4.—Les sommes encaissées régulièrement du destinataire, déduction faite de la taxe du mandat et du droit d'encaissement, sont garanties à l'expéditeur dans les conditions déterminées par l'Arrangement concernant le service des mandats de poste pour les Regulations. These articles are subject to the same regulations and rates as registered articles.

Fee. The sender pays, in addition, a fixed trade charge fee of 10 centimes.

Maximum trade charge. The maximum trade charge is equal to the maximum amount fixed for money orders addressed to the country in which the article originated.

In the absence of any contrary arrangement between the Administrations concerned, the amount of the trade charge is expressed in the money of the country of destination.

Transmittal to sender by money order. 2. Subject to the same reservation, the amount collected from the addressee is to be transmitted to the sender by means of a money order, after deducting a collection fee of 15 centimes and the ordinary rate chargeable for money orders calculated on the amount of the balance.

Unpaid money orders. Trade charge money orders which have not been paid to the payees for any reason whatever are not repaid to the office of issue, and their amount accrues definitely to the Administration of the country from which the articles marked with the trade charge were sent, after the expiration of the legal period of validity.

Money order provisions applicable. In all other respects, trade charge money orders are subject to the provisions of the Agreement concerning the Money Order Service.

Lost registered articles. 3. For the loss of a registered article marked with a trade charge the responsibility of the postal service toward the sender is fixed under the conditions settled by article 10 hereafter for registered articles.

Post, p. 1984.

Payment of sums collected, guaranteed. 4. The sums duly collected from the addressee, after deduction of the charge for the money order and the collection fee, are guaranteed to the sender under the conditions laid down by the Agreement concerning the Money Order Service for sums converted

Responsibility for delivery without collection, etc.

5.—Si l'envoi a été livré au destinataire sans encaissement du montant du remboursement, l'expéditeur a droit à une indemnité, à moins que le non-encaissement ne soit dû à une faute ou une négligence de sa part. L'indemnité ne pourra dépasser, dans aucun cas, le montant du remboursement. Il en est de même si la somme encaissée du destinataire est inférieure au montant du remboursement indiqué. Par le fait du payement de l'indemnité, l'Administration est subrogée dans les droits de l'expéditeur pour tout recours éventuel contre le destinataire ou les tiers.

La responsabilité incombe à l'Office du pays de destination, à moins que celui-ci ne puisse prouver que le non-encaissement du remboursement ou l'encaissement d'une somme inférieure est dû à la non-observation d'une disposition réglementaire par l'Office du pays d'origine.

Payment by office of origin if amount collected but not forwarded to sender.

6.—Pour les envois grevés de remboursement dont le montant encaissé régulièrement du destinataire n'a pas été transmis à l'expéditeur, l'Office d'origine est autorisé à payer ce montant à l'ayant droit au plus tard dans le délai d'un an à partir du jour qui suit celui de la réclamation. Ce paiement a lieu pour le compte de l'Office destinataire. L'indemnité éventuelle pour les envois grevés de remboursement livrés au destinataire sans encaissement du montant indiqué ou contre encaissement d'une somme inférieure, ainsi que pour les envois dont le montant a été encaissé frauduleusement, doit être payée par l'Office d'origine à l'ayant droit dans le même délai. Le payement se fait également pour le compte de l'Office destinataire, si la responsabilité incombe à cet Office en vertu des dispositions du § 5 précédent. Il en est de même, si l'Office destinataire régulièrement saisi a laissé s'écouler six mois sans donner de soluinto money orders, except in the case provided for in the second paragraph of § 1 of Article 10 below.

5. If the article has been delivered to the addressee without the collection of the trade charge, the sender is entitled to compensation, unless the failure to collect the charge is due to fault or negligence on his part. The compensation may not, in any case, exceed the amount of the trade charge. The same rule applies if the amount collected from the addressee is less than the amount of the trade charge indicated. By paying compensation the Administration takes over the rights of the sender in any action which may be taken against the addressee or third parties.

The responsibility rests with the Office of the country of destination, unless the latter can prove that the failure to collect the trade charge or the collection of a smaller sum is due to a breach of the regulations by the Office of the country of origin.

6 As regards articles marked with trade charges of which the amount has been duly collected from the addressee but not forwarded to the sender, the Office of origin is authorized to pay this amount to the proper person within a year at latest from the day following the date of application. This payment is made on behalf of the Office of destination. Any compensation for articles marked with trade charges delivered to the addressee without collection of the amount indicated or against collection of a smaller amount, as well as for articles of which the amount has been collected fraudulently, must be paid by the Office of origin to the proper person within the same period. The payment is also made on account of the Office of destination, if the responsibility rests with that Office by virtue of the provisions of § 5 above. The same rules apply if the Office of destination, duly informed of the application, has let six months pass without settling the matter.

tion à l'affaire. Ce délai est porté à neuf mois dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer. Les délais comprennent le temps nécessaire pour l'expédition de la demande à l'Office destinataire et son renvoi à l'Office d'origine.

Toutefois, l'Office d'origine peut différer exceptionnellement le dédommagement de l'expéditeur au delà du délai précité, lorsque, à l'expiration de ce délai, il n'est pas encore fixé sur le sort de l'envoi grevé de remboursement ou sur les responsabilités encourues.

L'Office destinataire est tenu de restituer à l'Office expéditeur les sommes avancées dans les conditions prévues au § 5 précédent.

ARTICLE 9.

Cartes d'identité.

1.—Chaque Administration peut délivrer, aux personnes qui en font la demande, des cartes d'identité destinées à servir de pièces justificatives pour toutes les transactions effectuées par les bureaux de poste. Ces cartes sont valables dans tous les pays de l'Union sauf dans ceux qui notifieraient leur non-adhésion à ce service.

2.—L'Administration qui délivre une carte d'identité est autorisée à percevoir, de ce chef, une taxe qui doit être représentée en timbres-poste sur la carte; cette taxe ne peut être supérieure à un franc.

3.—Les Administrations sont dégagées de toute responsabilité lorsqu'il est établi que la livraison d'un envoi postal ou le payement d'un mandat a eu lieu sur la présentation d'une carte d'identité régulière.

4.—Le titulaire d'une carte d'identité est responsable des conséquences que peut entraîner la perte, la soustracion ou l'emploi frauduleux de la carte.

5.—La carte d'identité est valable pendant deux ans à partir du jour de son émission. Si, pendant le délai de validité de la carte la physionomie du titulaire s'est modifiée à tel point qu'elle ne

The Office of origin may, however, postpone exceptionally the compensation of the sender beyond the period before mentioned, when, at the expiration of this period, it has not been definitely informed as to the disposal of the article with trade charge, or as to the responsibility incurred.

Repayment to office of dispatch.

The Office of destination is bound to repay to the Office of dispatch the sums advanced under the conditions prescribed in § 5 above.

Identity cards.

Identity cards.

Issue on application.

1. Each Administration may issue, to persons who apply for them, identity cards intended to serve as proofs of identity for all kinds of post office business. These cards are valid in all the countries of the Union except those which may notify that they do not adhere to this service.

Charge.

2. The Administration which issues an identity card is authorized to make, on this account, a charge which must be represented by postage stamps on the card; this charge may not exceed 1 franc.

Nonresponsibility on delivery to holder.

3. Administrations are relieved from all responsibility when it is established that a postal packet was delivered or a money order was paid on presentation of a proper identity card.

Responsibility of holder.

4. The holder of an identity card is responsible for the consequences of the loss, abstraction or fraudulent use of the card.

5. The identity card is valid for two years from the date of issue. If, during the period of validity of the card, the personal appearance of the holder is modified to such an extent that it no

Responsabilité en matière d'envois recommandés.

Indemnity for loss.

1.—En cas de perte d'un envoi recommandé et sauf le cas de force majeure, l'expéditeur a droit à une indemnité de 50 francs.

Not applicable to prohibited articles.

Toutefois, les Administrations sont dégagées de toute responsabilité pour la perte d'envois recommandés dont le contenu tombe sous le coup des interdictions prévues à l'article 18, § 2, de la présente Convention.

Post, p. 1992.

Indemnity fee.

2.—Les pays disposés à se charger des risques pouvant dériver du cas de force majeure sont autorisés à percevoir de ce chef sur l'expéditeur une surtaxe de 50 centimes au maximum pour chaque envoi recommandé.

Payment.

3.—L'obligation de payer l'indemnité incombe à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur. Est réservé à cette Administration le recours contre l'Administration responsable, c'est-à-dire contre l'Administration sur le territoire ou dans le service de laquelle la perte a eu lieu.

Force majeure risks if similar indemnity to people of country where occurring.

En cas de perte, dans des circonstances de force majeure, sur le territoire ou dans le service d'un pays se chargeant des risques mentionnés au paragraphe précédent, d'un objet recommandé provenant d'un autre pays, le pays où la perte a eu lieu en est responsable devant l'Office expéditeur, si ce dernier se charge, de son côté, des risques en cas de force majeure à l'égard de ses expéditeurs.

4.—Jusqu'à preuve du contraire, la responsabilité incombe à l'Administration qui, ayant reçu l'objet sans faire d'observation, et étant mise en possession de tous les moyens réglementaires d'investigation, ne peut établir ni la délivrance au destinataire, ni,

ARTICLE 10.

Responsibility for registered articles.

1. In case of the loss of a registered article, and except in cases beyond control, the sender is entitled to an indemnity of 50 francs.

Administrations are, however, relieved from all responsibility for the loss of registered articles of which the contents fall within the prohibitions prescribed by article 18, section 2, of the present Convention.

2. Countries prepared to undertake risks arising from causes beyond control are authorized to collect from the sender, on this account, a supplementary charge of 50 centimes at most for each registered article.

3. The payment of the indemnity must be undertaken by the Administration to which the dispatching Office is subordinate. That Administration can make a claim on the Administration responsible, that is to say, against the Administration on the territory or in the service of which the loss took place.

In case of the loss, under circumstances beyond control, on the territory or in the service of a country undertaking the risks mentioned in the preceding paragraph, of a registered article sent from another country, the country in which the loss occurred is responsible for it to the dispatching Office, if the latter undertakes risks in cases beyond control in dealing with its own public.

4. Until the contrary is proved, responsibility rests with the Administration which, having received the article without making any observation, and being furnished with all the particulars for inquiry prescribed by the regulations, can not establish delivery s'il y a lieu, la transmission régulière à l'Administration suivante. Pour les envois adressés poste restante, ou conservés en instance à la disposition des destinataires, la responsabilité cesse par la délivrance à une personne qui a justifié de son identité suivant les règles en vigueur dans le pays de destination, et dont les noms et qualité sont conformes aux indications de l'adresse.

5.—Le payement de l'indemnité par l'Office expéditeur doit avoir lieu le plus tôt possible et, au plus tard, dans le délai de six mois à partir du jour de la réclamation. Ce délai est porté à neuf mois dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer.

L'Office expéditeur a la faculté de différer exceptionnellement le règlement de l'indemnité au delà du délai précité lorsque, à son expiration, il n'est pas encore fixé sur le sort de l'objet recherché ou lorsque la question de savoir si la perte de l'envoi est due à un cas de force majeure n'est pas encore tranchée.

Toutefois, l'Office d'origine est autorisé à désintéresser l'expéditeur pour le compte de l'Office intermédiaire ou destinataire qui, régulièrement saisi, a laissé s'écouler six mois (neuf mois dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer) sans donner de solution à l'affaire.

L'Office responsable ou pour le compte duquel le payement est effectué en conformité de l'alinéa précédent est tenu de rembourser à l'Office expéditeur le montant de l'indemnité et, le cas échéant, des intérêts dans le délai de trois mois après avis du payement. Ce remboursement s'effectue sans frais pour l'Office créditeur, soit au moyen d'un mandat de poste ou d'une traite, soit en espèces ayant cours dans le pays créditeur. Passé le délai de trois mois, la somme due à l'Office expéditeur est productive d'intérêts à raison de 7% l'an, à dater du jour de l'expiration dudit délai.

Dans le cas où un Office dont la responsabilité est dûment établie,

For articles addressed "Poste Restante," or held at the disposal of the addressees, responsibility ceases on delivery to a person who has proved his identity according to the rules in force in the country of destination, and whose name and description correspond to those indicated in the address.

Articles addressed poste restante, etc.

5. The payment of the indemnity by the dispatching Office must take place as soon as possible, and at the latest within six months of the date of the application. This period is extended to nine months in relations with oversea countries.

Payment.

The dispatching Office may exceptionally postpone settlement of the indemnity beyond the period mentioned when, on its expiration, it has not been definitely informed as to the disposal of the article inquired for, or when the question whether the loss of the article is due to a cause beyond control is not yet decided.

Postponement for definite information, etc.

The Office of origin is, however, authorized to settle with the sender on account of the Office, whether intermediate or of destination, which, duly informed of the application, has let six months (nine months in relations with oversea countries) pass without settling the matter.

Payment by office of origin after six months

The Office responsible or on whose account the payment is made in accordance with the preceding paragraph is bound to repay to the dispatching Office the amount of the indemnity and, if occasion arise, interest, within a period of three months after notice of payment. This repayment is made free of cost to the creditor Office, by means of either a money order or a draft, or in coin current in the creditor country. After the period of three months, the sum due to the dispatching Office bears interest, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, dating from the day of expiration of the said period.

a tout d'abord décliné le payement de l'indemnité, il doit, en outre, prendre à sa charge tous les frais accessoires résultant du retard non justifié apporté au payement.

Time limit.

6.—Il est entendu que la réclamation n'est admise que dans le délai d'un an, à compter du jour qui suit le dépôt à la poste de l'envoi recommandé; passé ce terme, le réclamant n'a droit à aucune indemnité.

Sharing liability.

7.—Si la perte a eu lieu en cours de transport sans qu'il soit possible d'établir sur le territoire ou dans le service de quel pays le fait s'est accompli, les Administrations en cause supportent le dommage par parts égales.

Responsibility to cease on delivery, etc.

at first declined to pay the indemnity, it must, in addition, bear all the necessary charges resulting from the unwarranted delay in payment.

6. It is understood that the application for an indemnity is only entertained if made within a year, counting from the day following the posting of the registered article; after this term the applicant has no right to any indemnity.

7. If the loss has occurred in course of conveyance without its being possible to ascertain on the territory or in the service of what country the loss took place, the Administrations concerned bear the loss in equal shares.

8. Administrations cease to be responsible for registered articles for which the owners have given a receipt and accepted delivery, as well as for articles which they cannot account for in consequence of the destruction of official documents through a cause beyond control.

ARTICLE 11.

Withdrawal from mail, etc.

Retrait de correspondances; modification de l'adresse ou des conditions d'envoi.

1.—L'expéditeur d'un objet de correspondance peut le faire retirer du service ou en faire modifier l'adresse, tant que cet objet n'a pas été livré au destinataire.

Charge for requests.

2.—La demande à formuler à cet effet est transmise par voie postale ou par voie télégraphique aux frais de l'expéditeur, qui doit payer, savoir:

1° pour toute demande par voie postale, la taxe applicable à une lettre simple recommandée;

2° pour toute demande par voie télégraphique, la taxe du télégramme d'après le tarif ordinaire.

ARTICLE 11.

Withdrawal of correspondence; alteration of address, or of conditions of dispatch.

1. The sender of an article of mail can have it withdrawn from the post or have its address altered, so long as the article has not been delivered to the addressee.

2. The request to this effect is sent by post or by telegraph at the expense of the sender, who must pay as follows:

1. For every request by post, the charge for a registered single-rate letter;

2. For every request by telegraph, the charge for a telegram according to the ordinary tariff.

3. The sender of a registered article marked with a trade charge can, under the conditions laid down for requests for alteration of address, demand the total or partial cancellation of the amount of the trade charge.

Le franc pris pour base des taxes postales s'entend du franc-or conforme au poids et au titre des monnaies d'or établis par la législation en vigueur dans les divers pays qui ont adopté cette unité monétaire.

Dans tous les pays de l'Union les taxes sont établies d'après une équivalence correspondant, aussi exactement que possible, dans la monnaie actuelle de chaque pays, à la valeur du franc-or.

Quant aux règlements qu'ont à se faire entre eux les Offices postaux des divers pays en exécution des dispositions de la présente Convention, pour solde de leurs comptes réciproques, ils se font sur la base du franc-or.

The franc, taken as the basis of postage rates, is the gold franc corresponding in weight and fineness to the gold coins established by the legislation in force in the various countries which have adopted that monetary unit.

Equivalent in actual currency of all countries.

In all countries of the Union postage rates are fixed at equivalents corresponding, as exactly as possible, in the actual currency of each country, to the value of the gold franc.

The payments to be made by the Post offices of the various countries under the terms of the present Convention, for the settlement of their accounts with each other, are made on the basis of the gold franc.

Affranchissement des envois; coupons-réponse; franchise de port.

1. L'affranchissement de tout envoi quelconque peut être opéré soit au moyen de timbres-poste valables dans le pays d'origine pour la correspondance des particuliers, soit au moyen d'empreintes de machines à affranchir, officiellement adoptées et fonctionnant sous le contrôle immédiat de l'Administration.

Sont considérés comme dûment affranchis: les cartes-réponse portant des timbres-poste du pays d'émission de ces cartes, les envois régulièrement affranchis pour leur premier parcours et dont le complément de taxe a été acquitté avant leur réexpédition ainsi que les journaux ou paquets de journaux dont la suscription porte la mention "Abonnements-poste" ou une mention équivalente, et qui sont expédiés en vertu de l'Arrangement particulier sur les abonnements aux journaux, prévu à l'article 21 de la présente Convention.

Prepayment of postage on every description of article can be effected either by means of postage stamps valid in the country of origin for the correspondence of private individuals, or by means of impressions of stamping machines, officially adopted and working under the immediate control of the Administration.

Articles deemed to be prepaid.

The following are considered as duly prepaid: reply post cards bearing postage stamps of the country of issue, articles properly prepaid for their first transmission and on which complementary postage has been paid before their redirection, as well as newspapers or packets of newspapers with the words "Abonnements-poste," or the equivalent, which are sent in virtue of the special Agreement for newspaper subscriptions, provided for in article 21 of the present Convention.

Post, p. 1995.

Reply coupons authorized.

2.—Des coupons-réponse peuvent être mis en vente dans les pays dont les Administrations ont accepté de se charger de ce débit. Le prix de vente minimum du coupon-réponse est de 50 centimes ou de l'équivalent de cette somme dans la monnaie du pays qui le débite.

Exchangeable for stamps of other countries.

Ce coupon est échangeable dans tout pays de l'Union contre un timbre ou des timbres représentant l'affranchissement d'une lettre simple originaire de ce pays à destination de l'étranger. Toutefois, l'échange doit se faire avant l'expiration du deuxième mois qui suit celui de l'émission; ce délai est majoré de quatre mois dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer. Le Règlement d'exécution de la Convention détermine les autres conditions de cet échange et notamment l'intervention du Bureau international dans la confection, l'approvisionnement et la comptabilité desdits coupons.

Free official postal correspondence.

3.—Les correspondances officielles relatives au service postal, échangées entre les Administrations postales, entre ces Administrations et le Bureau international, entre les bureaux de poste des pays de l'Union, et entre ces bureaux et les Administrations, sont admises à la franchise de port.

2. Reply coupons may be sold in those countries of which the Postal Administrations have agreed to issue them. The minimum selling price of a reply coupon is 50 centimes, or the equivalent of this sum in the money of the issuing country.

This coupon is exchangeable in any country of the Union for a stamp or stamps representing the postage on a single-rate letter originating in that country for abroad. The exchange must, however, be made before the end of the second month following the month of issue; this period is increased by four months in relations with oversea countries. The Detailed Regulations of the Convention settle the other conditions of this exchange and in particular the intervention of the International Bureau in manufacturing, supplying, and accounting for the coupons.

3. Official correspondence relative to the Postal Service exchanged between Postal Administrations, between these Administrations and the International Bureau, between Post Offices of Union countries, and between these Offices and the Administrations, is exempt from postage.

4. The same privilege is accorded to correspondence concerning prisoners of war, dispatched or received, either directly or as intermediary, by the Information Bureaus established on behalf of such persons, in belligerent countries or in neutral countries which have received belligerents on their territories.

With the exception of articles marked with a trade charge, correspondence intended for prisoners of war or dispatched by them is also exempt from all postal charges, not only in the countries of origin and destination, but in intermediate countries.

Belligerents received and interned in a neutral country are Approval by Postmaster General.

Having examined and considered the provisions of the aforegoing Convention signed at Madrid on the thirtieth day of November, A. D. 1920, revising the Universal Postal Convention which was concluded in Rome on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1906; the same is by me, by virtue of the powers vested by law in the Postmaster General, hereby ratified and approved, by and with the advice and consent of the President of the United States, except the provision of Article 3, Paragraph 3, and Article 25, Paragraph 1, last sentence, respectively, each of which reads as follows:

Ante, p. 1973.

"The high contracting parties undertake not to impose, on postal grounds, special obligations on packets employed in regular mail services and maintained by a country of the Union, in exchange for advantages and privileges which may exist or be established in favor of any class of merchant ships, especially as regards the formalities and arrangements on entering or leaving port."

Ante, p. 1997.

"If one of the Offices concerned does not take any action on a proposal for arbitration within 12 months from the day following the date of the first application, the International Bureau, on a request to that effect, may call on the defaulting Administration to appoint an arbitrator, or may appoint one officially."

In witness whereof, I have caused the seal of the Post Office Department of the United States to be hereto affixed, this 31st day of December, 1921.

[SEAL.] WILL. H. HAYS, Postmaster General.

Approval by the President.

I hereby approve the above mentioned Convention, with the exception of the provisions of Articles 3 and 25, recited in the ratification of the Postmaster General, which are not approved and ratified by the Government of the United States, and in testimony thereof have caused the seal of the United States to be hereto affixed.

[SEAL.] WARREN G. HARDING

By the President:
CHARLES E. HUGHES
Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, January 23, 1922.

PROTOCOLE FINAL.

Au moment de procéder à la signature des Conventions arrêtées par le Congrès postal universel de Madrid, les plénipotentiaires soussignés sont convenus de ce qui suit:

I

Les dispositions de l'article 11 de la Convention ne s'appliquent pas à la Grande-Bretagne et aux Dominions, Colonies et Protectorats britanniques, dont la législation intérieure ne permet pas le retrait de correspondances à la demande de l'expéditeur.

II

Chaque pays de l'Union, qu'il ait ou non le franc pour unité monétaire, a la faculté de fixer dans sa monnaie intérieure, d'accord avec l'Administration des postes suisses, les équivalents des taxes prévues par la présente Convention.

Ces équivalents ne peuvent pas être supérieurs au montant des taxes fixées par la présente Convention ni inférieurs au montant des taxes qui étaient en vigueur le 1er octobre 1920. Ils pourront cependant subir des modifications correspondant à la hausse ou à la baisse de la valeur de la monnaie légale du pays considéré, à condition de ne pas descendre en dessous des taxes adoptées lors de la mise à exécution de la Convention de Rome.

III

Lorsque les taxes en vigueur dans un pays sont, par rapport au franc-or, à tel point inférieures à celles d'un autre pays qu'il devient avantageux d'expédier non affranchis ou insuffisamment affranchis les objets de la poste aux lettres à destination du premier de ces pays, l'Administration du second pays peut déclarer obligatoire l'affranchissement complet de ces objets.

FINAL PROTOCOL.

Final protocol.

At the moment of proceeding to sign the Conventions adopted by the Universal Postal Congress of Madrid, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries have agreed as follows:

I

Withdrawal of correspondence, not applicable to Great Britain, colonies, etc.
Ante, p. 1986.

The provisions of article 11 of the Convention do not apply to Great Britain and to the British Dominions, Colonies, and Protectorates, of which the internal legislation does not permit the withdrawal of correspondence at the request of the sender.

II

Each country to fix equivalent of the franc.

Each country of the Union, whether or not it has the franc for its monetary unit, is empowered to fix in its own currency, by agreement with the Swiss Postal Administration, the equivalents of the rates prescribed by the present Convention.

Restriction.

These equivalents must not exceed the rates fixed by the present Convention, or be less than the rates in force on the 1st of October, 1920. They may, however, be modified in accordance with the rise or fall of the value of the legal currency of the country concerned, on condition that they do not fall below the rates adopted when the Convention of Rome came into force.

III

Obligatory prepayments.

When the rates in force in one country are, when compared with the gold franc, so much lower than those of another country that it becomes advantageous to send articles of mail addressed to the first country unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, the Administration of the second country may declare complete prepayment to be obligatory.

Reciprocal measures.

L'Administration du pays à l'égard duquel cette mesure a été prise, est autorisée à l'appliquer, à titre de réciprocité et pour la même période, aux objets de correspondance à destination de l'autre pays.

Nonacceptance of reply-paid post cards permitted.

Est réservée à chaque pays la faculté de ne pas admettre les cartes postales avec réponse payée, dans les relations avec les autres pays lorsque la différence entre les taxes des deux pays est telle que l'emploi de ces cartes peut donner lieu à des abus de la part du public.

The Administration of the country with regard to which this measure is taken is authorized to apply it, as a reciprocal measure and for the same period, to correspondence addressed to the other country.

Each country is empowered not to accept reply-paid post cards in the service with other countries when the difference between the postage rates of the two countries is such that the use of these cards may give rise to abuses on the part of the public.

IV

IV

Surcharge for articles in floating safe on mail vessels.

Est réservée aux pays de l'Union la faculté de percevoir une surtaxe, qui ne peut dépasser 30 centimes par 20 grammes ou fraction de 20 grammes, pour chaque envoi qui, à la demande de l'expéditeur, est transporté dans un coffrefort flottant placé à bord d'un paquebot postal. La surtaxe est acquise au pays d'origine de l'envoi.

Regulation of use.

L'emploi de coffres-forts flottants est réglé de commun accord entre les Administrations qui conviennent d'assurer ce service dans leurs relations réciproques.

Countries of the Union are empowered to charge a surtax, which may not exceed 30 centimes per 20 grams or fraction of 20 grams, for each article which, at the request of the sender, is conveyed in a floating safe placed on board a mail vessel. The surtax is retained by the country of origin of the article.

The use of floating safes is regulated by mutual agreement between the Administrations which agree to provide this service in their reciprocal relations.

V

Vote to New Zealand, etc., declared.

Il est pris acte de la déclaration faite par la délégation britannique au nom de son Gouvernement et portant qu'il a cédé à la Nouvelle-Zélande avec les îles Cook et autres îles dépendantes, la voix que l'article 29, 6°, de la Convention attribue aux autres dominions et à l'ensemble des colonies et protectorats britanniques.

Ante, p. 2000.

Note is taken of the declaration made by the British delegation in the name of their Government to the effect that it has assigned to New Zealand, with the Cook Islands and other island dependencies, the vote which article 29, par. 6, of the Convention attributes to the other dominions and the whole of the British colonies and protectorates.

VI

Le Protocole demeure ouvert en faveur des pays dont les représentants n'ont signé aujourd'hui que la Convention principale, ou un certain nombre seulement des Conventions arrêtées par le Congrès, à l'effet de leur permettre d'adhérer aux autres Conventions signées ce jour, ou à l'une ou l'autre d'entre elles.

The Protocol remains open to those countries whose representatives have to-day signed only the principal Convention, or only a certain number of the Conventions settled by the Congress, in order to permit them to adhere to the other Conventions signed this day, or to one or other of them.

VII

Dans le cas où une ou plusieurs des parties contractantes aux Conventions postales signées aujourd' hui à Madrid ne ratifieraient pas l'une ou l'autre de ces Conventions, cette Convention n'en sera pas moins valable pour les Etats qui l'auront ratifiée.

En foi de quoi les plénipotentiaires ci-dessous ont dressé le présent Protocole final, qui aura la même force et la même valeur que si ses dispositions étaient insérées dans le texte même des Conventions auxquelles il se rapporte, et ils l'ont signé en un exemplaire qui restera déposé aux Archives du Gouvernement de l'Espagne et dont une copie sera remise à chaque partie.

In faith whereof the undermentioned plenipotentiaries have drawn up the present final Protocol, which shall have the same force and validity as if its provisions were inserted in the text itself of the Conventions to which it relates, and they have signed it in a single copy which shall remain in the Archives of the Government of Spain and of which a copy shall be delivered to each party. SARRE, KINGDOM of the SERBS, CROATS and SLOVENES, KINGDOM OF SIAM, SWEDEN, SWITZERLAND, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, TUNIS, TURKEY, URUGUAY, and UNITED STATES OF VENEZUELA.

The undersigned, having regard to Article 22 of the Universal Postal Convention concluded at Madrid on the 30th of November 1920 have, in the name of their respective Administrations, settled by mutual consent the following measures for ensuring the execution of the said Convention.

Measures adopted. Ante, p. 1995.

I

Direction des correspondances.

1.—Chaque Administration est obligée d'expédier, par les voies les plus rapides qu'elle emploie pour ses propres envois, les dépêches closes et les correspondances à découvert qui lui sont livrées par une autre Administration. Toutefois, l'Administration du pays d'origine a la faculté d'indiquer la voie à suivre par les dépêches closes qu'elle expédie, pourvu que l'emploi de cette voie n'entraîne pas, pour une Administration intermédiaire, des frais spéciaux excessifs.

Dans les cas où une Administration, par des circonstances extraordinaires, se voit obligée de suspendre temporairement l'expédition des dépêches closes et des correspondances à découvert qui lui sont livrées par une autre Administration, elle est tenue d'en donner immédiatement avis, au besoin par télégraphe, à l'Administration, ou aux Administrations intéressées.

2.—Les Administrations qui usent de la faculté de percevoir

I

Routing of mails.

Routing of mails.

1. Each Administration is bound to forward, by the most rapid routes that it uses for its own mails, closed mails and correspondence à découvert which are delivered to it by another Administration. The Administration of the country of origin is, however, entitled to prescribe the route to be followed by the closed mails which it sends, provided that the use of that route does not entail excessive special expense on an intermediate Administration.

Forwarding by most rapid route.

In the event of an Administration finding itself obliged, by exceptional circumstances, to suspend temporarily the dispatch of closed mails and correspondence à découvert which are delivered to it by another Administration, it is bound at once to notify the fact, if necessary by telegraph, to the Administration or Administrations concerned.

Temporary suspension.

2. Administrations which avail themselves of the power to levy des taxes supplémentaires, en représentation des frais extraordinaires afférents à certaines voies, sont libres de ne pas diriger, par ces voies, les correspondances insuffisamment affranchies.

supplementary charges, as representing the extraordinary expenses pertaining to certain routes, are free not to forward insufficiently paid correspondence by those routes.

II

Exchange in closed mails.

Échange en dépêches closes.

Mutual consent.

1.—L'échange des correspondances en dépêches closes, entre les Administrations de l'Union, est réglé d'un commun accord et selon les nécessités du service entre les Administrations en cause.

Through another country.

2.—S'il s'agit d'un échange à faire par l'entremise d'un ou de plusieurs pays tiers, les Administrations de ces pays doivent en être prévenues en temps opportun.

Making up of closed mails.

3.—Il est, d'ailleurs, obligatoire de former des dépêches closes toutes les fois qu'une des Administrations intermédiaires en fait la demande, se basant sur le fait que le nombre de correspondances à découvert est de nature à entraver ses opérations.

Alteration in exchange.

4.—En cas de changement dans un service d'échange en dépêches closes établi entre deux Administrations par l'entremise d'un ou de plusieurs pays tiers, l'Administration qui a provoqué le changement en donne connaissance aux Administrations des pays par l'entremise desquels cet échange s'effectue.

II

Exchange in closed mails.

1. The exchange of correspondence in closed mails between the Administrations of the Union is regulated by mutual consent between the Administrations concerned, and according to the requirements of the service.

2. If correspondence is to be exchanged through the medium of one or more countries, suitable notice must be given to the Administrations of those countries.

3. The making up of closed mails is, moreover, obligatory whenever a request to that effect is made by one of the intermediate Administrations on the ground that the amount of correspondence sent à découvert is such as to hinder its work.

4. In case of alteration in the exchange of closed mails established between two Administrations through the medium of one or more other countries, the Administration which has originated the alteration notifies it to the Administrations of the countries through the medium of which this exchange takes place.

III

Services extraordinaires.

Extraordinary services.
Extra charges for Indian mail by land.
Ante, p. 1976.

1.—Les services extraordinaires de l'Union donnant lieu à des frais spéciaux dont la fixation est réservée, par l'article 4, § 6 de la Convention, à des arrangements entre les Administrations intéressées, sont exclusivement ceux entretenus pour le transport territorial accéléré de la Malle dite des Indes.

Air mail.

Ante, p. 1977.

2.—Les transports aériens sont assimilés aux services extraordinaires (article 5 de la Convention principale).

III

Extraordinary services.

1. The extraordinary services of the Union giving rise to special charges, the fixing of which is reserved by article 4, section 6, of the Convention for arrangement between the Administrations concerned, are exclusively those which are maintained for the accelerated conveyance by land of the Indian Mail.

2. Air Mail services are placed on the same footing as extraordinary services (article 5 of the Principal Convention.)

IV

Fixation des taxes.

1.—Les Administrations des pays de l'Union perçoivent leurs taxes d'après les équivalents, qui sont fixés en exécution de l'article 12 de la Convention principale. Chaque Administration doit s'entendre avec l'Administration des postes suisses à laquelle il appartient de faire notifier les équivalents par l'intermédiaire du Bureau international.

Le Bureau international doit établir et distribuer aux Administrations un tableau indiquant, pour chaque pays, les équivalents: de la taxe de la lettre simple, du second port de la lettre, de la carte postale, et des autres objets par unité de 50 grammes.

2.—Lorsqu'un changement d'équivalents est jugé nécessaire, l'Administration du pays intéressé doit suivre la procédure indiquée au paragraphe précédent.

3.—Les fractions monétaires résultant, soit du complément de taxe applicable aux correspondances insuffisamment affranchies, soit de la fixation des taxes des correspondances échangées avec les pays étrangers à l'Union ou de la combinaison des taxes de l'Union avec les surtaxes prévues par l'article 6 de la Convention, peuvent être arrondies par les Administrations qui en effectuent la perception. Mais la somme à ajouter de ce chef ne peut, dans aucun cas, excéder la valeur d'un vingtième de franc (cinq centimes).

Fixing of postage rates.

Fixing rates.

1. The Administrations of the countries of the Union charge their postage rates according to the equivalents fixed in execution of article 12 of the Principal Convention. Each Administration must arrange with the Swiss Postal Administration whose duty it is to notify the equivalents through the International Bureau.

Equivalent charges.

Ante, p. 1987.

The International Bureau draws up and distributes to the Administrations a table indicating, for each country, the equivalents of the postage on a single-rate letter, of the second letter rate, of the post card rate, and of the rate for other articles per unit of 50 grams.

Table to be used.

2. When an alteration of equivalents is considered necessary the Administration of the country concerned must follow the procedure indicated in the foregoing paragraph.

Alterations.

3. Monetary fractions resulting either from the surtax on insufficiently paid correspondence, or from the fixing of the rates on correspondence exchanged with countries outside the Union, or from the combination of the Union charges with the surcharges contemplated by article 6 of the Convention, may be rounded by the Administrations which collect the charges. But the sum to be added on this account may in no case exceed the value of one-twentieth of a franc (five centimes).

V

Exceptions en matière de poids.

Il est admis, par mesure d'exception, que les États qui, à cause de leur régime intérieur, ne peuvent adopter le type de poids décimal métrique, ont la faculté d'y substituer l'once avoirdupois (28,3465 grammes) en assimilant une once à 20 grammes pour les Watermark.

Ante, p. 1987.
Post, p. 2087.

Chaque Administration a la faculté:

a. de donner aux coupons une perforation distinctive qui ne nuise pas à la lecture du texte et ne soit pas de nature à entraver la vérification de ces valeurs;

b. de modifier, à la main ou au moyen d'un procédé d'impression, le prix de vente indiqué sur les coupons.

Each Administration has the option:

(a) of marking the coupons with a special perforation which does not prevent the reading of the text and is not of such a character as to hinder the checking of the coupons;

(b) of modifying, by hand or by a printing process, the selling price, indicated on the coupons.

Optional marking.

2.—Le Bureau international fournit les coupons au prix coûtant, aux Administrations qui en font la demande.

2. The International Bureau supplies the coupons at cost price to the Administrations who apply for them.

3.—Chaque Administration débite les coupons au prix qu'elle détermine, sans que ce prix puisse toutefois être inférieur au minimum de 50 centimes (or) fixé par l'article 13 de la Convention.

3. Each Administration sells the coupons at a price fixed by itself, but this price may not be lower than the minimum of 50 centimes (gold) fixed by article 13 of the Convention.

Ante, p. 1988.

4.—Les coupons présentés par le public sont échangés contre un timbre-poste ou des timbres-poste représentant le prix de l'affranchissement d'une lettre simple à destination de l'étranger.

4. Coupons tendered by the public are exchanged for a postage stamp or stamps representing the postage on a single-rate letter addressed to a place abroad.

5. Not more than 10 coupons may be sold to or exchanged for the same person on any one day.

6. In the absence of other arrangements between the Administrations concerned, the coupons exchanged are sent every six months to the Administrations which issued them; they are accompanied in each case by a statement of their total number.

Return of exchanged coupons.

Statement of exchanges.

7.—Aussitôt que deux Administrations se sont mises d'accord sur le nombre des coupons échangés dans leurs relations réciproques, un relevé (modèle U) indiquant le solde débiteur ou créditeur est dressé par chacune des deux Administrations et transmis par celles-ci au Bureau international. Pour l'établissement de ce relevé, la valeur du coupon est calculée à 50 centimes par unité. Le Bureau international comprend le solde dans un décompte semestriel.

Post, p. 2106.

No statement for small balances.

8.—Lorsque, dans les rapports entre deux Administrations, le solde semestriel ne dépasse pas 25 francs l'Administration débitrice est exonérée de tout payement de ce chef et le relevé n'est pas dressé.

Special settlements.

9.—Dans le cas où deux Administrations se sont mises d'accord pour faire un règlement spécial elles ne transmettent pas de relevé au Bureau international.

Suspension of sales limitation.

10.—Les Administrations sont autorisées exceptionnellement et en raison de circonstances particulières, à suspendre, dans les limites qu'elles fixeront, l'application des restrictions concernant la vente et l'échange des coupons prévus au paragraphe 5 cidessus.

Ante, p. 2015.

Notification to Bureau.

Dans ce cas, elles feront part de leur décision au Bureau international, qui la communiquera aux Administrations de l'Union.

7. As soon as two Administrations have agreed on the number of coupons exchanged between them, a statement (Form U) indicating the debit or credit balance is drawn up by each of the two Administrations and forwarded by them to the International Bureau. For the preparation of this statement the value of the coupon is reckoned at 50 centimes. The International Bureau includes the balance in a half-yearly account.

8. When, in the relations between two Administrations, the half-yearly balance does not exceed 25 francs, the debtor Administration is exempt from all payments on this head, and the statement is not prepared.

9. If two Administrations have agreed to effect a special settlement, they do not forward a statement to the International Bureau.

10. Administrations are authorized exceptionally, and in consequence of special circumstances, to suspend, within limits which they may fix, the application of the restrictions, specified in paragraph 5 above, on the sale and exchange of coupons.

In that case, they shall inform the International Bureau of their decision, which shall communicate it to the Administrations of the Union.

Dans les localités pourvues de plusieurs bureaux de poste, les timbres d'oblitération doivent porter une indication permettant de constater quel est le bureau de dépôt.

L'application de ce timbre incombe à l'Office d'origine ou, s'il s'agit de correspondances devenues insuffisamment affranchies par suite de leur réexpédition ou de leur mise en rebut, à l'Office réexpéditeur. Les correspondances originaires de pays étrangers à l'Union sont frappées du timbre T par l'Office du pays d'entrée.

Le cas échéant, le bureau d'échange du pays de destination est tenu de signaler l'irrégularité par bulletin de vérification à l'Administration centrale dont relève le bureau d'origine. Ce bulletin doit relater très exactement l'origine et la date du dépôt de l'envoi.

6. Articles to be delivered by express have affixed a printed transparent label, dark red in color, bearing in large letters the word "Express." Administrations are, however, authorized to substitute for the label the impression of a stamp.

Correspondence which has been marked "Express" by the office of origin is delivered by special messenger, even when prepayment has been omitted or is insufficient. In such cases the office of exchange of the country of destination must report the irregularity by verification note to the Central Administration to which the office of origin is subordinate. This verification note must state precisely the origin and date of posting of the article.

Toutefois, il est permis aux Administrations dont le régime intérieur s'oppose actuellement à l'emploi des étiquettes, d'ajourner la mise à exécution de cette mesure et de continuer à employer des timbres pour la désignation des objets recommandés.

Number designation.

Il est cependant de rigueur, pour les Offices qui n'ont pas adopté l'étiquette modèle B, de désigner chaque envoi recommandé par un numéro d'ordre. Ce numéro doit être inscrit à l'angle gauche supérieur de la suscription. Il est obligatoire pour les Offices réexpéditeurs de désigner l'envoi par le numéro original.

Insufficiently paid articles.

5.—Les envois recommandés, insuffisamment affranchis ou non affranchis, sont traités comme les envois ordinaires en ce qui concerne l'affranchissement man-of the envelope and must be parallel to the longest side, so that the address of the addressee appears in the same direction; it must be placed so as not to interfere with the application of the date stamp.

(b) The panel must be sufficiently transparent for the address to be perfectly legible, even in artificial light, and must take writing.

Articles forwarded in envelopes with a transparent panel may be registered.

3. Subject to the exceptions specified in the preceding paragraphs no special conditions as to form or make-up are prescribed for registered articles. Each Office is empowered to apply to such articles the regulations in force in its inland service.

4. Registered articles must bear in the upper left-hand corner of the address side a label identical with, or similar to, Form B annexed to the present Regulations, indicating in Roman characters the name of the office of origin and the serial number under which the article is entered in the records of that Office.

Nevertheless, Administrations whose inland regulations do not at present permit of the use of labels may postpone the introduction of this arrangement, and continue to use stamps to distinguish registered articles.

It is, however, compulsory for Offices which have not adopted the label B, to designate each registered article by a number. This number must be written in the upper left-hand corner of the address side. It is obligatory on redirecting Offices to designate the article by the original number.

5. Insufficiently paid or unpaid registered articles are treated like unregistered articles so far as the deficiency is concerned. The charges due in both cases are colquant. Les taxes dues dans l'un et l'autre cas sont perçues et retenues par le pays qui effectue la distribution des envois.

6.—Des vignettes de bienfaisance peuvent être collées au verso de toutes les catégories de correspondances prévues à l'article 2 de la Convention.

XII

Avis de réception des objets recommandés.

1.—Les envois dont l'expéditeur demande un avis de réception doivent porter l'annotation très apparente "Avis de réception" ou l'empreinte d'un timbre portant: A. R.

2.—Ils sont accompagnés d'une formule de la grandeur et de la consistance d'une carte postale conforme ou analogue au modèle C ci-annexé; cette formule est établie par le bureau d'origine ou par tout autre bureau à désigner par l'Office expéditeur et réunie, extérieurement et d'une manière solide, à l'objet auquel elle se rapporte. Si elle ne parvient pas au bureau de destination, celui-ci dresse d'office un nouvel avis de réception.

Les avis de réception doivent être formulés en français ou porter une traduction sublinéaire en cette langue.

3.—Le bureau de destination, après avoir dûment rempli la formule C, la renvoie à découvert et en franchise de port à l'adresse de l'expéditeur de l'objet.

4.—Lorsque l'expéditeur demande un avis de réception d'un objet recommandé postérieurement au dépôt de cet objet, le bureau d'origine reproduit sur une formule C la description très exacte de l'objet recommandé (nature de l'objet, bureau d'origine, date de dépôt, numéro, adresse complète du destinataire).

Cette formule est attachée à une réclamation modèle I revêtue d'un timbre-poste représentant la taxe d'avis de réception, et traitée selon les prescriptions de l'article XXIX du présent Règlement.

6. Stamps in aid of charitable objects may be affixed to the back of all classes of correspondence mentioned in article 2 of the Convention.

Charitable, allowed on back of mail matter.

1. Articles for which the sender requires an advice of delivery must be marked very clearly with the words "Avis de réception," or be stamped with the letters A. R.

Marking required of requests for.

2. They are accompanied by a form of the size and substance of a post card identical with or similar to the form C annexed; this form is made out by the office of origin or by any other office which the dispatching Office may appoint, and is securely attached to the outside of the article to which it relates. If it does not reach the office of destination, the latter makes out a new advice of delivery.

Form.

Post, p. 2087.

Advices of delivery must be in French or must have an interlinear translation in that language.

3. The office of destination, after having duly filled up form C, returns it à découvert and free of postage to the address of the sender of the article.

Return to sender.

4. When the sender applies for an advice of delivery of a registered article after the article has been posted, the office of origin enters in a form C an exact description of the registered article (its nature, office of origin, date of posting, number, complete address of the addressee).

Application of sender.

This form is attached to an inquiry form I to which is affixed a postage stamp representing the fee for an advice of delivery, and treated according to the provisions of Article XXIX of the glement, à cette exception près, que, en cas de distribution régulière de l'envoi auquel l'avis de réception se rapporte, le bureau de destination retire la formule I et renvoie la formule C, dont le verso a été dûment rempli, à l'origine, de la manière prescrite au § 3 précédent.

Post, p. 2087.

Inquiry for missing receipt.

5.—Si un avis de réception, régulièrement demandé par l'expéditeur au moment du dépôt, n'est pas parvenu à l'origine dans les délais voulus, on procède, pour réclamer l'avis manquant, conformément aux règles tracées au § 4 précédent. Dans ce dernier cas, il n'est pas perçu une deuxième taxe et le bureau d'origine inscrit en tête de la formule C la mention "Duplicata de l'avis de réception, etc."

Transmission of inquiries.

6.—Les dispositions particulières adoptées par les Administrations en vertu du § 5 de l'article XXIX du présent Règlement, pour la transmission des réclamations d'objets recommandés, sont applicables aux demandes d'avis de réception formulées postérieurement au dépôt des objets recommandés.

present Regulations with the exception that, in case of the due delivery of the article to which the advice of delivery relates, the office of destination withdraws the form I and returns to origin form C, of which the back has been duly completed in the manner provided in section 3 above.

5. If an advice of delivery, duly applied for by the sender at the time of posting, is not returned after a proper interval, inquiry for the missing advice is instituted in accordance with the rules laid down in section 4 above. In this case a second fee is not charged and the office of origin enters at the top of the form C the note "Duplicata de l'avis de réception, etc."

6. The special arrangements adopted by Administrations in virtue of section 5 of Article XXIX of the present Regulations for the transmission of inquiries respecting registered articles are applicable to requests for advices of delivery made after the articles have been posted.

Envois recommandés grevés de remboursement.

Registered articles marked with trade charges.

1.—Les envois recommandés grevés de remboursement doivent porter sur le recto l'en-tête "Remboursement" écrit ou imprimé d'une manière très apparente et suivi de l'indication du montant du remboursement. Le montant est exprimé en caractères latins, en toutes lettres et en chiffres, sans rature ni surcharge, même approuvées. L'expéditeur doit indiquer, sur le recto ou sur le verso, son nom et son adresse également en caractères latins.

1. Registered articles marked with trade charges must bear on the address side the heading "Remboursement," written or printed in a prominent manner, and followed by the indication of the amount of the trade charge. The amount is expressed in Roman characters, in words and in figures, without erasure or correction, even if certified. The sender must give on the front or on the back his name and address, also in Roman characters.

verser au crédit de comptes courants postaux du pays de destination de l'envoi le montant des sommes encaissées. Les conditions, taxes à percevoir et autres détails de ce service sont réglés d'un commun accord entre les Administrations intéressées.

4.—Si le destinataire ne paye pas le montant du remboursement dans un délai de 7 jours, dans les relations entre pays d'Europe et dans un délai de 15 jours dans les relations des pays d'Europe avec les pays hors d'Europe et de ces derniers pays entre eux, à partir du jour qui suit celui de l'arrivée au bureau destinataire, l'envoi est réexpédié au bureau d'origine.

Ces délais peuvent être étendus jusqu'à un maximum de 28 jours par les Administrations auxquelles leur législation en fait une obligation. L'expéditeur peut toutefois demander, par une annotation libellée dans une langue connue dans le pays de destination, le renvoi immédiat de l'objet à son adresse, si le destinataire refuse de payer le montant du remboursement lors de la première présentation.

5.—Sauf autre arrangement, la somme recouvrée, déduction faite du droit d'encaissement prévu à l'article 8, § 2 de la Convention et de la taxe ordinaire des mandats de poste, est convertie en un mandat de poste portant, en tête du recto, la mention "Remb." et établi pour le surplus en conformité du Règlement d'exécution de l'Arrangement concernant le service des mandats de poste. Il doit être fait mention, sur le coupon du mandat, du nom et de l'adresse du destinataire de l'envoi contre remboursement, ainsi que du lieu et de la date du dépôt de cet envoi.

6.—Sauf arrangement contraire, les envois grevés de remboursement peuvent être réexpédiés d'un des pays participant à ce service sur un autre de ces pays. En cas de réexpédition, l'Office conserve intacte la demande de remboursement originale, telle accounts in the country to which the article is addressed with the amount of the sums collected. The conditions, fees to be charged and other details of this service are settled by mutual agreement between the Administrations concerned.

Return of article if no payment made in designated time.

4. If the addressee does not pay the amount of the trade charges within an interval of 7 days, in relations between European countries, and within an interval of 15 days in relations between European and extra-European countries, or between extra-European countries themselves, reckoning from the day after that of arrival at the office of destination, the article is sent back to the office of origin.

These intervals may be extended to 28 days at most by Administrations whose internal legislation so requires. The sender may request, however, by a note in a language known in the country of destination, the immediate return of the article to the address, if the addressee refuses to pay the amount of the trade charge when the article is first tendered to him.

Request for return.

Money order for sum recovered, etc.

5. In the absence of any other arrangement, the sum recovered after deduction of the cashing fee prescribed in article 8 § 2, of the Convention and of the ordinary money order commission, is converted into a money order with the heading "Remb." on the face and made out for the amount of the balance in accordance with the Detailed Regulations of the Money Order Agreement. On the coupon of the order the name and address of the addressee of the article marked with a trade charge must be entered, as well as the date and place of posting of the article.

Ante, p. 1981.

Redirection, etc.

6. In the absence of any contrary arrangement, articles marked with trade charges may be redirected from one of the countries taking part in this service to another of those countries. In case of redirection, the original trade charge entry is preserved que l'expéditeur lui-même l'a formulée. L'Office de la destination définitive doit seul procéder à la conversion, dans sa monnaie, du montant du remboursement, d'après le taux en vigueur pour les mandats de poste; il lui appartient aussi de transformer le remboursement en un mandat sur le pays d'origine.

Disposition of orders not delivered to payees.

Money orders delivered but not cashed.

8.—Les mandats de remboursement qui ont été délivrés aux bénéficiaires et qui n'ont pas été encaissés sont remplacés par des autorisations de payement. Celles-ci sont dressées par l'Office qui a émis les mandats, dès qu'il a pu constater que les titres originaux n'ont pas été payés dans le délai de validité. Elles sont quittancées par l'Office de destination et inscrites par lui au plus prochain compte qui en suit l'envoi.

intact, exactly as made by the sender. The Office of final destination alone may convert into its currency the amount of the trade charges, in accordance with the rate of exchange in force for money orders; it also devolves upon that Office to convert the trade charge into a money order drawn on the country of origin.

7. Trade charge money orders which it has not been possible to deliver to the payees are, at the end of the period of validity, receipted by the Office which holds them and claimed from the Office which has issued them.

8. Trade charge money orders which have been delivered to the payees and not cashed are replaced by authorizations to pay; the latter are prepared by the Office which has issued the money orders, as soon as it has been possible to ascertain that the original orders have not been paid within the period of validity. They are receipted by the Office of destination and entered by it in the next account following the dispatch.

Les dimensions des cartes ne peuvent dépasser 14 centimètres en longueur et 9 centimètres en largeur, ni être inférieures à 10 centimètres en longueur et à 7 centimètres en largeur. Les cartes postales doivent être expédiées à découvert, c'est-à-dire sans bande ni enveloppe.

Post cards.

1. Post cards must bear on the face the heading "Carte postale" in French, or the equivalent of this heading in another language. This heading is, however, not obligatory for single post cards of private manufacture.

The size of the cards may not exceed 14 centimeters in length by 9 centimeters in width, nor be less than 10 centimeters in length by 7 centimeters in width. Post cards must be sent uninclosed, that is to say, without wrapper or envelope.

Post cards must be made of cardboard or of paper stout enough to be easily handled.

2. The postage stamps must, as far as possible, be affixed to the upper right-hand corner of the ad-rieur du recto. L'adresse du destinataire ainsi que les mentions relative au services (recommandé, avis de réception, etc.) doivent figurer au recto, dont la moitié droite au moins est réservée à ces indications. L'expéditeur dispose du verso et de la partie gauche du recto, sous réserve des dispositions du paragraphe suivant.

3.—Il est interdit au public de joindre ou d'attacher aux cartes postales des échantillons de marchandise ou des objets analogues. Toutefois, des vignettes, des photographies, des timbres de toute espèce, des bandes d'adresse ou des feuilles à replier, des étiquettes et des coupures de toute sorte peuvent y être collés à condition que ces objets ne soient pas de nature à altérer le caractère des cartes postales, qu'ils consistent en papier ou en une autre matière très mince et qu'ils soient complètement adhérents à la carte. A l'exception des bandes ou étiquettes d'adresse ces objets ne peuvent être collés que sur le verso ou sur la partie gauche du recto des cartes postales.

L'adresse de la carte-réponse doit se trouver du côté intérieur du pli.

Il est loisible à l'expéditeur d'une carte postale avec réponse payée d'indiquer son nom et son adresse au recto de la partie: "Réponse," soit par écrit, soit en y collant une étiquette.

L'affranchissement de la partie "Réponse" au moyen du timbre-poste du pays qui a émis la carte n'est valable que si les deux

The address of the recipient as well as indications relating to the postal service (registered, advice of delivery, &c.) must likewise appear on the address side, of which the right-hand half at least is reserved for these indications. The sender may make use of the back and of the left-hand half of the address side, subject to the provisions of the following paragraph.

Attachments restricted.

3. The public is forbidden to join or attach to post cards samples of merchandise or similar articles. Nevertheless, illustrations, photographs, stamps of any kind, address labels or slips to fold back for address purpose, labels and cuttings of any kind may be affixed to them, provided that these articles are not of such nature as to alter the character of the post cards, that they consist of paper or other very thin substance and that they adhere completely to the card. With the the exception of address labels or slips, these articles may only be affixed to the back or to the left-hand half of the address side of post cards.

Reply-paid postal cards.

4. Reply-paid post cards must bear on the face in French, as heading on the first half, the words "Carte postale avec réponse payée;" on the second half "Carte postale-réponse." Each of the two halves must, moreover, comply with the other conditions laid down for single post cards; one half is doubled over the other, and they may not be closed in any way.

Addressing.

The address of the reply half must be on the inside of the fold.

The sender of a reply-paid post card may indicate his name and address on the face of the "Reply" half, either in writing, or by affixing a label.

Prepayment of reply half.

The prepayment of the "Reply" half by means of the postage stamp of the country which has issued the card is valid only if the parties de la carte postale avec réponse payée sont parvenues adhérentes du pays d'origine et si la partie "Réponse" est expédiée du pays où elle est parvenue par la poste à destination dudit pays d'origine. Si ces conditions ne sont pas remplies, elle est traitée comme carte postale non affranchie.

Cards treated as letters.

5.—Les cartes postales ne remplissant pas, quant aux indications prescrites, aux dimensions, à la forme extérieure, les conditions imposées par le présent article à cette catégorie d'envois, sont traitées comme lettres.

1.—Les échantillons de marchandises ne sont admis à bénéficier de la modération de taxe qui leur est attribuée par l'article 6 de la Convention que sous les conditions suivantes:

Ils doivent être placés dans des sacs, des boîtes ou des enveloppes mobiles de manière à permettre une facile vérification.

Il n'est pas exigé d'emballage pour les objets d'une seule pièce, tels que pièces de bois, métalliques, etc., qu'il n'est pas dans les usages du commerce d'emballer, à condition que, le cas échéant, l'adresse et les timbres-poste figurent sur une étiquette.

Il est permis d'indiquer à la main ou par un procédé mécanique, à l'extérieur ou à l'intérieur de l'envoi, les nom, qualité, profession et adresse de l'expéditeur et du destinataire, ainsi que la date d'expédition, la signature, le numéro d'appel au téléphone, l'adresse et le code télégraphiques, le compte courant postal ou bancaire de l'expéditeur, une marque de fabrique ou de marchand, des numéros d'ordre, des prix et des indications relatives au poids, au métrage et à la dimension, ainsi qu'à la quantité disponible et celles qui sont nécessaires pour préciser la provenance et la nature de la marchandise.

doivent être insérés dans des flacons en verre hermétiquement bouchés. Chaque flacon doit être placé dans une boîte spéciale en bois ou en carton ondulé de qualité solide garnie de sciure de bois, de coton ou de matière spongieuse en quantité suffisante pour absorber le liquide en cas de bris du flacon. La boîte elle-même, si elle est en bois, doit être enfermée dans un second étui en métal, en bois avec couvercle vissé, en carton ondulé de qualité solide ou en cuir fort et épais.

Toutefois, lorsqu'on se sert d'une boîte constituée par un bloc en bois perforé ayant au moins 2½ millimètres dans la partie la plus faible et munie d'un couvercle, il n'est pas nécessaire que ce bloc soit enfermé dans un second étui.

Each bottle must be placed in a special box of wood or of strong corrugated cardboard containing sawdust, cotton, or spongy material in sufficient quantity to absorb the liquid in the event of the bottle becoming broken. The box itself, if it is of wood, must be inclosed in a second case of metal, of wood with a lid screwed down, of strong corrugated cardboard, or of stout thick leather.

When, however, a perforated wooden block is used having a thickness of at least 2½ millimeters in the thinnest part and fitted with a lid, it is not necessary to inclose this block in a second case.

Fatty substances.

3° Les corps gras difficilement liquéfiables, tels que les onguents, le savon mou, les résines, etc., dont le transport offre moins d'inconvénients, doivent être enfermés sous une première enveloppe (boîte, sac en toile, parchemin, etc.), placée elle-même dans une seconde boîte en bois, en métal ou en cuir fort et épais.

3. Fatty substances which do not easily liquefy, such as ointments, soft soap, resin, etc., the transmission of which presents fewer difficulties, must be inclosed in an inner cover (box, bag of linen or parchment, etc.), which must itself be placed in a second box of wood, metal, or stout thick leather.

Dyes, etc.

4° Les matières colorantes, telles que l'aniline, etc., ne sont admises que dans des boîtes en fer blanc résistant, placées à leur tour dans des boîtes en bois avec de la sciure entre les deux emballages; les poudres sèches non colorantes doivent être placées dans des boîtes en métal, en bois ou en carton. Ces boîtes sont elles-mêmes enfermées dans un sac en toile ou en parchemin.

4. Dyes such as aniline, etc., are not admitted unless inclosed in stout tin boxes, placed inside wooden boxes with sawdust between the two covers; dry noncoloring powders must be placed in boxes of metal, wood, or cardboard. These boxes are themselves inclosed in a bag of linen or parchment.

6° Les abeilles vivantes doivent être renfermées dans des boîtes disposées de façon à éviter tout danger et à permettre la vérification du contenu.

7° Les objets de toute nature qui se gâteraient, s'ils étaient emballés de la manière prescrite au paragraphe 1, peuvent exceptionnellement être admis sous un emballage hermétiquement fermé. Dans ce cas, les Administrations intéressées peuvent exiger que l'expéditeur ou le destinataire facilite la vérification du contenu, soit en ouvrant quelques-uns des envois désignés par elles, soit d'une autre manière satisfaisante.

3.—Sont également admis au tarif des échantillons les clichés d'imprimerie, les clefs isolées, les fleurs fraîches coupées, les objets d'histoire naturelle (animaux et plantes séchés ou conservés, spécimens géologiques, etc.), tubes de sérum et objets pathologiques rendus inoffensifs par leur mode de préparation et d'emballage. In that case, the Administrations concerned may require the sender or the addressee to assist in the check of the contents, either by opening certain packets indicated by them or in some other satisfactory manner. Provisions for hermetically sealed articles.

3. Transmission at the sample rate is likewise accorded to electrotypes, keys sent singly, fresh cut flowers, articles of natural history (dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens, etc.), tubes of serum and pathological objects rendered harmless by their mode of preparation and packing. These articles, except tubes of serum sent in the general interest by laboratories or institutions officially recognized, must not be sent for a commercial purpose. Their packing must be in accordance with the general regulations concerning samples of merchandise. Transmission of specified articles at sample rates.

Each mail bears a separate number, even when it is a supplementary dispatch forwarded by

A la première expédition de chaque année, la feuille d'avis doit porter, outre le numéro d'ordre de la dépêche, celui de la dernière dépêche de l'année précédente.

Number of registered articles.

Le nombre des objets recommandés inscrits sur les listes, le nombre des listes et le nombre des paquets ou des sacs qui renferment ces objets doivent être portés sur la feuille d'avis.

3. At the head of the letter bill there must be an entry of the total number of registered articles, of the packets or bags containing those articles, and, by means of a stamp, of a label, or of a manuscript note, of the presence of articles intended for express delivery.

4. The registered articles are entered individually in Table No. I of the letter bill with the following details: the name of the office of origin and the number given to the article at that office; or, the name of the office of origin, the name of the addressee, and the place of destination.

When several lists are used, they must be numbered. The number of registered articles which may be entered on one and the same list is limited to 30.

The number of registered articles entered on the lists, the number of lists, and the number of packets or bags containing those articles must be entered on the letter bill.

9.—Lorsqu'un bureau d'échange n'a aucun objet à livrer à un bureau correspondant, il n'en doit pas moins envoyer, dans la forme ordinaire, une dépêche qui se compose uniquement d'une feuille d'avis négative.

Transmission des objets recommandés.

Dans aucun cas, les objets recommandés ne peuvent être confondus avec les correspondances ordinaires.

2.—Au paquet d'objets recommandés est attachée extérieurement, par un croisé de ficelle, l'enveloppe spéciale contenant la feuille d'avis; lorsque les objets recommandés sont renfermés dans un sac, ladite enveloppe est fixée au col de ce sac.

S'il y a plus d'un paquet ou sac d'objets recommandés, chacun des paquets ou sacs supplé-

Transmission of registered articles. Registered articles.

1. Registered articles, and, if necessary, the special lists mentioned in section 5 of Article XIX are made up in one or more separate packets or bags, which must be suitably wrapped up or closed and sealed with wax or lead so as to preserve the contents. The registered articles are arranged in each packet in the order of their entry in the list. When several separate lists are used, each of them is tied up with the registered articles to which it relates. Separate bags, etc.

Ante, p. 2034.

In no case may the registered articles be mixed with ordinary correspondence. Restriction.

Position of bags. Les paquets ou sacs d'objets recommandés sont placés au centre de la dépêche et de manière à attirer l'attention de l'agent qui procède à l'ouverture.

Packing requirements. 3.—Le mode d'emballage et de transmission des objets recommandés, prescrit ci-dessus, s'applique seulement aux relations ordinaires. Pour les relations importantes, il appartient aux Administrations intéressées de prescrire, d'un commun accord, des dispositions particulières, sous réserve, dans l'un comme dans l'autre cas, des mesures exceptionnelles à prendre par les chefs des bureaux d'échange, lorsqu'ils ont à assurer la transmission d'objets recommandés qui, par leur nature, leur forme ou leur volume, ne seraient pas susceptibles d'être insérés dans la dépêche.

The packets or bags of registered articles are placed in the center of the mail in such a manner as to attract the attention of the officer who opens it.

3. The method of packing and forwarding registered articles, laid down above, applies only to ordinary exchanges. For important exchanges it is for the offices concerned to make special regulations by mutual agreement, but without restriction in either case on the exceptional measures which may be taken by the heads of the offices of exchange, when they have to dispatch registered articles which, from their nature, form, or size, would not be capable of being inclosed in the principal mail.

XXI

Special-delivery matter Transmission des correspondances à faire remettre par exprès

Transmission of ordinary articles. 1.—Les correspondances ordinaires à faire remettre par exprès sont réunies en une liasse spéciale et insérées, par les bureaux d'échange, dans l'enveloppe contenant la feuille d'avis qui accompagne la dépêche.

Labels. Une fiche placée dans cette liasse indique, le cas échéant, la présence, dans la dépêche, des correspondances de l'espèce, qui, en raison de leur nombre, de leur forme ou de leurs dimensions, n'ont pu être jointes à la feuille d'avis. Ces correspondances sont réunies dans une ou plusieurs liasses distinctes, munies d'une étiquette portant en gros caractères la mention "Exprès" et insérées dans le sac contenant la feuille d'avis.

Registered correspondence. 2.—Les correspondances recommandées à faire remettre par exprès sont classées, à leur ordre, parmi les autres correspondances recommandées et la mention

Transmission of correspondence intended for express delivery.

1. Ordinary correspondence intended for express delivery is made up in a special bundle and placed, by the offices of exchange, in the envelope containing the letter bill which accompanies the mail.

Where necessary, a label placed in this bundle indicates the presence in the mail of express packets which, by reason of their number, form or size can not be placed with the letter bill. This correspondence is made up in one or more separate bundles, bearing a label with the word "Exprès" (Express) in large type and placed in the bag containing the letter bill.

2. Registered correspondence intended for express delivery is arranged in order among the other registered correspondence, and the entry "Exprès" (Ex-

"Exprès" est portée dans la colonne "Observations" des feuilles d'avis, en regard de l'inscription de chacune d'elles.

Confection des dépêches.

1.—En règle générale, les objets qui composent les dépêches doivent être classés et enliassés par nature de correspondances, en séparant les objets affranchis des objets non ou insuffisamment affranchis.

Les lettres portant des traces d'ouverture ou d'avarie doivent être munies d'une mention du fait et frappées du timbre à date du bureau qui a constaté ce fait.

Les mandats de poste expédiés à découvert sont réunis en un paquet distinct, après subdivision, s'il y a lieu, en autant de liasses qu'il y a de pays destinataires. Ce paquet est inséré par les bureaux d'échange dans l'enveloppe contenant la feuille d'avis qui accompagne la dépêche ou, en cas d'impossibilité, dans le sac renfermant cette feuille.

Les dépêches expédiées par voie de mer sont renfermées dans des sacs convenablement fermés, cachetés ou plombés et étiquetés. Il en est de même des dépêches expédiées par la voie de terre lorsque leur volume le comporte. Dans les relations entre pays qui se seraient mis d'accord à cet égard, lorsqu'il s'agit de dépêches négatives, elles peuvent être formées en paquet enveloppé de papier.

XXII

Making up the mails.

Making up mails.

1. As a general rule, the articles of which the mails consist must be classified and tied up in bundles according to the nature of the correspondence, the prepaid correspondence being separated from the unpaid and insufficiently paid.

Classification and separation.

Letters bearing traces of opening or damage must have the fact noted on them and be marked with the date stamp of the office which discovers it.

Damaged, etc., letters.

Money orders sent à découvert are made up in a separate packet after subdivision, if necessary, into as many bundles as there are countries of destination. This packet is placed by the office of exchange in the envelope containing the letter bill which accompanies the mail, or, if this is not practicable, in the bag inclosing that letter bill.

Money orders in open mail.

2. In exchanges by land every mail, after having been tied with string, is wrapped in enough strong paper to prevent damage to the contents, then tied again with string on the outside, and sealed with wax by means of the official seal, or sealed with lead. The mail bears a printed address showing, in small type, the name of the dispatching office, and in larger type the name of the office of destination: "de ------ pour ------" (From ----- for -----).

Exchanges by land.

Mails sent by sea are inclosed in bags properly closed, sealed with wax or with lead and labeled. The same rule applies in the case of mails sent by land when their size requires it. In relations between countries which have agreed to do so "Nil" mails may be made up in a packet wrapped in paper.

Mails sent by sea.

Label requirements.

3.—Pour les dépêches renfermées dans des sacs, les étiquettes doivent être en toile, cuir ou parchemin ou en papier collé sur une planchette. L'étiquette doit indiquer d'une façon lisible le bureau d'origine et celui de destination, et dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer, la date d'expédition et le numéro de l'envoi. Dans les relations entre bureaux limitrophes, il peut être fait usage d'étiquettes en papier fort.

3. The labels used for mails sent in bags must be of linen, leather or parchment, or of paper gummed to a wooden block. The label must clearly indicate the office of origin and that of destination, and in relations with oversea countries, the date of dispatch and the number of the mail. In the case of relations between contiguous countries, strong paper labels may be used.

Use of separate bags.

4.—Lorsque le nombre ou le volume des envois exige l'emploi de plus d'un sac, des sacs distincts doivent, autant que possible, être utilisés:

a) pour les lettres et cartes postales;

b) pour les autres objets.

Sans égard au nombre ou au volume des envois, des sacs distincts doivent également être employés, autant que possible, lorsque l'Administration de l'un des pays intermédiaires ou du pays de destination le demande.

Lorsqu'il est fait usage de sacs distincts, chacun d'eux doit porter l'indication de son contenu.

Le paquet ou sac des objets recommandés est placé dans un des sacs de lettres.

Le sac renfermant la feuille d'avis est désigné par la lettre F tracée d'une manière apparente sur l'étiquette.

4. When the number or bulk of the mails necessitates the use of more than one bag, separate bags must, as far as possible, be employed:

(a) For letters and post cards;

(b) For other articles.

Without regard to the number or volume of the mails, separate bags must also be used, as far as possible, when the Administration of one of the intermediate countries or of the country of destination so requests.

When separate bags are used, each of them must bear an indication of its contents.

The packet or bag of registered articles is placed in one of the bags of letters.

The bag containing the letter bill is distinguished by the letter F marked plainly on the label.

Weight limit.

5.—Le poids de chaque sac ne doit pas dépasser 30 kilogrammes.

5. No bag may exceed 30 kilograms in weight.

Return of empty bags.

6.—Les sacs doivent être renvoyés vides au pays d'origine par le prochain courrier, sauf autre arrangement entre les Offices correspondants.

Le renvoi des sacs vides doit être effectué entre les bureaux d'échange des pays correspondants, qui sont respectivement désignés à cet effet par les Administrations intéressées, après entente préalable.

6. The bags must be returned empty to the country of origin by the next mail, in the absence of other arrangements between the corresponding Offices.

Empty bags must be returned by such offices of exchange of the corresponding countries as are respectively appointed for the purpose by the Administrations concerned, after previous agreement.

Bundling.

Les sacs vides doivent être enroulés et attachés ensemble en paquets convenables; le cas échéant, les planchettes à étiquettes doivent être placées à l'intérieur des sacs. Les paquets doivent être revêtus d'une éti-

The empty bags must be rolled up and tied together in suitable bundles, the label blocks, if any, being placed inside the bags. The bundles must bear a label showing the name of the office of exchange whence the bags have quette indiquant le nom du bureau d'échange d'où les sacs ont été reçus, chaque fois qu'ils sont renvoyés par l'intermédiaire d'un autre bureau d'échange.

Si les sacs vides à renvoyer ne sont pas trop nombreux, ils peuvent être placés dans les sacs contenant la correspondance; dans le cas contraire, ils doivent être placés à part dans des sacs cachetés, étiquetés au nom des bureaux d'échange respectifs. Les étiquettes doivent porter la mention "Sacs vides."

XXIII

Vérification des dépêches.

1.—Le bureau d'échange qui reçoit une dépêche constate si les inscriptions sur la feuille d'avis et, s'il y a lieu, sur la liste des objets recommandées, sont exactes.

Les dépêches doivent être livrées en bon état. Cependant, la réception d'une dépêche ne peut pas être refusée à cause de son mauvais état. S'il s'agit d'une dépêche pour un bureau autre que celui qui en a pris livraison, elle doit être emballée de nouveau, tout en conservant, autant que possible, l'emballage original. Le remballage est précédé de la vérification du contenu, s'il est à présumer que celui-ci n'est pas resté intact.

2.—Lorsque le bureau d'échange reconnaît des erreurs ou des omissions, il opère immédiatement les rectifications nécessaires sur les feuilles ou listes, en ayant soin de biffer, d'un trait de plume, les indications erronées de manière à laisser reconnaître les inscriptions primitives.

3.—Ces rectifications s'effectuent par le concours de deux agents. A moins d'une erreur évidente, elles prévalent sur la déclaration originale.

4.—Un bulletin de vérification conforme au modèle G annexé au présent Règlement, est dressé par le bureau destinataire et envoyé sans délai, sous recommandation d'office, au bureau expéditeur.

been received whenever they are returned through another office of exchange.

If the bags to be returned are not too numerous, they may be placed in the bags containing correspondence. In the contrary case, they must be placed separately in sealed bags, labeled with the name of the respective offices of exchange. The labels must be marked "Sacs vides" (Empty bags).

With mail bags.

XXIII

Checking the mails.

Verification of mails.

1. The office of exchange which receives a mail ascertains whether the entries in the letter bill and in the registered letter list, if there is one, are correct.

By receiving office.

The mails must be delivered in good condition. Nevertheless, the receipt of a mail can not be refused on account of its bad condition. In case of a mail for an office other than that which has accepted it, it must be repacked, but the original packing should be preserved as far as possible. Before repacking, the contents are checked if there is reason to suppose that they are not intact.

Mails to be delivered in good condition, etc.

2. When the office of exchange detects errors or omissions, it immediately makes the necessary corrections on the letter bills or lists, taking care to erase by a stroke of the pen the incorrect entries in such a way as to leave the original entries legible.

Correction of errors, etc.

3. These corrections are made by two officers. Except in the case of an obvious error, they are accepted in preference to the original statement.

Acceptance of corrections.

4. A verification note, in conformity with the Form G annexed to the present Regulations, is prepared by the receiving office, and sent without delay, officially registered, to the dispatching office.

Bulletin of verification to dispatching office.

Post, p. 2092.

Repacked mail.

Dans le cas prévu au § 1 du présent article, une copie du bulletin de vérification est insérée dans la dépêche remballée.

In the case provided for in section 1 of the present article, a copy of the verification note is inserted in the repacked mail.

Return of bulletin, etc.

5.—Le bureau expéditeur, après examen, renvoie le bulletin, avec ses observations, s'il y a lieu.

5. The dispatching office, after examination, returns the verification note with any observations to which it may give rise.

Report of irregularities, etc.

6.—En cas de manque d'une dépêche, d'un ou de plusieurs objets recommandés, de la feuille d'avis ou de la liste spéciale, le fait est constaté immédiatement, dans la forme voulue, par deux agents du bureau d'échange destinataire et porté à la connaissance du bureau d'échange expéditeur, au moyen d'un bulletin de vérification recommandé d'office. Toutefois, lorsque l'absence d'une dépêche est le résultat d'un défaut de coïncidence des courriers, le bulletin de vérification n'est pas soumis à la formalité de la recommandation. Si le cas le comporte, le bureau d'échange expéditeur peut, en outre, être avisé par télégramme, aux frais de l'Office expéditeur du télégramme. En même temps, un duplicata du bulletin de vérification est envoyé, par le bureau destinataire, dans les mêmes conditions que le primata, à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur et, lorsqu'il s'agit du manque d'un ou de plusieurs objets recommandés, de la feuille d'avis ou de la liste spéciale des objets recommandés, ce duplicata doit être accompagné du sac ou de l'enveloppe et du cachet ou plomb du paquet des dits objets ou du sac, de la ficelle, de l'étiquette et du cachet ou plomb de la dépêche, si ce paquet lui-même n'a pas été trouvé.

6. In the case of a mail, of one or more registered articles, of the letter bill, or of the special list not being received, the fact is immediately verified in accordance with the rules by two officers of the exchange office of destination, and notified to the dispatching office by means of a verification note officially registered. Nevertheless, when the absence of a mail is the result of a failure of connections the verification note is not sent registered. If circumstances require the dispatching office of exchange may also be advised by telegram, at the expense of the office which sends the telegram. At the same time a duplicate of the verification note is sent by the office of destination in the same conditions as the original to the Administration to which the dispatching office is subordinate, and when it is a case of the nonreceipt of one or more registered articles, of the letter bill, or of the special list of registered articles, this duplicate must be accompanied by the bag or envelope, and by the wax or lead seal of the packet of the articles in question, or of the sack, and by the string, the label, and the wax or lead seal of the mail, if the packet itself has not been found.

Report of receipt of missing mail.

Dès la rentrée d'une dépêche dont l'absence avait été signalée au bureau d'origine ou à un bureau intermédiaire, il y a lieu d'adresser au même bureau un second bulletin de vérification annonçant la réception de cette dépêche.

As soon as a mail which had been reported to the office of origin or an intermediate office as missing comes to hand, a second verification note is to be addressed to such office announcing the receipt of the mail.

Lorsque le manque d'une dépêche est dûment expliqué sur le bordereau de remise, et si cette dépêche parvient au bureau destinataire par le plus prochain courrier, l'établissement d'un bulletin de vérification n'est pas nécessaire.

7.—En cas de perte d'une dépêche close, les Offices intermédiaires sont rendus responsables des objets recommandés que renfermait la dépêche, dans les limites de l'article 10 de la Convention, à condition que la non-réception de cette dépêche leur ait été signalée aussitôt que possible.

8.—Lorsque le bureau destinataire n'a pas fait parvenir au bureau expéditeur par le premier courrier après la vérification, un bulletin constatant des erreurs ou des irrégularités quelconques, l'absence de ce document vaut comme accusé de réception de la dépêche et de son contenu, jusqu'à preuve du contraire.

7. In the event of the loss of a closed mail, intermediate Offices become responsible for the registered articles contained in the mail, within the limits of article 10 of the Convention, provided that the nonreceipt of such mail has been notified to them as soon as possible.

Responsibility for loss of closed mail.

Ante, p. 1984.

8. Where the office of destination has not forwarded to the despatching office by the first dispatch after the checking of the mail, a note reporting errors or irregularities of any kind, the absence of that document is to be regarded as evidence of the due receipt of the mail and its contents, until proof of the contrary.

Failure to send report of errors, evidence of receipt of mail.

Dépêches échangées avec des bâtiments de guerre.

1.—L'établissement d'un échange, en dépêches closes, entre un Office postal de l'Union et des divisions navales ou bâtiments de guerre de même nationalité, ou entre une division navale ou bâtiment de guerre et une autre de même nationalité, doit être notifié, autant que possible à l'avance, aux Offices intermédiaires.

2.—La suscription de ces dépêches est rédigée comme suit:

Forwarding.

3.—Les dépêches à destination ou provenant de divisions navales ou de bâtiments de guerre sont acheminées, sauf indication d'une voie spéciale sur l'adresse, par les voies les plus rapides et dans les mêmes conditions que les dépêches échangées entre bureaux de poste.

3. Mails addressed to or sent from naval divisions or ships of war are forwarded, unless specially addressed as to route, by the most rapid routes, and in the same conditions as mails exchanged between post offices.

Uninclosed mails.

Quand les dépêches à destination d'une division navale ou d'un bâtiment de guerre sont expédiées en dehors, le capitaine de paquebot postal qui les transporte les tient à la disposition du commandant de la division ou du bâtiment destinataire pour le cas où celui-ci viendrait demander au paquebot en route la livraison de ces dépêches.

Reforwarding, etc.

4.—Si les bâtiments ne se trouvent pas au lieu de destination quand les dépêches à leur adresse y arrivent, ces dépêches sont conservées au bureau de poste, en attendant leur retrait par le destinataire ou leur réexpédition sur un autre point. La réexpédition peut être demandée, soit par l'Office postal d'origine, soit par le commandant de la division navale ou du bâtiment destinataire, soit enfin par un Consul de même nationalité.

4. If the ships are not at the place of destination when mails addressed to them arrive there, the mails are kept at the post office until taken away by the addressee or redirected to another place. Redirection may be demanded, either by the Post Office of origin, or by the commanding officer of the naval division or the ship addressed, or, lastly, by a Consul of the same nationality.

Mails in care of consuls.

5.—Celles des dépêches dont il s'agit qui portent la mention "Aux soins du Consul de ....." sont consignées au Consulat du pays d'origine. Elles peuvent être ultérieurement, à la demande du Consul, réintégrées dans le service postal et réexpédiées sur le lieu d'origine ou sur une autre destination.

5. Such of the mails in question as are addressed "Aux soins du Consul de....." (Care of the Consul at.....) are delivered at the Consulate of the country of origin. At the request of the Consul they may afterwards be received back into the postal service and redirected to the place or origin or to another address.

Cartes d'identité.

1.—Les Administrations des postes des pays contractants désignent, chacune pour ce qui la concerne, les bureaux de poste ou les services postaux qui doivent délivrer les cartes d'identité.

2.—Ces cartes sont établies sur une formule conforme au modèle F annexé au présent Règlement. Les formules de cartes d'identité sont fournies, à titre onéreux, par le Bureau international; elles sont rédigées dans la langue du pays qui délivre la carte, avec traduction sublinéaire en langue française, le cas échéant.

3.—Au moment de la demande, le requérant doit remettre sa photographie et justifier de son identité. Le fonctionnaire qui a reçu la demande en prend note sur un registre; puis il colle à la deuxième page de la carte la photographie fournie par l'intéressé, applique mi-partie sur cette photographie et mi-partie sur la carte le timbre-poste représentant la taxe, qu'il annule au moyen d'une empreinte bien nette du timbre à date. Il applique ensuite une empreinte de ce timbre ou de son sceau officiel au recto de la carte et porte sur celle-ci en caractères latins toutes les autres indications que la formule comporte (n° d'ordre du registre, date de l'expiration de la validité, prénom et nom, profession et domicile du titulaire ainsi que son signalement, avec traduction sublinéaire en langue française, le cas échéant). Puis il invite le titulaire à apposer sa signature à la place ad hoc, après quoi il signe lui-même la carte

3. The applicant must, at the time of application, hand in his photograph and establish his identity. The officer who receives the application makes a note of it on a register; then he affixes to the second page of the card the photograph supplied by the applicant, affixes the postage stamp representing the charge, half on this photograph and half on the card, and cancels it by means of a clear impression of the date stamp. He then makes an impression of this stamp or of his official seal on the front of the card and carries into it in Latin characters all the other particulars required by the form (serial number in the register, date of expiration of validity, Christian name and surname, profession and address of the holder, as well as his description, with an interlinear translation in French, if necessary). He then requests the holder to affix his signature to the place provided for the purpose, after which he himself signs the

Redirection.

On change of residence.
Ante, p. 1990.

1.—En exécution de l'article 16 de la Convention, et sauf les exceptions prévues au paragraphe 2 suivant, les correspondances de toute nature adressées, dans l'Union, à des destinataires ayant changé de résidence, sont traitées par l'Office distributeur comme si elles avaient été adressées directement du lieu d'origine au lieu de la nouvelle destination.

Domestic, etc., articles entering Union country.

2.—A l'égard, soit des envois du service interne de l'un des pays de l'Union qui entrent, par suite de réexpédition, dans le service d'un autre pays de l'Union, soit des envois échangés entre deux pays de l'Union qui ont adopté dans leurs relations réciproques une taxe inférieure à la taxe ordinaire de l'Union, mais entrant, par suite de réexpédition, dans le service d'un troisième pays de l'Union vis-à-vis duquel la taxe est la taxe ordinaire de l'Union, soit, enfin, des envois échangés pour leur premier parcours entre localités de deux services limitrophes pour lesquels il existe une taxe réduite, mais réexpédiés sur d'autres localités de ces pays de l'Union ou sur un autre pays de l'Union, on observe les règles suivantes:

Insufficiently paid for first transmission.

ARTICLE XXVI.

Redirection.

1. In execution of Article 16 of the Convention, and subject to the exceptions prescribed in section 2 below, correspondence of every kind within the Union, addressed to persons who have changed their residence, is treated by the delivering Office as if it had been addressed directly from the place of origin to the place of the new destination.

2. With regard to inland packets of one country of the Union, which enter, in consequence of redirection, into the service of another country of the Union, or to packets exchanged between two countries of the Union, which have adopted in their mutual relations a lower rate than the ordinary Union postage, but entering in consequence of redirection into the service of a third country of the Union to which the ordinary Union rate applies, or, lastly, to packets exchanged, so far as their first transmission is concerned, between the zones in two neighboring countries between which a reduced rate applies, but redirected to other places in these countries or to another country of the Union, the following rules are observed:

1. Packets unpaid or insufficiently paid for their first transmission are charged by the delivering office with the rate applicable to packets of the same nature addressed directly from the place of origin to that of the new destination.

2° Les envois régulièrement affranchis pour leur premier parcours et dont le complément de taxe afférent au parcours ultérieur n'a pas été acquitté avant leur réexpédition, sont frappés, suivant leur nature, par l'Office distributeur, d'une taxe égale à la différence entre le prix d'affranchissement déjà acquitté et celui qui aurait été perçu si les envois avaient été expédiés primitivement sur leur nouvelle destination.

2. Packets properly prepaid for their first transmission, but on which the complementary postage pertaining to the further transmission has not been paid before their redirection, are charged, according to their nature, by the delivering Office with a rate equal to the difference between the amount of postage already prepaid and that which would have been charged if the articles had been dispatched in the first instance to the new destination.

Unpaid complementary postage.

3° Les envois primitivement adressés à l'intérieur d'un pays de l'Union et dûment affranchis selon le régime intérieur, sont considérés comme des envois régulièrement affranchis pour leur premier parcours.

3. Packets originally addressed in the inland service of a country of the Union and properly prepaid at the inland rate, are considered as packets properly prepaid for their first transmission.

Original rate properly prepaid.

4° Les envois ayant circulé primitivement en franchise de port dans l'intérieur d'un pays sont frappés par l'Office distributeur de la taxe applicable aux envois affranchis de même nature adressés directement du point d'origine au lieu de la destination nouvelle.

4. Packets which have originally circulated free of postage in the inland service of a country are charged by the Office of delivery with the rate applicable to prepaid packets of the same nature addressed directly from the place of origin to that of the new destination.

Free matter.

3.—Si, dans les cas précités, les envois ont parcouru, avant de parvenir à l'Office distributeur, un autre pays pour lequel l'Office d'origine perçoit une taxe supérieure à celle qu'il applique avec le pays distributeur, les envois sont passibles de la taxe supérieure.

3. In the above-mentioned cases, if the packets have, before reaching the Office of delivery, passed through another country for which the Office of origin charges a rate higher than that which it applies in the service with the country of delivery, the packets are chargeable with the higher rate.

Passing through country with higher rate.

4.—Le montant des taxes à percevoir du destinataire doit être indiqué par l'Office réexpéditeur en francs et centimes, à côté des timbres-poste ou, s'il n'y en a pas, à côté du timbre d'origine.

4. The amount of the charges to be collected from the addressee must be indicated by the redirecting Office, in francs and centimes, at the side of the postage stamps, or, if there are none, at the side of the date stamp of the office of origin.

Collection from addressee.

La taxe complémentaire dont les envois-exprès peuvent être grevés en vertu des dispositions de l'article 15, § 3 de la Convention principale, doit, dans tous les cas, être indiquée, en francs et centimes, à l'endroit précité, par l'Office réexpéditeur.

Missent articles.

5.—Les objets de toute nature mal dirigés sont, sans aucun délai, réexpédiés par la voie la plus prompte sur leur destination.

Return if insufficiently addressed, etc.

6.—Les correspondances de toute nature, ordinaires ou recommandées, qui, portant une adresse incomplète ou erronée, sont renvoyées aux expéditeurs pour qu'ils la complètent ou la rectifient, ne sont pas, quand elles sont remises dans le service avec une suscription complétée ou rectifiée, considérées comme des correspondances réexpédiées, mais bien comme de nouveaux envois, et deviennent, par suite, passibles d'une nouvelle taxe.

Undelivered articles.

Correspondances tombées en rebut.

Return to country of origin.

1.—Les correspondances de toute nature tombées en rebut pour quelque cause que ce soit, doivent être renvoyées immédiatement au pays d'origine, soit isolément, soit en une liasse spéciale étiquetée "Rebuts". Le délai de conservation des correspondances gardées en instance à la disposition des destinataires ou adressées "poste restante" est réglé par les dispositions du pays de destination. Toutefois, ce délai ne pourra dépasser six mois dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer et deux mois dans les autres relations; le renvoi au pays d'origine doit avoir lieu dans un délai plus court, si l'expéditeur l'a demandé par une annotation sur l'enveloppe écrite dans une langue connue dans le pays de destination.

Registered matter.

2.—Toutefois, les correspondances recommandées tombées en rebut sont renvoyées au bureau d'échange du pays d'origine comme s'il s'agissait de correspondances recommandées à destination de ce pays.

Special agreements of other methods, etc.

3.—Par exception, deux Offices correspondants peuvent, d'un commun accord, adopter un autre mode de renvoi de rebuts. Ils peuvent aussi s'entendre pour se and centimes by the redirecting Office, in the place mentioned above.

5. Missent correspondence of all kinds is reforwarded without delay, by the quickest route, to destination.

6. Correspondence of all kinds, ordinary or registered, which, being wrongly or insufficiently addressed, is returned to the senders in order that they may correct or complete the address, is, when posted with the address completed or corrected, considered not as redirected correspondence, but as freshly posted correspondence; and it is consequently liable to fresh postage.

XXVII

Undelivered correspondence.

1. Correspondence of all kinds which is not delivered, from whatever cause, must be returned immediately to the country of origin, either singly, or in a special bundle labeled "Rebuts." The period of retention for correspondence held at the disposal of the addressees or addressed "poste restante" is governed by the rules of the country of destination. This period may not, however, exceed six months in relations with countries beyond sea and two months in relations with other countries; the return to the country of origin must take place within a shorter period if the sender has requested it by a note on the envelope in a language known in the country of destination.

2. Undelivered registered correspondence, however, is returned to the office of exchange of the country of origin, as if it were registered correspondence addressed to that country.

3. As an exception, two corresponding Offices may, by mutual consent, adopt a different method of returning undelivered correspondence. They may also come dispenser de se renvoyer réciproquement les "chain-letters" (lettres dites boules de neige) insuffisamment affranchies qui ont été refusées par le destinataire, lorsque l'Office de destination a constaté, après avoir consulté le destinataire, que les envois en cause sont en effet des "chain-letters."

to an understanding to dispense with the reciprocal return of insufficiently paid "chain letters" (known as snowball letters) which have been refused by the addressee, when the Office of destination has ascertained, after consultation with the addressee, that the letters in question are actually "chain letters."

Les imprimés dénués de valeur qui sont tombés en rebut, ne sont jamais renvoyés à l'origine, à moins que l'envoyeur, par une annotation à l'extérieur de l'envoi, n'en ait demandé le retour.

Undelivered printed papers of no value are not returned to origin, unless the sender, by means of a note on the outside of the packets, has asked for their return.

Printed papers of no value.

4.—Avant de renvoyer à l'Office d'origine les correspondances non distribuées pour un motif quelconque, le bureau destinataire doit indiquer d'une manière claire et concise, en langue française, au recto de ces objets, la cause de la non-remise sous la forme suivante: inconnu, refusé, en voyage, parti, non réclamé, décédé, ou un mot similaire. Cette indication est fournie par l'application d'un timbre ou l'apposition d'une étiquette. Chaque Office a la faculté d'ajouter la traduction, dans sa propre langue, de la cause de non-remise et les autres indications qui lui conviennent.

4. Before returning to the Office of origin correspondence which for any reason has not been delivered, the office of destination must indicate in a clear and concise manner in the French language, on the front of each article, the cause of the nondelivery in the following form: "inconnu," "refusé," "en voyage," "parti," "non réclamé," "décédé" ("not known," "refused," "travelling," "gone away," "not claimed," "deceased"), or a similar expression. This indication is made by a stamp or by affixing a label. Each Office has the option of adding a translation, in its own language, of the cause of nondelivery, and any other useful particulars.

Cause of nondelivery to be indicated on each article.

Le bureau destinataire doit biffer ensuite le lieu de la première destination et apposer la mention: "retour" à côté de l'empreinte du timbre à date du bureau expéditeur.

The office of destination must then strike out the name of the place of first destination and add the word "retour" (returned) at the side of the date stamp impression of the office of dispatch.

5.—Si des correspondances mises à la poste dans un pays de l'Union et adressées à l'intérieur de ce même pays ont pour expéditeurs des personnes habitant un autre pays et doivent, par suite de non-distribution et de mise en rebut, être renvoyées à l'étranger pour être rendues à leurs auteurs, elles deviennent des envois de l'échange international. En pareil cas, l'Office réexpéditeur et l'Office distributeur font application auxdites correspondances des dispositions des §§ 2, 3 et 4 de l'article XXVI précédent.

5. If correspondence posted in one country of the Union to an address within that country is sent by persons resident in another country, and has, in consequence of nondelivery, to be sent abroad for return to the sender, it enters into the international system. In such a case, the redirecting Office and the delivering Office apply to such correspondence the provisions of sections 2, 3, and 4 of the Article XXVI above.

Return of correspondence to foreign sender.

Ante, p. 2045.

Unclaimed matter from consuls.

6.—Les correspondances pour les marins et autres personnes, adressées aux soins d'un Consul et rendues par celui-ci au bureau de poste local comme non réclamées, doivent être traitées de la manière prescrite par le § 1 ou le § 2, suivant le cas, pour les rebuts en général. Le montant des taxes perçues à la charge du Consul sur ces correspondances doit en même temps lui être rendu par le bureau de poste local.

6. Correspondence for seamen and others addressed to the care of a Consul, and returned by him to the local post office as unclaimed, must be treated in the manner prescribed by section 1 or section 2, as the case may be, for returned correspondence in general. The amount of the charges paid by the Consul on this correspondence must at the same time be repaid to him by the local post office.

1° Il est remis au réclamant une formule conforme au modèle H ci-annexé, avec prière d'en remplir, aussi exactement que possible, la partie qui le concerne.

2° Le bureau où la réclamation s'est produite transmet la formule directement au bureau correspondant. La transmission s'effectue d'office et sans aucun écrit.

3° Le bureau correspondant fait présenter la formule au destinataire ou à l'expéditeur, selon le cas, avec prière de fournir des renseignements à ce sujet.

4° Munie de ces renseignements, la formule est renvoyée d'office au bureau qui l'a dressée.

5° Dans le cas où la réclamation est reconnue fondée, elle est transmise à l'Administration centrale pour servir de base aux investigations ultérieures.

6° A moins d'entente contraire, la formule est rédigée en français ou porte une traduction française.

Applications for missing ordinary correspondence.

1. Every application respecting ordinary correspondence which has failed to reach its destination is subject to the following procedure:

1. A form reproducing Form H annexed is handed to the applicant, who is requested to fill up as exactly as possible the portion which concerns him.

2. The office at which the application originates forwards the form directly to the corresponding office. It is forwarded officially without any written communication.

3. The corresponding office hands the form to the addressee or sender, as the case may be, with the request that information on the subject may be furnished.

4. With these particulars added, the form is sent back officially to the office which prepared it.

5. When the application proves to be well founded, it is transmitted to the central Administration in order to serve as a basis for further inquiry.

6. In the absence of any understanding to the contrary, the form is worded in French or bears a French translation.

2.—Toute Administration peut exiger, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que les réclamations qui concernent son service soient transmises à son Administration centrale ou à un bureau spécialement désigné par elle.

Réclamation d'objets recommandés.

1.—Pour les réclamations d'objets recommandés, il est fait usage d'une formule conforme ou analogue au modèle I annexé au présent Règlement. L'Office du pays d'origine transmet cette formule directement à l'Office de destination.

2.—Toutefois, les Offices d'origine et de destination peuvent, d'un commun accord, faire transmettre la réclamation de bureau à bureau en suivant la même voie d'acheminement que l'envoi qui fait l'objet de la réclamation.

3.—Dans le cas prévu au § 1 ci-dessus, lorsque l'Office destinataire est en état de fournir les renseignements sur le sort définitif de l'envoi réclamé, il renvoie cette formule, revêtue des renseignements que le cas comporte, à l'Office d'origine.

Lorsque le sort d'un envoi qui a passé à découvert par plusieurs services ne peut être immédiatement constaté dans le service du pays de destination, l'Office destinataire renvoie la formule à l'Office d'origine. Celui-ci complète la formule en y indiquant les données de la transmission au premier Office intermédiaire. Il l'adresse ensuite à ce dernier Office, qui y consigne ses observations et l'envoie, éventuellement à l'Office suivant. La réclamation passe ainsi d'Office à Office jusqu'à ce que le sort de l'objet réclamé soit établi. L'Office qui a effectué la remise au destinataire, ou qui, le cas échéant, ne peut établir, ni la remise, ni la transmission régulière à une autre Administration,

When the fate of an article which has passed à découvert through several services can not be immediately ascertained in the service of the country of destination, the Office of destination returns the form to the Office of origin. This Office completes the form by entering thereon particulars of the dispatch of the article to the first intermediate Office. It then transmits the form to that Office, which enters its observations and forwards it to the following Office, if any. Chaque Office établit sur la formule les données de la transmission à l'Office suivant et l'envoie ensuite à celui-ci. Elles sont transmises sans lettre d'envoi sous enveloppe fermée. Chaque Administration est libre de demander, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que les réclamations qui concernent son service soient transmises, soit à son administration centrale, soit à un bureau spécialement désigné, soit enfin directement au bureau de destination ou, si elle est seulement intéressée à titre d'intermédiaire, au bureau d'échange auquel l'envoi a été expédié.

Return to office of origin.

Les formules I et les pièces y annexées doivent, dans tous les cas, faire retour à l'Office d'origine de l'objet réclamé, dans un délai qui ne peut excéder six mois à partir de la date de la réclamation. Ce délai est porté à neuf mois dans les relations avec les les pays d'outre-mer.

Losses, etc., excepted.

proof either of delivery or of regular dispatch to another Administration, records the fact on the form and returns it to the Office of origin.

4. In the case provided for in section 2 above, the inquiries are pursued from the Office of origin to the Office of destination. Each Office enters on the form the particulars of dispatch to the next Office, and sends it forward to that Office. The Office which has effected delivery to the addressee, or which, should it so happen, is unable to furnish proof either of the delivery or of regular transmission to another Administration, likewise records the fact on the form and returns it to the Office of origin.

5. The Forms I are drawn up in French, or bear an interlinear translation in that language. They must give the full address of the addressee, and be accompanied as far as possible, by a facsimile of the envelope or of the address of the article. They are forwarded without letter of transmittal in a closed envelope. Each Administration is free to require, by notification addressed to the International Bureau, that applications concerning its service shall be forwarded either to its central Administration, or to an office specially designated or, lastly, directly to the office of destination, or, if the Administration in question is only concerned as an intermediary, to the office of exchange to which the article was sent.

The Forms I and the documents annexed thereto must, in every case, be returned to the Office of origin of the article inquired for within a period which may not exceed six months from the date of the application. This period is extended to nine months in relations with oversea countries.

6. The foregoing provisions do not apply to cases of violation of mails, loss of mails, etc., which require a more detailed correspondence between Administrations.

Retrait de correspondances et modification de l'adresse ou des conditions d'envoi.

1.—Pour les demandes de renvoi ou de réexpédition de correspondances, ainsi que pour les demandes de rectification d'adresses, l'expéditeur doit faire usage d'une formule conforme au modèle J annexé au présent Règlement. En remettant cette réclamation au bureau de poste, l'expéditeur doit y justifier de son identité et produire, s'il y a lieu, le bulletin du dépôt. Après la justification, dont l'Administration du pays d'origine assume la responsabilité, il est procédé de la manière suivante:

1° Si la demande est destinée à être transmise par voie postale, la formule, accompagnée d'un fac similé parfait de l'enveloppe ou suscription de l'envoi, est expédiée directement, sous pli recommandé, au bureau de poste destinataire.

2° Si la demande doit être faite par voie télégraphique, la formule est déposée au service télégraphique chargé d'en transmettre les termes au bureau de poste destinataire.

S'il s'agit d'une rectification d'adresse, la demande télégraphique doit être confirmée, par le premier courrier, par une demande postale accompagnée du fac-similé précité.

2.—A la réception de la formule J ou du télégramme en tenant lieu, le bureau de poste destinataire recherche la correspondance signalée et donne à la demande la suite nécessaire.

Toutefois, s'il s'agit d'un changement d'adresse demandé par voie télégraphique, le bureau destinataire se borne à retenir la lettre et attend, pour faire droit à la demande, l'arrivée du fac similé nécessaire.

Si la recherche est infructueuse, si l'objet a déjà été remis au destinataire, ou si la demande par

Withdrawal of correspondence and alteration of address or of conditions of dispatch.

Withdrawal of articles, etc.

1. For requests to have correspondence returned or redirected as well as for requests to have addresses corrected, the sender must use a form in accordance with Form J annexed to the present Regulations. In handing this application to the post office the sender must prove his identity and produce the certificate of posting, if any. After proof of identity, for which the Administration of the country of origin assumes responsibility, the procedure is as follows:

Form of application.

Post, p. 2097.

Procedure.

1. If the request is meant to be sent by post, the form together with a perfect facsimile of the envelope or address of the packet is dispatched in a registered cover directly to the office of destination.

Request by mail.

2. If the request is to be made by telegraph, the form is handed over to the telegraph service, which transmits it to the office of destination.

By telegraph.

In cases of correction of address, the telegraphic request must be confirmed by first post by a postal request accompanied by the facsimile mentioned above.

2. On receipt of the Form J or of the telegram taking its place, the office of destination searches for the correspondence in question and takes such steps as may be necessary.

Action of office of destination.

If, however, the case is one of an alteration of address requested by telegraph, the office of destination simply retains the letter and awaits the arrival of the necessary fac simile before complying with the request.

If the search is fruitless, or if the packet has already been delivered to the addressee, or if the voie télégraphique n'est pas assez explicite pour permettre de reconnaître sûrement l'objet de correspondance indiqué, le fait est signalé immédiatement au bureau d'origine, qui en prévient le réclamant.

Language of form.

3.—A moins d'entente contraire, la formule J est rédigée en français ou porte une traduction sublinéaire en cette langue, et, dans le cas d'emploi de la voie télégraphique, le télégramme est formulé en langue française.

Simple corrections.

4.—Une simple correction d'adresse (sans modification du nom ou de la qualité du destinataire) peut aussi être demandée directement par l'expéditeur au bureau destinataire, c'est-à-dire, sans l'accomplissement des formalités prescrites pour le changement d'adresse proprement dit.

Specially designated offices for applications.

5.—Toute Administration peut exiger, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que l'échange des réclamations, en ce qui la concerne, soit effectué par l'entremise de son Administration centrale ou d'un bureau spécialement désigné.

Delivery withheld.

Dans le cas où l'échange des réclamations s'effectue par l'entremise des Administrations centrales, il doit être tenu compte des demandes expédiées directement par les bureaux d'origine aux bureaux de destination, dans ce sens que les correspondances y relatives sont exclues de la distribution jusqu'à l'arrivée de la réclamation de l'Administration centrale.

Expenses.

Les Administrations qui usent de la faculté prévue par le premier alinéa du présent paragraphe prennent à leur charge les frais que peut entraîner la transmission, dans leur service intérieur, par voie postale ou télégraphique, des communications à échanger avec le bureau destinataire.

Use of telegraph.

Le recours à la voie télégraphique est obligatoire lorsque l'expéditeur a lui-même fait usage de cette voie et que le bureau destinataire ne peut pas être prévenu en temps utile par la voie postale.

request by telegraph is not sufficiently explicit to admit of identification of the article in question with certainty, the fact is at once communicated to the office of origin, which informs the applicant accordingly.

3. In the absence of any understanding to the contrary, Form J is drawn up in French, or bears an interlinear translation in that language, and if the telegraph service is used the telegram is written in French.

4. A request for simple correction of address (without modification of the name or description of the addressee) may also be addressed directly to the delivering office by the sender, that is to say, without fulfilling the formalities required for an alteration of address properly so called.

5. Any Administration may require, by notification addressed to the International Bureau, that applications, so far as it is concerned, shall be exchanged through the medium of its central Administration or of an office specially appointed.

In cases where applications are exchanged through the medium of the central Administrations, requests sent directly by offices of origin to the offices of destination must be complied with to the extent that the correspondence concerned is withheld from delivery until the arrival of the application from the central Administration.

Administrations which avail themselves of the option accorded by the first paragraph of the present clause bear the charges involved by the transmission, in their inland service, by post or by telegraph, of the communications to be exchanged with the delivering office.

The use of the telegraph service is obligatory when the sender has himself used it, and the office of destination can not be advised in time by post.

Emploi de timbres-poste présumés frauduleux ou d'empreintes contrefaites de machines à affranchir.

Sous réserve des dipositions que comporte la législation de chaque pays, même dans les cas où cette réserve n'est pas expressément stipulée dans les dispositions du présent article, le procédé ci-après est suivi pour la constatation de l'emploi, pour l'affranchissement, de timbres-poste frauduleux ou d'empreintes contrefaites de machines à affranchir:

a) Lorsque la présence, sur un envoi quelconque, d'un timbre-poste frauduleux (contrefait ou ayant déjà servi) ou d'empreintes contrefaites de machines à affranchir est constatée au départ, par un Office dont la législation particulière n'exige pas la saisie immédiate de l'envoi, la figurine n'est altérée d'aucune façon, et l'envoi, inséré dans une enveloppe à l'adresse du bureau destinataire, est acheminé sous recommandation d'office.

b) Cette formalité est notifiée, sans délai, aux Administrations des pays d'origine et de destination, au moyen d'un avis conforme au modèle K annexé au présent Règlement. Un exemplaire de cet avis est, en outre, transmis au bureau de destination dans l'enveloppe qui renferme l'objet revêtu du timbre-poste présumé frauduleux.

c) Le destinataire est convoqué pour constater la contravention.

La remise de l'envoi n'a lieu que dans le cas où le destinataire ou son fondé de pouvoirs paye le port dû et consent à faire connaître le nom et l'adresse de l'expéditeur, et à mettre à la disposition de la poste, après

Use of postage stamps presumed to be fraudulent, or of counterfeit impressions of stamping machines.

Fraudulent stamps or impressions.

1. Subject to the rules laid down by the laws of each country, even in cases where the provisions of the present Article do not expressly stipulate for this reservation, the undermentioned procedure is followed for reporting the use of fraudulent postage stamps or of counterfeit impressions of stamping machines for the prepayment of postage:

Procedure in reporting use of.

a) When the presence of a fraudulent postage stamp (counterfeit or already used) or of a counterfeit impression of a stamping machine, on any article whatever, is detected at the time of dispatch by the Post Office of a country whose law does not require the immediate seizure of the article, the stamp is not altered in any way, and the article, inclosed in an envelope addressed to the delivering office, is forwarded officially registered.

Discovered at dispatching office.

b) This proceeding is notified without delay to the Administrations of the countries of origin and destination, by means of an advice identical with Form K annexed to the present Regulations. A copy of that advice is, moreover, transmitted to the delivering office in the envelope which incloses the article bearing the supposed fraudulent postage stamp.

Report of result.

d) Le résultat de la convocation est constaté par un procès - verbal conforme au modèle L annexé au présent Règlement et où il est fait mention des incidents survenus tels que non-comparution, refus de recevior l'envoi, de l'ouvrir ou d'en faire connaître l'expéditeur, etc. Ce document est signé par l'agent des postes et par le destinataire de l'envoi ou son fondé de pouvoirs; si ce dernier refuse de signer, le refus est constaté aux lieu et place de la signature.

Transmission to Postal Administration for action.

Le procès-verbal est transmis, avec pièces à l'appui, sous recommendation d'office, à l'Administration des postes du pays d'origine, qui, à l'aide de ces documents, fait poursuivre, s'il y a lieu, la répression de l'infraction d'après sa législation intérieure.

Transit statistics.

Statistiques des frais de transit.

Settlement of transit charges.

1.—Les statistiques à effectuer en exécution des articles 4 et 19 de la Convention pour le décompte des frais de transit dans l'Union et en dehors des limites de l'Union, sont établies une fois tous les trois ans d'après les dispositions des articles suivants, pendant les vingt-huit premiers jours du mois de mai ou pendant les 28 jours qui suivent le 14 octobre alternativement.

Ante, pp. 1974, 1993.

La statistique de mai 1921 s'appliquera exceptionnellement aux années 1920 à 1923 inclusivement; la statistique d'octobre-novembre 1924 s'appliquera aux années 1924 à 1926 inclusivement et ainsi de suite.

acquainted himself with the contents, the entire article, if it is inseparable from the offending part, or else the portion of the article (envelope, wrapper, portion of letter, etc.), which contains the address and the impression or stamp stated to be fraudulent.

(d) The result of the representations to the addressee is set forth in a formal report in the form prescribed in Form L annexed to the present Regulations, in which report the details of the case are recorded, such as failure to appear, refusal to receive the article or to open it, or to make known the sender, etc. This document is signed by the postal official and by the addressee of the article or his representative; if the latter refuses to sign, the refusal is recorded in place of the signature.

The formal report is transmitted, with the relative vouchers, officially registered to the Postal Administration of the country of origin, which, with the aid of those documents, takes proceedings, if necessary, to punish the offense according to its internal laws.

XXXII

Transit statistics.

1. The statistics to be taken in execution of articles 4 and 19 of the Convention for the settlement of transit charges within and outside the limits of the Union, are prepared once in every three years in accordance with the rules given in the following articles, during the first 28 days of the month of May or during the 28 days which follow the 14th of October, alternately.

The statistics of May, 1921, will apply exceptionally to the years 1920 to 1923 inclusive; the statistics of October–November, 1924, will apply to the years 1924 to 1926 inclusive, and so on.

3.—Lorsqu'il se produit une modification importante dans le mouvement des correspondances et pour autant que cette modification affecte une période ou des périodes s'élevant à un total d'au moins douze mois, les Offices intéressés s'entendent pour reviser les comptes des frais de transit en cause. Dans ce cas, les sommes à payer par les Offices expéditeurs sont, soit augmentées, soit diminuées, soit partagées d'après les services intermédiaires réellement employés, mais les poids totaux qui servent de base aux nouveaux comptes doivent ordinairement être les mêmes que ceux des dépêches expédiées pendant la période de statistique mentionnée au § 1 du présent article. Au besoin, une statistique spéciale peut être employée pour régler le partage de ces poids entre les divers services empruntés. Aucune modification dans le mouvement des correspondances n'est considérée comme importante lorsqu'elle ne comporte pas une modification des frais de transit pour le transport en cause de plus de 10,000 francs par an.

Exceptionnellement, l'établissement d'une statistique spéciale peut être exigé aussi pour la constatation de nouveaux poids totaux qui doivent servir de base pour les comptes nouveaux lorsqu'il y a une augmentation des poids totaux du transport en cause de 100 pour cent ou une diminution de 50 pour cent ou moins et que des comptes nouveaux subiraient en conséquence une modification de plus de 10.000 francs par an.

2. In the event of the adhesion to the Union of a country with important relations, countries of the Union who might, by reason of that circumstance, find their position modified as regards the payment of transit charges, have the option of demanding special statistics relating exclusively to the country which has newly entered.

Special statistics of new adhesions.

3. When an important modification takes place in the flow of correspondence, and provided that such modification affects a period or periods amounting to a total of 12 months at least, the Offices concerned arrange with one another for a revision of the transit accounts in question. In that case the sums to be paid by the dispatching Offices are increased, reduced or shared according to the use actually made of the intermediate services; but the total weights which are the basis for the new accounts must ordinarily be the same as those of the mails dispatched during the statistical period mentioned in section 1 of the present article. If necessary, special statistics may be taken to determine the distribution of these weights among the various services used. No modification in the flow of correspondence is considered important unless it involves an alteration in transit payments for the services in question amounting to more than 10,000 francs per annum.

Revision of transit accounts.

Exceptionally, special statistics may also be demanded for the determination of fresh total weights to serve as basis for the new accounts, when there is an increase of total weight in the services in question of 100 per cent or a reduction of at least 50 per cent, and when fresh accounts should show, in consequence, a modification of more than 10,000 francs a year.

Special statistics as basis for new accounts.

Closed mails.

Dépêches closes.

Stipulations governing exchange of.

Post, p. 2101.

Making up bags, etc.

Pendant chaque période de statistique, des sacs ou des paquets distincts doivent être employés pour les "lettres et les cartes postales," et pour les "autres objets". Ces sacs ou paquets doivent respectivement être munis d'une étiquette "L. C." et "A. O." Lorsque le volume des dépêches le permet les sacs ou paquets distincts peuvent être réunis dans un seul sac collecteur qui doit être étiqueté "S. C."

Exception as to registered and special delivery articles.
Ante, pp. 2036, 2037.

Par dérogation aux dispositions des articles XXI et XXII du présent Règlement, chaque Administration a la faculté, pendant la période de statistique, de comprendre les objets recommandés et les envois exprès autres que les lettres et les cartes postales dans un des sacs ou paquets destinés aux autres objets, en faisant mention de ce fait sur la feuille d'avis; mais si, conformément aux dits articles XXI et XXII, ces objets sont compris dans un sac ou paquet à lettres, ils sont traités, en ce qui concerne la statistique de poids, comme faisant partie de l'envoi de lettres.

If route or service unknown or uncertain.

2.—Lorsque la route à suivre et les services de transport à utiliser pour les dépêches expédiées pendant la période de statistique sont inconnus ou incertains, l'Office d'origine doit, à la demande de l'Administration destinataire, préparer pour chaque dépêche un état conforme au modèle T annexé au présent Règlement. Cet état doit être transmis successivement, sans retard, aux différents services participant au

Post, p. 2105.

XXXIII

Closed mails.

Closed mails.

1. Correspondence exchanged in closed mails between two Offices of the Union, or between an Office of the Union and one not a party to it, across the territory or by means of the services of one or more other Offices, forms the subject of a return in the form of statement M attached to the present Regulations, which is compiled in accordance with the following rules:

During each statistical period separate bags or packets must be made up of "letters and post cards" and "other articles." These bags or packets must be provided with a label "L. C." and "A. O." respectively. When the volume of the mails allows, the separate bags or packets may be inclosed in a single combined bag which must be labeled "S. C."

By way of exceptions to the stipulations of Articles XXI and XXII of the present Regulations, each Administration has the option, during the statistical period, of inclosing registered or express articles other than letters and post cards in one of the bags or packets intended for other articles, mentioning the fact on the letter bill; but if, in conformity with the said Articles XXI and XXII, these articles are inclosed in a bag or packet of letters, they are treated, so far as the statistics of weight are concerned, as forming part of the letter dispatch.

2. When the route to be followed and the transport service to be used for the mails dispatched during the statistical period are unknown or uncertain, the Office of origin must, at the request of the Administration of destination, prepare for each mail a return in the form of statement T annexed to the present Regulations. This statement must be transmitted in turn, without delay, to the various services taking transport des dépêches; ces services inscrivent, l'un après l'autre, les renseignements concernant le transit sur cet état qui est renvoyé ensuite à l'Office d'origine joint au relevé modèle M.

3.—En ce qui concerne les dépêches d'un pays de l'Union pour un autre pays de l'Union, le bureau d'échange expéditeur inscrit, à la feuille d'avis pour le bureau d'échange destinataire de la dépêche, le poids brut des lettres et des cartes postales et celui des autres objets, sans distinction de l'origine ni de la destination des correspondances. On ne tient pas compte des fractions de poids jusqu'à 500 grammes inclusivement, tandis que les fractions de poids supérieures à 500 grammes sont arrondies au total d'un kilogramme. Le poids brut comprend le poids de l'emballage, mais non pas celui des sacs vides emballés dans des sacs distincts, des sacs ne contenant que des correspondances exemptes de tous frais de transit (article 4, § 9, de la Convention), des dépêches qui se composent uniquement d'une feuille d'avis négative (article XIX, § 9, du Règlement), ni celui des sacs collecteurs mentionnés dans le § 1 du présent article. Dans les cas où le poids brut des lettres et des cartes postales ainsi que celui des autres objets ne dépassent ni l'un ni l'autre 500 grammes, on ajoute, en tête de la feuille d'avis, la mention "Poids brut ne dépasse pas 500 grammes". Ces indications sont vérifiées par le bureau d'échange destinataire. Si ce bureau constate que le poids réel des lettres et des cartes postales ou des autres objets dépasse de plus de 50 grammes le poids maximum, ou reste de plus de 50 grammes au-dessous du poids minimum (qui auraient pu donner lieu au poids arrondi inscrit dans la feuille d'avis), il rectifie ces indications et signale l'erreur immédiatement au bureau d'échange expéditeur au moyen d'un bulletin de vérification. Si les différences de poids constatées sont comprises dans les limites susmentionnées, les inscriptions de l'office de dépêche ne sont pas alpart in the conveyance of the mails; these services enter, in turn, the particulars concerning the transit on this statement which is then returned to the Office of origin annexed to the statement M. Ante, p. 2101.

Gross weight.

3. As regards mails from one Union country for another Union country, the dispatching office of exchange enters, on the letter bill for the exchange office of destination the gross weight of the letters and post cards and that of the other articles, without distinction of the origin or destination of the correspondence. Fractions of weight up to 500 grams inclusive are ignored, while fractions of weight above 500 grams are rounded up to a kilogram. The gross weight includes the weight of the packing, but not that of empty bags inclosed in separate bags, of sacks containing only correspondence exempt from all transit charges (art. 4, sec. 9, of the Convention) of mails consisting solely of a blank letter bill (art. XIX, sec. 9, of the Regulations), nor that of the combined bags mentioned in sec. 1 of the present article. When the gross weight of the letters and post cards or of the other articles does not exceed 500 grams, the note "Poids brut ne dépasse pas 500 grammes" (Gross weight does not exceed 500 grams) is entered at the head of the letter bill. These indications are checked by the office of exchange of destination. If that office finds that the actual weight of the letters and post cards or of the other articles exceeds by more than 50 grams the maximum weight, or is more than 50 grams below the minimum weight, which would have justified the round figures of weight entered on the letter bill, it corrects these entries and notifies the error immediately to the dispatching office of exchange by means of a verification note. If the differences in weight ascertained remain within the abovementioned limits, the entries of the office of dispatch are not altées restent dans les limites précitées, les indications du bureau expéditeur ne sont pas modifiées et ne donnent pas lieu à un bulletin de vérification.

Statements from creditor to debtor offices.

4.—Aussitôt que possible après la clôture des opérations de statistique, les bureaux destinataires dressent les relevés (modèle M) en autant d'expéditions qu'il y a d'Offices intéressés, y compris celui du lieu de départ. Ces relevés sont transmis par les bureaux d'échange qui les ont établis aux bureaux d'échange de l'Office débiteur pour être revêtus de leur acceptation. Ceux-ci, après avoir accepté ces relevés, les transmettent à l'Administration centrale dont ils relèvent, chargée de les répartir entre les Offices intéressés.

Action if not received by debtor office.

Si ces relevés ne sont pas parvenus aux bureaux d'échange de l'Office débiteur dans le délai de quatre mois (six mois dans les échanges avec les pays d'outremer), à dater du jour de l'expédition de la dernière dépêche à comprendre dans la statistique, les indications des bureaux expéditeurs y sont substituées. Ces bureaux dressent les relevés (modèle M), en nombre suffisant, en ajoutant la mention "Les relevés M du bureau destinataire ne sont pas parvenus dans le délai réglementaire", et les transmettent à l'Administration centrale dont ils relèvent, chargée de les répartir entre les Offices intéressés.

Statement of closed mails to outside country through Union offices.

5.—En ce qui concerne les dépêches closes échangées entre un pays de l'Union et un pays étranger à l'Union, par l'intermédiaire d'un ou de plusieurs Offices de l'Union, les bureaux d'échange du pays de l'Union dressent, pour les dépêches expédiées ou reçues, un relevé (modèle M) qu'ils transmettent à l'Office de sortie ou d'entrée, lequel établit, à la fin de la période de statistique, un relevé général en autant d'expéditions qu'il y a d'Offices intéressés, y compris lui-même et l'Office de l'Union débiteur. Une expédition tered and a verification note is not required.

4. As soon as possible after the conclusion of the statistical operations, the offices of destination make out the statements M, with as many copies as there are Offices concerned, including the Office of origin. These statements are forwarded by the offices of exchange which have prepared them to the offices of exchange of the debtor Office for acceptance by signature. These offices, after having accepted the statements, forward them to their central Administration for distribution among the Offices concerned.

If these statements have not reached the offices of exchange of the debtor Office within the period of four months (six months in exchanges with countries beyond sea), from the date of dispatch of the last mail to be included in the statistics, the statements of the dispatching offices are substituted for them. These offices prepare the statements M in sufficient number, adding to them the note, "Les relevés M du bureau destinataire ne sont pas parvenus dans le délai réglementaire," (The statements M of the office of destination have not been received within the prescribed period), and forward them to their central Administration for distribution among the Offices concerned.

5. As regards closed mails exchanged between a Union country and a country outside the Union, through the medium of one or several Union Offices, the offices of exchange of the Union country prepare, in respect of the mails sent or received, a statement M which they forward to the office of exit or entry, and that Office prepares, at the end of the statistical period, a general statement in as many copies as there are Offices concerned, including itself and the debtor Union Office.

A copy of this statement is de ce relevé est transmise à l'Office débiteur, ainsi qu'à chacun des Offices qui ont pris part au transport des dépêches.

6.—Aussitôt que possible après chaque période de statistique, les Administrations qui ont expédié des dépêches en transit envoient la liste de ces dépêches aux différentes Administrations dont elles ont emprunté l'intermédiaire.

Si cette liste indique des dépêches en transit, qui d'après les dispositions du § 3 précédent ne donnent pas lieu à l'établissement d'un relevé (modèle M), on y ajoute une mention explicative telle que "Sacs vides", "Dépêches se composant uniquement d'une feuille d'avis négative", "Rebuts" ou "Poids ne dépasse pas 500 grammes".

Les dépêches closes provenant des pays au delà et qui sont réexpédiées insérées dans les dépêches en transit et inscrites dans le tableau II de la feuille d'avis, sont indiquées dans une partie spéciale de la liste.

Pour les dépêches dont l'entrepôt dans un port donne lieu, aux termes du § 4 de l'article 4 de la Convention, à une rémunération, au profit de l'Office entreposeur, cet Office établit, par pays d'origine, un relevé journalier conforme au modèle Pbis annexé au présent Règlement et où figurent les indications relatives aux dépêches reçues du pays considéré, par l'entrepôt, pendant la période des 28 jours de la statistique des frais de transit, sans égard aux dates d'expédition et de ré-expédition des dites dépêches

Les indications portées sur les relevés journaliers sont récapitulées pour chaque pays d'origine, sur un état conforme au modèle Pter annexé au présent Règlement et qui est envoyé à l'Administration centrale du dit pays, accompagné des relevés modèle Pbis y afférents.

Explanatory note in statement not required.

If this list shows mails in transit, which according to the provisions of section 3 above do not require the preparation of a statement. M, an explanatory note is added to it, e. g., "Sacs vides" (Empty bags), "Dépêches se composant uniquement d'une feuille d'avis négative" (Mails consisting solely of a blank letter bill), "Rebuts" (Undelivered correspondence) or "Poids ne dépasse pas 500 grammes" (Weight does not exceed 500 grams).

Reforwarded closed mails.

Closed mails originating in another country which are reforwarded inclosed in mails in transit and entered in Table II of the letter bill, are indicated in a special section of the list.

In respect of mails for the warehousing of which in a port a payment is due under section 4 of article 4 of the Convention to the Office which warehouses the mails, that Office prepares, for each country of origin, a daily return in accordance with Statement Pbis annexed to the present Regulations, on which are shown the particulars of the mails received by the warehousing Office from the country in question, during the 28 days of the statistical period, without regard to the dates of dispatch and of onward transmission of the mails in question.

Reforwarded mails.

Dans le cas où ces dépêches sont réexpédiées, l'Office réexpéditeur en informe l'Office du pays dont le bâtiment relève.

The summary statement Pter, after acceptance by the Chief of the debtor Administration, is forwarded with the statements Pbis to the central Administration of the Office which controls the warehousing.

7. It is the duty of the Administrations of countries to which ships of war belong to prepare statements M relative to the mails sent or received by such ships. The mails sent to ships of war during the statistical period must bear on the labels the date of dispatch.

In the event of these mails being reforwarded, the redirecting Office notifies the fact to the Office of the country to which the ship belongs.

Articles in open mail.

Correspondances à découvert.

Letter bill.

1.—Les correspondances ordinaires et recommandées ainsi que les lettres de valeur déclarée provenant du pays même ou des pays au delà transmises à découvert pendant une période de statistique font l'objet d'une inscription sur la feuille d'avis, par le bureau d'échange expéditeur, rédigée comme suit:

Correspondances à découvert.	Nombre.
Lettres - - -
Cartes postales - -
Autres objets - -

Exempted articles not included.

Ante, p. 1976.

Les correspondances exemptes de tous frais de transit conformément aux dispositions du § 9 de l'article 4 de la Convention ne sont pas comprises dans ces chiffres.

Note if none.

2.—A défaut de correspondances à découvert, le bureau expéditeur inscrit en tête de la feuille d'avis la mention:

"Pas de correspondances à découvert."

Verification.

XXXIV

Correspondence sent à découvert.

1. Ordinary and registered correspondence, as well as insured letters originating in the country itself or in other countries, forwarded à découvert during a statistical period, form the subject of an entry on the letter bill by the dispatching office of exchange as follows:

Correspondence à découvert.	Number.
Letters - - -
Post cards - -
Other articles - -

Correspondence exempt from all transit charges in accordance with the terms of section 9 of article 4 of the Convention is not included in these figures.

2. When no correspondence is sent à découvert, the dispatching office enters at the head of the letter bill the note:

"Pas de correspondances à découvert." (No correspondence à découvert.)

3. The entries on the letter bills are checked by the office of exchange of destination. If that office finds differences of more than five letters, post cards or other cartes postales ou autres objets, il rectifie les inscriptions sur la feuille d'avis et signale l'erreur immédiatement au bureau expéditeur, au moyen d'un bulletin de vérification. Si la différence constatée reste dans la limite précitée, les indications du bureau expéditeur restent inaltérées et ne donnent pas lieu à un bulletin de vérification. Après avoir terminé les opérations statistiques le bureau d'échange destinataire dresse, en simple expédition, des relevés (modèle O), qui sont transmis, sans retard, à l'Administration centrale dont il relève.

articles, it corrects the entries on the letter bill, and notifies the error immediately to the dispatching office, by means of a verification note. If the difference ascertained falls within the limit before mentioned, the entries of the dispatching office remain unaltered, and do not give rise to a verification note. After the termination of the statistical operations, the office of exchange of destination prepares, in a single copy, statements O which are forwarded without delay to the central Administration to which it is subordinate.

Statements.
Post, p. 2102.

XXXV

Compte de frais de transit.

1. Les poids des dépêches closes, le nombre des correspondances transmises à découvert et, le cas échéant, les nombres des sacs entreposés dans un port multipliés par 13 servent de base à des comptes particuliers établissant en francs et centimes les prix annuels de transit revenant à chaque Office. Dans le cas où ce multiplicateur ne se rapporte pas à la périodicité du service, ou lorsqu'il s'agit d'expéditions extraordinaires faites pendant la période de statistique, les Administrations intéressées s'entendent pour l'adoption d'un autre multiplicateur. Le soin d'établir les comptes incombe à l'Office créditeur, qui les transmet à l'Office débiteur. Le multiplicateur admis fait chaque fois règle pour toute la période de statistique.

2.—Afin de tenir compte du poids des sacs et de l'emballage et des catégories de correspondances exemptes de tous frais de transit en conformité des dispositions du § 9 de l'article 4 de la Convention, le montant total du compte des dépêches closes est réduit de 10%.

3.—Les comptes particuliers sont dressés, sur la base des relevés (modèles M, O et Pbis), en double expédition, en conformité des modèles N, P et Pter annexés au présent Règlement, et transmis

XXXV

Accounting for transit charges.

Transit expense account.

Procedure for determining.

1. The weight of the closed mails, the number of articles forwarded à découvert and, if necessary, the numbers of sacks warehoused in a port multiplied by 13, serve as the basis of special accounts determining in francs and centimes the yearly transit payments due to each Office. In cases where this multiplier does not correspond to the frequency of the service, or when it is a question of extraordinary dispatches made during the statistical period, the Administrations concerned come to an agreement for the adoption of another multiplier. The duty of preparing the accounts devolves on the creditor Office, which forwards them to the debtor Office. The multiplier agreed on holds good in each case for the whole of the statistical period.

Allowance for exemptions.

2. In order to take into account the weight of the bags and packing and of the classes of correspondence exempt from all transit charges in accordance with the terms of section 9 of article 4 of the Convention, the total amount of the account for closed mails is reduced by 10 per cent.

Ante, p. 1976.

Detailed duplicate accounts.

3. The detailed accounts are prepared in duplicate, on the basis of the statements M, O and Pbis, in accordance with statements N, P and Pter attached to the present Regulations, and aussitôt que possible et, au plus tard, avant l'expiration de 12 mois après la fin de la période de statistique, à l'Office débiteur.

Acceptance of accounts.

General account by International Bureau.

5.—Sauf entente contraire entre les Administrations intéressées, le décompte général comprenant les frais de transit territorial et maritime est établi par le Bureau International.

Submission of accepted accounts of two Administrations.

Post, p. 2104.

Agreement of differences.

En cas de différences entre les indications correspondantes de deux Administrations, le Bureau International les invite à se mettre d'accord et à lui communiquer les sommes définitivement fixées.

Acceptance of items from one administration.

Dans le cas où l'une seulement des Administrations aurait fourni le relevé (modèle Q), les indications de cette Administration font foi, à moins que le relevé correspondant de l'Administration retardataire ne soit parvenu au Bureau International en temps opportun pour l'établissement du prochain décompte annuel.

Notice of no comment.

Dans le cas du § 4 du présent article, les relevés doivent porter la mention "Aucune observation de l'Office débiteur n'est parvenue dans le délai réglementaire".

forwarded as soon as possible, and at the latest, before the expiration of 12 months from the end of the statistical period, to the debtor Office.

4. If the Office which has sent the account has received no notice of amendments within an interval of 6 months, reckoning from the date of dispatch, the account is regarded as fully accepted.

5. In the absence of any understanding to the contrary between the Administrations concerned, the general liquidation account, including the land and sea transit charges, is prepared by the International Bureau.

6. As soon as the detailed accounts between two Administrations are approved or regarded as fully accepted (section 4 of the present article) each of the two Administrations forwards without delay to the International Bureau a statement Q indicating the total amounts of these accounts. On receipt of this statement Q from an Administration, the International Bureau gives notice of its receipt to the other Administration concerned.

In case of difference between the corresponding items of two Administrations, the International Bureau invites them to come to an agreement, and to communicate to it the sums definitely fixed.

In the event of one only of the Administrations having furnished the statement Q, the items furnished by this Administration hold good, unless the corresponding statement of the Administration which was in arrears reaches the International Bureau in time for the preparation of the next annual liquidation account.

In the case provided for in section 4 of the present article, the statements must bear the indication "Aucune observation de l'Office débiteur n'est parvenue dans le délai réglementaire" (No comment has been received from the debtor Office within the prescribed period).

Dans le cas où deux Administrations se seraient mises d'accord pour faire un règlement spécial, le relevé portera la mention "Compte réglé à part—à titre d'information" et ne sera pas compris dans le décompte général. Cette mention est omise dans le cas du § 10 de l'article 4 de la Convention principale.

7.—Le Bureau International effectue les suppressions prévues dans l'article 4, § 10 de la Convention principale, et en donne avis aux offices intéressés.

8.—Le Bureau International établit, à la fin de chaque année, sur la base des relevés qui lui sont parvenus jusque là et qui sont considérés comme admis de plein droit, un décompte annuel des frais de transit. Ce décompte indique:

a) Le total du Doit et de l'Avoir de chaque Administration;

b) Le solde débiteur ou le solde créditeur de chaque Administration, représentant la différence entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir;

c) Les sommes à payer par les Administrations débitrices;

d) Les sommes à recevoir par les Administrations créditrices.

Les totaux des deux catégories de soldes sous les lettres a à d doivent nécessairement être égaux.

Le Bureau International pourvoit à ce que le nombre des payements à effectuer par les Administrations débitrices soit restreint dans la mesure du possible.

9.—Les décomptes annuels doivent être transmis aux Administrations de l'Union par le Bureau International, aussitôt que possible et, au plus tard, avant l'expiration du premier trimestre de l'année qui suit l'année de leur établissement.

In the event of two Administrations having agreed between themselves to effect a special settlement the statement shall bear the note "Compte réglé à part—à titre d'information" (Account settled separately—for purposes of information), and shall not be included in the general account. This note is omitted in the case provided for in section 10 of article 4 of the Principal Convention.

Acceptance of special settlement by mutual agreements.

Ante, p. 1977.

7. The International Bureau arranges for the omissions provided for in article 4, section 10, of the Principal Convention, and notifies the same to the Offices concerned.

Notification of omissions allowed.

Ante, p. 1977.

8. At the end of each year the International Bureau prepares, on the basis of the statements which it has received up to that time and which are regarded as fully accepted, an annual liquidation account of transit charges. This account shows:

Annual liquidation account.

(a) The total Debit and Credit of each Administration;

(b) The debit balance or the credit balance of each Administration, representing the difference between the total of the Debit and the total of the Credit;

(c) The sums to be paid by the debtor Administrations;

(d) The sums to be received by the creditor Administrations.

The totals of the two classes of balances under the letters (a) to (d) must necessarily be equal.

Reduction in the number of payments.

The International Bureau arranges for the number of payments to be made by the debtor Administrations to be reduced so far as practicable.

9. The annual liquidation accounts must be forwarded by the International Bureau to the Administrations of the Union as early as possible, and, at the latest, before the end of the first quarter of the year following the year of their preparation.

Forwarding annual accounts.

XXXVI

Settlement of transit charges.

Liquidation des frais de transit.

Payment of balance between two countries.

1.—Le solde annuel résultant du décompte du Bureau international ou des règlements spéciaux est un solde exprimé en francs-or. Il est payé par l'Office débiteur à l'Office créditeur en or ou au moyen de traites payables à vue sur la capitale ou sur une place commerciale du pays créancier.

Manner of payment.

En cas de payement au moyen de traites celles-ci sont établies en monnaie du pays créancier pour un montant équivalent au cours du change au jour de l'achat à la quantité de francs-or que représente le solde à payer.

Ces traites peuvent être également tirées sur un autre pays à la condition qu'elles représentent le même équivalent et que les frais d'escompte soient à la charge de l'Office débiteur.

Time for payment.

2.—Le payement du solde annuel doit être effectué dans le plus bref délai possible, et, au plus tard, avant l'expiration d'un délai de 4 mois à partir de la date d'envoi du décompte par le Bureau International, pour les pays d'Europe et de 5 mois pour les autres pays. Passé ce délai, les sommes dues par un Office à un autre Office sont productives d'intérêt à raison de 7 pour cent l'an et à dater du jour d'expiration du dit délai.

Interest if delayed.

XXXVI

Settlement of transit charges.

1. The annual balance resulting from the liquidation account of the International Bureau or from the special settlements is a balance expressed in gold francs. It is paid by the debtor Office to the creditor Office in gold or by means of drafts payable at sight, on the capital or on a commercial center of the creditor country.

If payment is made by means of drafts, the drafts are drawn in the currency of the creditor country for an amount equivalent at the rate of exchange on the day of purchase, to the number of gold francs represented by the balance to be paid.

These drafts may also be drawn on another country on condition that they represent the same equivalent and that the discount charges are paid by the debtor Office.

2. The payment of the annual balance must be made with as little delay as possible, and, at latest, before the end of a period of 4 months from the date of despatch of the liquidation account by the International Bureau in the case of countries in Europe, and of 5 months in the case of other countries. If this period is exceeded, the sums due by one Office to another Office are chargeable with interest, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, from the date of the expiration of the period of grace mentioned.

XXXVII

International Bureau expenses.

Répartition des frais du Bureau international.

Maximum annual amount.

XXXVII

Division of the expenses of the International Bureau.

1. The ordinary expenses of the International Bureau must not exceed the sum of 300,000 Swiss francs annually, exclusive of the special expenses entailed by the meeting of a Congress, Conference, or Committee.

2.—L'Administration des postes suisses surveille les dépenses du Bureau international, fait les avances nécessaires et établit le compte annuel, qui est communiqué à toutes les autres Administrations.

1re	classe,	25 unités.
2e	"	20 "
3e	"	15 "
4e	"	10 "
5e	"	5 "
6e	"	3 "
7e		1 unité.

4.—Ces coefficients sont multipliés par le nombre des pays de chaque classe, et la somme des produits ainsi obtenus fournit le nombre d'unités par lequel la dépense totale doit être divisée. Le quotient donne le montant de l'unité de dépense.

5.—Les pays de l'Union sont classés ainsi qu'il suit, en vue de la répartition des frais:

1re classe: Allemagne, Argentine (République), Chine, Etats-Unis d'Amérique, Ethiopie, France, Grande-Bretagne, Inde britannique, Confédération australienne (Commonwealth of Australia), Canada, Union de l'Afrique du Sud, ensemble des autres dominions, colonies et protectorats britanniques, Italie, Japon, Pologne, Russie, Turquie; Supervision, advances, etc.

2. The Swiss Postal Administration supervises the expenditure of the International Bureau, makes the necessary advances, and prepares the annual account, which is communicated to all other Administrations.

Apportionment.

3. For the apportionment of the expenses, the countries of the Union are divided into seven classes, each contributing in the proportion of a certain number of units, viz:

1st class	25 units.
2d class	20 units.
3d class	15 units.
4th class	10 units.
5th class	5 units.
6th class	3 units.
7th class	1 unit.

Unit of expense.

4. These coefficients are multiplied by the number of countries of each class, and the sum of the products thus obtained furnishes the number of units by which the whole expense is to be divided. The quotient gives the amount of the unit of expense.

Classification of countries.

5. The countries of the Union are classified as follows, in view of the division of expenses:

1st class.

1st class: Germany, Argentine Republic, China, United States of America, Ethiopia, France, Great Britain, British India, Commonwealth of Australia, Canada, Union of South Africa, the whole of the other British Dominions, Colonies and Protectorates, Italy, Japan, Poland, Russia, Turkey;

XLI

Office central de comptabilité et de liquidation des comptes entre les Administrations de l'Union.

1.—Le Bureau international de l'Union postale universelle est chargé d'opérer la balance et la liquidation des décomptes de toute nature relatifs au service international des postes entre les Administrations des pays de l'Union.

Les Administrations qui ont l'intention de réclamer, pour ce service de liquidation, le concours du Bureau international, se concertent, à cet effet, entre elles et avec ce Bureau.

XLI

Central office of accounting and settlement of accounts between the Administrations of the Union. Central accounting office.

1. The International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union undertakes the balancing and settlement of accounts of every description relative to the international postal service between Administrations of countries of the Union. Liquidation of accounts between Union countries.

The Administrations, which intend to claim the assistance of the International Bureau for this service of settlement, arrange accordingly with each other and with the Bureau. Applications for.

Special accounts without employing Bureau.

Malgré son adhésion, chaque Administration conserve le droit d'établir à son choix des décomptes spéciaux pour diverses branches du service et d'en opérer à sa convenance le règlement avec ses correspondants, sans employer l'intermédiaire du Bureau international, auquel, à teneur de l'alinéa qui précède, elle se borne à indiquer pour quelles branches de service et pour quels pays elle réclame ses offices.

Notwithstanding its adhesion, each Administration retains the right of preparing at its discretion special accounts for different branches of the service, and of settling them as it thinks fit with the corresponding Administrations, without employing the medium of the International Bureau, to which, in accordance with the preceding paragraph, it simply indicates for what branches of the service and in respect of what countries it desires the services of the Bureau.

Telegraph accounts.

Sur la demande des Administrations intéressées, les décomptes télégraphiques peuvent aussi être indiqués au Bureau international pour entrer dans la compensation des soldes.

At the request of the Administration concerned, telegraph accounts may also be notified to the International Bureau to be included in the striking of balances.

Discontinuance of use of central office.

Les Administrations qui auront emprunté l'intermédiaire du Bureau international pour la balance de la liquidation des décomptes peuvent cesser d'user de cet intermédiaire trois mois après qu'elles en auront averti ledit Bureau.

Administrations which have availed themselves of the services of the International Bureau for the balancing and liquidation of accounts may cease to use those services three months after giving notice to the Bureau to that effect.

Debt acknowledgments.

2.—Après que les comptes particuliers ont été débattus et arrêtés d'un commun accord, les Administrations débitrices transmettent aux Administrations créditrices, pour chaque nature d'opérations, une reconnaissance, établie en francs et centimes, du montant de la balance des deux comptes particuliers, avec l'indication de l'objet de la créance et de la période à laquelle elle se rapporte.

2. After the detailed accounts have been checked and agreed upon the debtor Administrations forward to the creditor Administrations, for each class of operations, an acknowledgment, made out in francs and centimes, of the amount of the balance of the two detailed accounts, indicating the subject of the credit and the period to which it relates.

Money-order exchanges.

Toutefois, en ce qui concerne l'échange des mandats, la reconnaissance doit être transmise par l'Office débiteur dès l'établissement de son propre compte particulier et la réception du compte particulier de l'Office correspondant, sans attendre qu'il ait été procédé à la vérification de détail. Les différences ultérieurement constatées sont reprises dans le premier compte à intervenr.

As regards the exchange of money orders, however, the acknowledgment must be forwarded by the debtor Office as soon as it has prepared its own detailed account, and has received the detailed account of the corresponding Office, without waiting for a detailed check. Discrepancies subsequently brought to light are adjusted in the next account.

General accounts.

Sauf entente contraire, l'Administration qui désirerait, pour sa comptabilité intérieure, avoir des comptes généraux, aurait à les établir elle-même et à les sou-

In the absence of any understanding to the contrary, an Administration which desires, for its own accounting purposes, to have general accounts, must pre-mettre à l'acceptation de l'Administration correspondante.

Les Administrations peuvent s'entendre pour pratiquer un autre système dans leurs relations.

3.—Chaque Administration adresse mensuellement ou trimestriellement, si des circonstances spéciales le rendent désirable, au Bureau international, un tableau indiquant son Avoir du chef des décomptes particuliers, ainsi que le total des sommes dont elle est créditrice envers chacune des Administrations contractantes; chaque créance figurant dans ce tableau doit être justifiée par une reconnaissance de l'Office débiteur.

Ce tableau doit parvenir au Bureau international le 19 de chaque mois ou du premier mois de chaque trimestre au plus tard, sous peine de n'être compris que dans la liquidation du mois ou du trimestre suivant.

4.—Le Bureau international constate, en rapprochant les reconnaissances, si les tableaux sont exacts. Toute rectification nécessaire est notifiée aux Offices intéressés.

Le Doit de chaque Administration envers une autre est reporté dans un tableau récapitulatif; afin d'établir le total dont chaque Administration est débitrice, il suffit d'additionner les diverses colonnes de ce tableau récapitulatif.

5.—Le Bureau international réunit les tableaux et les récapitulations en une balance générale indiquant:

a) le total du Doit et de l'Avoir de chaque Administration;

b) le solde débiteur ou le solde créditeur de chaque Administration, représentant la différence entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir;

c) les sommes à payer par une partie des membres de l'Union à une Administration, ou réciproquement les sommes à payer par cette dernière à l'autre partie.

pare them itself and submit them to the corresponding Administration for acceptance.

Other systems.

Administrations may agree to apply another system in their relations with one another.

Monthly or quarterly statements to Bureau.

3. Each Administration forwards to the International Bureau, monthly or quarterly, if special circumstances render it desirable, a statement showing the total Credit due to it on the individual accounts, as well as the total of the sums which are due to it from each of the contracting Administrations; each credit appearing in this table must be supported by an acknowledgment from the debtor Office.

Time limit.

This statement must reach the International Bureau not later than the 19th of each month or of the first month of each quarter, otherwise its settlement may be deferred until the month or the quarter following.

Verification.

4. The International Bureau checks the correctness of the statements by comparing the acknowledgments. Any correction that may be necessary is notified to the Offices concerned.

Summary of debits.

The Debit of each Administration to another is carried forward into a summary; and in order to arrive at the total amount due from each Administration, it is only necessary to add up the different columns of this summary.

General balance sheet.

5. The International Bureau combines the tables and the summaries in one general balance sheet showing:

Contents.

(a) The total of the Debit and of the Credit of each Administration;

(b) The debit or credit balance of each Administration, representing the difference between the total of its Debit and the total of its Credit;

(c) The sums to be paid by certain members of the Union to a single Administration, or, reciprocally, the sums to be paid by the latter to the former.

Total of balances.

Les totaux des deux catégories de soldes sous a et b doivent nécessairement être égaux.

Payments.

On pourvoira autant que possible à ce que chaque Administration n'ait à effectuer, pour se libérer, qu'un ou deux payements distincts.

Remittances on account.

Toutefois, l'Administration qui se trouve habituellement à découvert vis-à-vis d'une autre Administration pour une somme supérieure à 50,000 francs a le droit de réclamer des acomptes.

Ces acomptes sont inscrits, tant par l'Administration créditrice que par l'Administration débitrice, au bas des tableaux à adresser au Bureau international (voir § 3).

Classification of acknowledgments.

6.—Les reconnaissances (voir § 3) transmises au Bureau international avec les tableaux sont classées par Administration.

Settlements.

Elles servent de base pour l'établissement de la liquidation de chacune des Administrations intéressées. Dans cette liquidation doivent figurer:

a) les sommes afférentes aux décomptes spéciaux portant sur les divers échanges;

b) le total des sommes résultant de tous les décomptes spéciaux par rapport à chacune des Administrations intéressées;

c) les totaux des sommes dues à toutes les Administrations créditrices pour chaque branche du service, ainsi que leur total général.

Ce total doit être égal au total du Doit qui figure dans la récapitulation.

Balance determined.

Au bas de la liquidation, la balance est établie entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir résultant des tableaux adressés par les Administrations au Bureau international (voir § 3). Le montant net du Doit ou de l'Avoir doit être égal au solde débiteur ou au solde créditeur porté dans la balance générale. En outre, la liquidation statue sur le mode de liquidation, c'est-à-dire qu'elle indique les Administrations en faveur des-

The totals of the two kinds of balances under a and b must necessarily be equal.

As far as possible, care will be taken that each Administration, in order to settle its debts, shall have to make only one or two distinct payments.

Nevertheless, an Administration which habitually finds a sum exceeding 50,000 francs owing to it from another Administration has the right to claim remittances on account.

These remittances on account are entered, both by the creditor Administration and by the debtor Administration, at the foot of the statements to be forwarded to the International Bureau (see section 3).

6. The acknowledgments (see section 3) forwarded to the International Bureau with the tables are classified by Administrations.

They serve as the basis for settling the accounts of each of the Administrations concerned. In this settlement there must appear:

(a) The sums relating to the special accounts concerning the different services;

(b) The total of the sums resulting from all the special accounts relating to each of the Administrations concerned;

(c) The totals of the sums due to all the creditor Administrations on account of each branch of the service, as well as their general total.

This total must be equal to the total of the Debit which appears in the summary.

At the foot of the settlement account, a balance is struck between the total of the Debit and the total of the Credit resulting from the statements forwarded by the Administrations to the International Bureau (see section 3). The net amount of the Debit or of the Credit must be equal to the debit balance or to the credit balance carried into the general balance sheet. Moreover, the settlement account determines the quelles le payement doit être effectué par l'Administration débitrice.

Les liquidations doivent être transmises aux Administrations intéressées, par le Bureau international, au plus tard le 22 de chaque mois.

7.—Le payement des sommes dues, en vertu d'une liquidation, par une Administration à une autre Administration, doit être effectué aussitôt que possible et au plus tard quinze jours après réception de la liquidation par l'Administration débitrice. Quant aux autres conditions de payement, les dispositions du § 1 de l'article XXXVI précédent font loi. Les dispositions du § 2 dudit article sont, le cas échéant, applicables en cas de non-payement du solde dans le délai fixé.

Les soldes débiteurs ou créditeurs n'excédant pas 500 francs peuvent être reportés à la liquidation du mois suivant, à la condition toutefois que les Administrations intéressées soient en rapport mensuel avec le Bureau international. Il est fait mention de ce report dans les récapitulations et dans les liquidations pour les Administrations créditrices et débitrices. L'Administration débitrice fait parvenir, le cas échéant, à l'Administration créditrice, une reconnaissance de la somme due, pour être portée au prochain tableau.

manner of settlement, that is to say, it indicates the Administrations to which payment must be made by the Administration indebted.

Transmission of settlement accounts.

The settlement accounts must be forwarded by the International Bureau to the Administrations concerned not later than the 22nd of each month.

Payment.

7. Payment of the sums due, under a settlement account, from one Administration to another, must be made as soon as possible and at the latest a fortnight after receipt of the settlement account by the debtor Administration.

Conditions.

As regards other conditions of payment, the provisions of section 1 of Article XXXVI above hold good. The provisions of section 2 of the said article are applicable, where necessary, to cases of non-payment of the balance within the fixed period.

Ante, p. 2064.

Forwarding of small balances.

Debit or credit balances not exceeding 500 francs may be carried forward to the settlement of the following month, provided, however, that the Administrations concerned are in monthly communication with the International Bureau. The amount brought forward is entered in the summaries and in the settlement accounts for the creditor and debtor Administrations. In such a case the Debtor Administration forwards to the Creditor Administration an acknowledgment of the sum due, to be carried into the next statement.

Au moment de procéder à la signature du Règlement d'exécution de la Convention principale arrêté par le Congrès postal universel de Madrid, les plénipotentiaires soussignés sont convenus de ce qui suit:

I

En cas de payement au moyen de traites du solde prévu à l'article XXXVI, le montant à payer est calculé de la manière suivante:

1° en ce qui concerne les payements à effectuer à un pays où les billets de banque sont échangeables à vue contre de l'or et d'où l'exportation de l'or est libre, le montant du solde est converti en monnaie du pays créditeur au pair des monnaies d'or.

2° quant aux payements à effectuer à un autre pays, le solde est converti, sauf entente contraire entre l'Office créditeur et l'Office débiteur, au pair des monnaies d'or en monnaie d'un pays où les conditions prévues à l'alinéa précédent sont remplies. Ensuite, le montant qui provient de cette conversion peut être transformé, suivant le cas, ou en monnaie du pays créditeur ou, exceptionnelle-

FINAL PROTOCOL.

Final Protocol.

At the moment of proceeding to sign the Detailed Regulations of the Principal Convention adopted by the Universal Postal Congress of Madrid, the undersigned plenipotentiaries have agreed as follows:

I

Payment of transit balances.
Ante, p. 2064.

When the balance referred to in Article XXXVI is paid by means of drafts, the amount to be paid is calculated in the following manner:

In countries on a gold basis.

1. As regards payments to be made to a country where bank notes are exchangeable at sight against gold, and where the exportation of gold is free, the amount of the balance is converted into the currency of the creditor country at the gold par rate;

In other countries at rate of exchange.

2. In the case of payments to be made to another country, the balance is converted, in the absence of other arrangement between the creditor Office and the debtor Office, at the gold par rate into the currency of a country where the conditions prescribed in the preceding paragraph are fulfilled. The amount resulting from this conversion may then be changed, according to circumstances, either into the currency of the creditor country, or, exceptionally, into the currency of another country. In both cases the rate of exchange on the day of the purchase of the draft is taken as the basis for the conversion.

ment, en monnaie d'un autre pays. Dans les deux cas le cours du change au jour d'achat de la traite est pris comme base de la transformation.

II

II

Disposal of existing reply coupons.

Par mesure de transition, les coupons-réponse de la valeur nominale de 25 centimes qui se trouveront en possession des Administrations postales au jour où la Convention de Madrid sera mise à exécution pourront être vendus à un prix à déterminer par l'Administration qui les débitera sans que ce prix puisse toutefois être inférieur à 25 centimes (or).

As a temporary measure, reply coupons of the nominal value of 25 centimes which may be in possession of postal administrations on the date on which the Convention of Madrid comes into force may be sold at a price to be settled by the selling administration on condition, however, that this price is not less than 25 centimes (gold).

Exchangeable value.

Ces coupons, aussi bien que ceux qui auront été vendus avant la mise à exécution de la Convention de Madrid et qui seront présentés après cette date, seront échangés contre un timbre-poste ou des timbres-poste représentant la moitié du montant de prix d'affranchissement d'une lettre simple à destination de l'étranger.

These coupons, as well as those which may have been sold before the Convention of Madrid comes in force, and which may be presented after that date, shall be exchanged for a postage stamp or postage stamps representing half the amount of the postage on a single-rate international letter.

Valuation in statements.

Ante, p. 2016.

Pour l'établissement du relevé prévu à l'article VII, paragraphe 7, du Règlement, la valeur de ces coupons sera fixée à 25 centimes par unité.

For the preparation of the statement prescribed by Article VII, section 7, of the Detailed Regulations, the value of these coupons shall be fixed at 25 centimes each.

Ante, p. 2001.

Les Administrations qui augmenteront leurs taxes avant le 1er janvier 1922, d'après la faculté accordée par l'article 30 de la Convention principale auront également la faculté de faire appliquer la disposition du 2me alinéa du présent article à partir de la date de l'augmentation de leurs taxes.

Administrations which may increase their charges before the 1st of January, 1922, in accordance with the option given by article 30 of the Principal Convention, shall equally have the option of applying the provisions of the second paragraph of the present article from the date on which they increase their charges.

III

Use of stock on hand.

Le Bureau international est autorisé à épuiser le stock de coupons-réponse déjà partiellement imprimés, en y ajoutant les corrections et compléments rendus nécessaires par les décisions

The International Bureau is authorised to use up the stock of reply coupons already partly printed, by adding to them the corrections and additions rendered necessary by the decisions prises en modifications du Règlement d'exécution de la Convention de Rome.

IV

V

Par exception, les Administrations qui, à cause de la valeur instable de leur monnaie, ne sont pas à même de fixer d'une manière définitive les équivalents des taxes types de l'Union ne sont pas tenues d'observer strictement les dispositions de l'article VI § 1 du Règlement d'exécution relative à la couleur des timbres.

VI

Par exception, les dispositions des articles XXXII, XXXIII, XXXIV et XXXV du Règlement d'exécution de la Convention principale s'appliqueront à la statistique de mai 1921.

En foi de quoi les plénipotentiaires ci-dessous ont dressé le présent Protocole final, qui aura la même force et la même valeur que si ses dispositions étaient insérées dans le texte même du Règlement auquel il se rapporte, et ils l'ont signé en un exemplaire qui restera déposé aux Archives du Gouvernement de l'Espagne et dont une copie sera remise à chaque partie.

Identity Books issued before the coming into force of the present Regulations retain their validity in the relations between the countries which signed the special Agreements of Rome up to the end of a period of three years, but they may not be renewed.

Validity of prior identity books.

V

Exceptionally, Administrations which, by reason of the instability of their currency, are not in a position definitely to fix the equivalents of the typical Union rates, are not bound to observe strictly the terms of Article VI, § 1, of the Detailed Regulations relative to the color of postage stamps.

Exceptional use of colors for stamps.

Parcel Post Convention between the United States and Siam. Signed at Bangkok, October 15, 1921, at Washington, February 24, 1922; approved by the President, February 28, 1922.

October 15, 1921. February 24, 1922.

PARCEL POST CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND SIAM.

Parcel post convention with Siam. Preamble.

With the view to improve the postal relations between the United States of America and Siam, the undersigned, Will H. Hays, Postmaster General of the United States of America, and Phra Svasti Varavithi, acting Director General of Posts and Telegraphs of Siam, by virtue of the authority vested in them, have agreed upon the following articles for the establishment of a parcel post system of exchange between the two countries.

ARTICLE I.

Scope of convention.

The provisions of this Convention relate only to parcels of mail matter to be exchanged by the system herein provided for, and do not affect the arrangements now existing under the Universal Postal Convention, which will continue as heretofore; and all the provisions hereinafter contained apply exclusively to mails exchanged under this Convention.

ARTICLE II.

Articles admitted to mails.

1. With the exception of the articles specifically prohibited by Article III, there shall be admitted to the parcel mails all articles which are admitted to the mails under any conditions in the domestic service of the country of origin and the country of destination. No parcel may, however, exceed 5 kilograms or 11 pounds in weight, nor the following dimensions: Greatest length in any direction, three feet six inches (1 meter 5 centimeters), greatest length and girth combined, six feet (1 meter 80 centimeters).

Requirements.

Address and packing.

2. Every parcel must bear the exact address of the addressee and must be packed in a manner adequate for the length of the journey and the protection of its contents. The packing must be of such a nature as to permit the contents to be easily examined by officers of the Post Office or the Customs.

ARTICLE III.

Prohibited articles.

1. The following articles are prohibited: Parcels containing letters, or communications of the nature of personal correspondence (it is permitted, however, to include in the parcel an open invoice or bill in its simplest form); live animals, except bees in properly constructed boxes; dead animals, except insects and reptiles when thoroughly dried; fruits and vegetables which easily decompose; publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; poisons, and explosive or inflammable substances; lottery tickets, lottery advertisements, or lottery circulars; all obscene or immoral articles; or articles the admission of which is not authorized by the customs or other laws or regulations of either country; and, in general articles the conveyance of which is reputed dangerous.

Erroneous transmittals.

2. If a parcel contravening any of these prohibitions or not conforming to the stipulations of Article II be handed over by one Administration to the other, the latter shall proceed in the manner and with the formalities prescribed by its law or domestic regulations.

Freedom from inspection, etc.

3. All admissible articles of merchandise mailed in one country for the other, or received in one country from the other, shall be free from any detention or inspection whatever, except such as is required for collection of customs duties; and shall be forwarded by the most speedy means to their destination; being subject in their transmission to the laws and regulations of each country respectively.

ARTICLE IV.

No inclosure for other address.

No parcel may contain packages intended for delivery at an address other than that borne by the parcel itself. If such inclosed packages be detected they must be sent forward singly, charged with new and distinct parcel post rates.

ARTICLE V.

Rates of postage.

1. The following rates of postage must in all cases be fully prepaid, viz:

In United States.

2. In the United States for a parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, 12 cents; and for each additional pound or fraction of a pound, 12 cents.

In Siam.

3. In Siam 95 satangs (about 35 cents gold) for parcels up to 1 pound in weight, and 40 satangs (13 cents gold) for each additional pound.

Delivery.

4. The parcels shall be promptly delivered to addressees in accordance with the domestic regulations of the country of destination, free of charge for postage; but the country of destination may, at its option, levy and collect from the addressee, for domestic service and delivery, a charge, the amount of which is to be fixed according to its own regulations, but which shall in no case exceed in the United States five cents and in Siam 75 satangs, for each parcel whatever its weight.

Customs dues, etc.

5. Every parcel shall be subject, in the country of destination, to all duties and all customs regulations in force in that country for the protection of its customs revenues; and the customs and other duties properly chargeable thereon shall be collected on delivery, in accordance with the customs regulations of the country of destination.

ARTICLE VI.

Receipt of posting.

1. The sender may, at the time of posting, obtain a certificate of posting on the form provided for the purpose; in conformity with or analogous to Form 1 annexed hereto.

Post, p. 2111.

Registry.

2. The sender of a package may have the same registered in accordance with the regulations of the country of origin.

Delivery receipt.

3. An acknowledgment of the delivery of a registered parcel shall be returned to the sender when requested; but either country may require of the sender prepayment of a fee therefor not exceeding five cents in the United States or twenty-five satangs in Siam.

Notice of arrival.

4. The addressees of registered parcels shall be advised of the arrival of the parcels addressed to them, by a notice from the Post Office at destination.

ARTICLE VII.

Customs declaration.

1. The sender of each parcel shall make a customs declaration, to be pasted upon or attached to the package, upon a special form provided for the purpose (see Form 2 annexed hereto) giving a general description of the parcel, an accurate statement of its contents, and value, date of mailing, and the sender's signature and place of residence, and the place of destination.

Post, p. 2112.

2. The contracting administrations decline any responsibility as to the correctness of the customs declarations. Nonresponsibility for errors.

ARTICLE VIII.

Each country shall retain to its own use the whole of the postages, registration and delivery fees it collects on said parcels; consequently, this Convention will give rise to no separate accounts between the two countries. Retention of fees.

ARTICLE IX.

1. The parcels shall be considered as forming a distinct part of the mails exchanged between the United States and Siam, to be dispatched to the country of destination by the country of origin at its cost, and by such means as it provides, except that in case of parcels from the United States for Siam, the Postal Administration of Siam will pay for the onward conveyance of said parcels from Hong Kong dispatched through the intermediary of Hong Kong (said charges to be collected from the addressees). They must be forwarded, at the option of the dispatching office, either in boxes or baskets prepared expressly for the purpose, or in ordinary mail sacks, marked "Parcel Post;" "Colis Postaux," and securely sealed with wax, or otherwise, as may be mutually agreed upon. Method of transportation.

2. Each country shall promptly return empty to the dispatching office by next mail all such receptacles; unless some other arrangement shall be mutually agreed to. Return of empty sacks.

ARTICLE X.

Each dispatch of a parcel post mail must be accompanied by a descriptive list, in duplicate, of all the parcels sent, showing distinctly the number of each parcel, the office of origin, the name of the addressee with address of destination, and the declared contents and value. This list (see Form 3 annexed hereto) must be enclosed in one of the receptacles composing the mail. Description list.

Post, p. 2113.

ARTICLE XI.

1. As soon as the mail shall have reached the office of destination, that office shall check the contents of the mail. Receipt of mail.

2. In the event of a parcel bill not having been received, a substitute should be at once prepared. Substitute parcel bill.

3. Any errors in the entries on the parcel bill which may be discovered should, after verification by a second officer, be corrected and noted for report to the dispatching office on a form, "Bulletin of Verification," which should be sent in a special envelope. Correction of errors.

4. If a parcel advised on the bill be not received, after the nonreceipt has been verified by a second officer, the entry on the bill should be canceled and the fact reported at once. Nonreceipt of parcel.

5. If a parcel be observed to be insufficiently prepaid, it must not be taxed with deficient postage, but the circumstances must be reported on the bulletin of verification form. Insufficient payment.

6. Should a parcel be received in a damaged or imperfect condition, full particulars should be reported on the same form to the office which made up the mail. Damaged parcels.

7. If no bulletin of verification or note of error be received, a parcel mail shall be considered as duly delivered, having been found on examination correct in all respects. Presumption of delivery.

ARTICLE XII.

Missent articles to be returned.

1. Missent parcels shall be immediately returned to the dispatching office of exchange. Attention shall be called to the error by means of a bulletin of verification.

Inability to deliver, etc.

2. If a parcel can not be delivered as addressed, or is refused, it must be returned without charge, directly to the dispatching office of exchange, at the expiration of thirty days from its receipt at the office of destination, and the country of origin may collect from the sender for the return of the parcel a sum equal to the postage when first mailed.

Charges for redirected articles, etc.

3. Parcels redirected from one country to the other, or parcels returned at the sender's request, incur a supplementary charge on the basis of the rates fixed by Article V, which may be collected in advance or on delivery, as convenient. Parcels forwarded from one address to another in the country of destination are subject to such additional charges as the domestic regulations of that country prescribe.

Ante, p. 2108.

Perishable articles not delivered.

4. Articles which it has not been possible to deliver and which are liable to deterioration or corruption may, however, be sold immediately, without previous notice or legal formality, for the benefit of the person entitled thereto, the particulars of the sale being reported by one Administration to the other. The proceeds of the sale shall be devoted to paying the charges on the parcel; the remainder, if any, shall be sent to the office of origin to be paid to the sender. If for any reason a sale is impossible the spoilt or worthless articles are destroyed or handed over to the customs.

Duties on returned, etc., parcels to be canceled.

5. With the reservation that the formalities prescribed for Administrative reasons by the Administrations concerned be complied with, the customs duties on parcels which have to be sent back to the country of origin or redirected to a third country shall be canceled both in the United States and in Siam.

ARTICLE XIII.

Nonresponsibility for loss, etc.

Neither of the contracting Administrations will be responsible for the loss or damage of any parcel, consequently no indemnity can be claimed by the sender or addressee in either country.

ARTICLE XIV.

Exchange offices.

1. The stipulations of the present Convention apply exclusively to the articles herein mentioned, mailed in or destined for Siam on the one side and the United States and its island possessions on the other side, and dispatched on the one side to Hongkong from the offices of San Francisco, Seattle, and such other offices in the United States as may be designated hereafter by the Postmaster General of the United States, and on the other side to the offices of San Francisco and Seattle by the office of Bangkok or such other offices as may be subsequently designated by the Director General of Posts and Telegraphs of Siam.

Application of domestic legislation.

2. The internal legislation of both the United States and Siam shall remain applicable as regards everything not provided for by the stipulations contained in the present Convention.

Reciprocal communication of postal regulations.

3. The Postal Administrations of the two contracting parties shall communicate to each other from time to time the provisions of their laws or regulations applicable to the conveyance of parcels by parcel post.

Regulation of details, etc.

4. They shall regulate the mode of transmission of parcels and fix all other measures of detail and order necessary for insuring the performance of the present Agreement. They may also, by agreement, prescribe conditions for the admission to the mails of any of the articles prohibited by Article III of this Convention.

Ante, p. 2107.

ARTICLE XV.

Effect and duration.

This Convention shall take effect and operations thereunder shall begin on the tenth day of October, 1918, and shall continue in force until terminated by mutual agreement; but may be annulled at the desire of either Department upon six months previous notice given to the other.

Signatures.

Done in duplicate and signed at Washington the 24th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, and at Bangkok the 15th day of october, one thousand nine hundred and twentyone.

Letters not to accompany parcels.

1. Aucune lettre ou communication ayant la nature d'une correspondance personnelle ne peut accompagner un colis ni être placée dans ce colis, ni être inscrite sur le colis.

2. Si une telle lettre était trouvée, elle serait placée dans les sacs postaux et si la communication était attachée de façon à ne pouvoir être séparée du paquet, le colis entier serait rejeté. Si cependant un tel colis était par inadvertance envoyé à son adresse, le pays de destination préleverait sur la ou les lettres un double droit d'affranchissement conformément à la Convention postale universelle.

In conformity with the final Resolution of the Senate of the United States in giving its consent to the ratification of the Treaty in question, the stipulation contained in the first clause of Article one by which there is ceded to the Republic of Colombia free passage of its troops, materials of war and ships of war through the Panama Canal, shall not be applicable in case of a state of war between the Republic of Colombia and any other country.

Free passage of troops, etc., through Canal not applicable in case of war between Colombia and another country.

2. The said final Resolution of the Senate of the United States signifies, as the Secretary of State in effect stated in the note which he addressed to the Colombian Legation in Washington on the 3rd day of October, 1921, that the Republic of Colombia will not have the right of passage, free of tolls, for its troops, materials of war and ships of war, in case of war between Colombia and some other country, and consequently, the Republic of Colombia will be placed, when at war with another country, on the same footing as any other nation under similar conditions, as provided in the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty concluded in 1901; and that, therefore, the Republic of Colombia will not by operation of the declaration of the Senate of the United States above mentioned, be placed under any disadvantage as compared with the other belligerent or belligerents, in the Panama Canal, in case of war between Colombia and some other nation or nations. With this understanding the said Resolution has been accepted by the Colombian Congress in accordance with the dispositions contained in Article two of Law fifty-six of 1921, "by which is modified Law number fourteen of 1914" approving the Treaty.

Tillvägagångssättet vid fastställandet av ansvarigheten för förlusten, skadan eller tillgreppet ävensom vid betalningen och uppgörelsen rörande ersättningskravet skall vara detsamma, som i gällande världspostkonvention är bestämt i fråga om rekommenderade försändelser inom världspostföreningen.

Time limit.

It is understood that claims for indemnity shall not be valid unless made within one year from the date of the mailing of the registered parcel concerned.

Det är överenskommet, att ersättningskrav icke skall föranleda åtgärd, med mindre detsamma är framställt senast inom ett år från den dag, da det registrerade paketet avlämnades till postbehandling.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Postmaster General of the United States and the General Post Office of Sweden shall have authority jointly to make such further regulations of order and detail as may be deemed necessary to carry out the Convention from time to time; and may, further, by agreement, prescribe conditions for the admission to the mails of any of the articles prohibited by article II of this Convention.

ARTIKEL XIII.

Generalpostmästaren i Förenta Staterna och Generalpoststyrelsen i Sverige skola äga befogenhet att gemensamt utfärda ytterligare detaljbestämmelser, som efter hand kunna visa sig vara av nöden för utförandet av avtalet, ävensom att, efter överenskommelse, besluta rörande de villkor, på vilka föremål, som enligt Art. II äro uteslutna från postbefordran, må kunna försändas med posten.

Further regulations, etc.

Convention between the United States and Japan regarding rights in former German islands in the Pacific Ocean north of the Equator, and the Island of Yap. Signed at Washington, February 11, 1922; ratification advised by the Senate, March 1, 1922; ratified by the President, June 2, 1922; ratified by Japan, June 23, 1922; ratifications exchanged at Washington, July 13, 1922; proclaimed, July 13, 1922

February 11, 1922.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Japan mandated islands in the Pacific north of the Equator. Preamble.

Whereas a Convention between the United States of America and Japan with regard to the rights of the two Governments and their respective nationals in the former German Islands in the Pacific Ocean, lying north of the Equator, in particular the Island of Yap, was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Washington, on the eleventh of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, the original of which Convention is word for word as follows:

Contracting Powers.

The United States of America and Japan;

Renunciation of Germany's rights and titles.

Considering that by Article 119 of the Treaty of Versailles, signed on June 28, 1919, Germany renounced in favor of the Powers described in that Treaty as the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, to wit, the United States of America, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, all her rights and titles over her oversea possessions;

Considering that the benefits accruing to the United States under the aforesaid Article 119 of the Treaty of Versailles were confirmed by the Treaty between the United States and Germany, signed on August 25, 1921, to restore friendly relations between the two nations;

Ante, p. 1942.

Considering that the said four Powers, to wit, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, have agreed to confer upon His Majesty the Emperor of Japan a mandate, pursuant to the Treaty of Versailles, to administer the groups of the former German Islands in the Pacific Ocean lying north of the Equator, in accordance with the following provisions:

Text of mandate.

"Article 1. The islands over which a Mandate is conferred upon His Majesty the Emperor of Japan (hereinafter called the Mandatory) comprise all the former German islands situated in the Pacific Ocean and lying north of the Equator.

"Article 2. The Mandatory shall have full power of administration and legislation over the territory subject to the present Mandate as an integral portion of the Empire of Japan, and may apply the laws of the Empire of Japan to the territory, subject to such local modifications as circumstances may require.

The Mandatory shall promote to the utmost the material and moral well-being and the social progress of the inhabitants of the territory subject to the present Mandate.

"Article 3. The Mandatory shall see that the slave trade is prohibited and that no forced labour is permitted, except for essential public works and services, and then only for adequate remuneration.

The Mandatory shall also see that the traffic in arms and ammunition is controlled in accordance with principles analogous to those laid down in the Convention relating to the control of the arms traffic, signed on September 10th, 1919, or in any convention amending same.

The supply of intoxicating spirits and beverages to the natives shall be prohibited.

"Article 4. The military training of the natives, otherwise than for purposes of internal police and the local defence of the territory, shall be prohibited. Furthermore, no military or naval bases shall be established or fortifications erected in the territory.

"Article 5. Subject to the provisions of any local law for the maintenance of public order and public morals, the Mandatory shall ensure in the territory freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship, and shall allow all missionaries, nationals of any State Member of the League of Nations, to enter into, travel and reside in the territory for the purpose of prosecuting their calling.

"Article 6. The Mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council, containing full information with regard to the territory, and indicating the measures taken to carry out the obligations assumed under Articles 2, 3, 4, and 5.

"Article 7. The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of the present mandate.

The Mandatory agrees that, if any dispute whatever should arise between the Mandatory and another member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation or the application of the provisions of the Mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for by Article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations";

Considering that the United States did not ratify the Treaty of Versailles and did not participate in the agreement respecting the aforesaid Mandate;

Contracting Powers.

Desiring to reach a definite understanding with regard to the rights of the two Governments and their respective nationals in the aforesaid islands, and in particular the Island of Yap, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose and to that end have named as their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America: Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States; and

His Majesty the Emperor of Japan: Baron Kijuro Shidehara, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Washington;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

Consent of United States to mandate.

Subject to the provisions of the present Convention, the United States consents to the administration by Japan, pursuant to the aforesaid Mandate, of all the former German Islands in the Pacific Ocean, lying north of the Equator.

ARTICLE II

Benefits to United States, etc.

The United States and its nationals shall receive all the benefits of the engagements of Japan, defined in Articles 3, 4 and 5 of the aforesaid Mandate, notwithstanding the fact that the United States is not a Member of the League of Nations.

It is further agreed between the High Contracting Parties as follows:

(1) Japan shall insure in the islands complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship which are consonant with public order and morality; American missionaries of all such religions shall be free to enter the islands and to travel and reside therein, to acquire and possess property, to erect religious buildings and to open schools throughout the islands; it being understood, however, that Japan shall have the right to exercise such control as may be necessary for the maintenance of public order and good government and to take all measures required for such control. Freedom of worship, etc.

(2) Vested American property rights in the mandated islands shall be respected and in no way impaired; Property secured.

(3) Existing treaties between the United States and Japan shall be applicable to the mandated islands; Treaties applicable.

(4) Japan will address to the United States a duplicate of the annual report on the administration of the Mandate to be made by Japan to the Council of the League of Nations; Report of administration.

(5) Nothing contained in the present Convention shall be affected by any modification which may be made in the terms of the Mandate as recited in the Convention, unless such modification shall have been expressly assented to by the United States. Modifications of Mandate subject to United States consent.

ARTICLE III

Island of Yap. Rights accorded as to cables.

The United States and its nationals shall have free access to the Island of Yap on a footing of entire equality with Japan or any other nation and their respective nationals in all that relates to the landing and operation of the existing Yap-Guam cable or of any cable which may hereafter be laid or operated by the United States or by its nationals connecting with the Island of Yap.

Radio-telegraphic communication included.

The rights and privileges embraced by the preceding paragraph shall also be accorded to the Government of the United States and its nationals with respect to radio-telegraphic communication; provided, however, that so long as the Government of Japan shall maintain on the Island of Yap an adequate radio-telegraphic station, cooperating effectively with the cables and with other radio stations on ships or on shore, without discriminatory exactions or preferences, the exercise of the right to establish radio-telegraphic stations on the Island by the United States or its nationals shall be suspended.

ARTICLE IV

Electrical rights specified.

In connection with the rights embraced by Article III, specific rights, privileges and exemptions, in so far as they relate to electrical communications, shall be enjoyed in the Island of Yap by the United States and its nationals in terms as follows:

Residence, property holdings, etc.

Freedom from inspection, etc.

2. All admissible articles of merchandise mailed in one country for the other, or received in one country from the other, shall be free from any detention or inspection whatsoever, except such as is required for the collection of customs duties; and shall be forwarded by the most speedy means to their destination, being subject in their transmission to the laws and regulations of each country, respectively.

Article III.

Letters must not accompany parcels.

1. A letter or communication of the nature of personal correspondence must not accompany, be written on, or inclosed with any parcel.

Rejection if found, etc.

2. If such be found, the letter will be placed in the mails if separable, or, if the communication be inseparably attached, the whole package will be rejected. If, however, any such parcel should inadvertently be forwarded, the country of destination will collect on the letter or letters double rates of postage, according to the Convention of the Universal Postal Union.

No inclosure for other address.

3. No parcel may contain packages intended for delivery at an address other than that borne by the parcel itself. If such inclosed packages be detected, they must be sent forward singly, charged with new and distinct parcel post rates.

3. The parcels shall be promptly delivered to addressees at the post offices of address in the country of destination, free of charge for postage. They shall be subject to all customs duties and all customs regulations in force in the country of destination for the protection of its customs revenues, and the customs duties properly chargeable thereon shall be collected on delivery in accordance with the customs regulations of the country of destination; but neither sender nor addressee shall be subject to the payment of any charge for fines or penalties on account of failure to comply with any customs regulation.

Exemption from fines, etc.

Article VI.

2. Each country shall promptly return EMPTY to the despatching office, by next mail, all such bags and boxes.

3. Although articles admitted under this Convention will be transmitted as aforesaid between the exchange offices, they should be so carefully packed as to be safely transmitted in the open mails of either country, both in going to the exchange office in the country of origin and to the office of address in the country of destination.

4. Each despatch of a parcel post mail must be accompanied by a descriptive list in duplicate, of all the parcels sent, showing distinctly the list number of each parcel, the name of the sender, the name of the addressee, with address of destination, and the declared contents and value; and must be inclosed in one of the sacks of such despatch. (See Form 3 annexed hereto).

Post, p. 2188.

Article VIII.

Exchange offices.

Exchange of mails under this Convention from any place in either country to any place in the other, shall be effected through the post offices of both countries already designated as exchange post offices, or through such others as may be hereafter agreed upon, under such regulations relative to the details of the exchange as may be mutually determined to be essential to the security and expedition of the mails and the protection of the customs revenues.

Damaged parcels.

6. Should a parcel be received in damaged or imperfect condition, full particulars should be reported on the same form.

Presumption of delivery.

7. If no bulletin of verification or note of error be received, a parcel mail shall be considered as duly delivered, having been found on examination correct in all respects.

Article X.

Inability to deliver.

1. If a parcel can not be delivered as addressed, or is refused, it must be returned without charge directly to the despatching office of exchange at the expiration of thirty days from its receipt at the office of destination; and the country of origin may collect from the sender for the return of the parcel a sum equal to the postage when first mailed.

Perishable articles.

2. When the contents of a parcel which can not be delivered are liable to deterioration or corruption, they may be destroyed at once, if necessary, or if expedient sold, without previous notice or judicial formality, for the benefit of the right person; the particulars of each sale being communicated by one postal administration to the other.

Cancellation of customs dues.

3. The customs duties on parcels which are returned to the country of origin shall be canceled both in the United States of America and the Straits Settlements.

Exchange of notes.

[The German Chancellor to the American Ambassador at Berlin.]
[Translation.]

Foreign Office.
No. III A 2451. Berlin, August 10, 1922.

Mr. Ambassador,

From German Chancellor.

In reply to your kind note of June 23, 1922, I have the honor to state to your Excellency as follows:

The German Government is in agreement with the draft of an agreement communicated to it in the note mentioned, now that some changes in the text have been agreed upon with your Excellency. I have the honor to transmit herewith the draft modified accordingly.

From the numerous conferences which have taken place with your Excellency, the German Government believes itself justified in assuming that it is not the intention of the American Government to insist in the proceedings of the Commission upon all the claims contemplated in the Versailles Treaty without exception, that it in particular does not intend to raise claims such as those included in Paragraphs 5 to 7 of Annex 1 of Article 244 of the Versailles Treaty (claims for reimbursement of military pensions paid by the American Government, and of allowances paid to American prisoners of war or their families and to the families of persons mobilised) or indeed claims going beyond the Treaty of August 25, 1921.

The German Government would be grateful if your Excellency would confirm the correctness of this assumption.

In the view of the German Government it would furthermore be in the interest of both Governments concerned that the work of the Commission be carried out as quickly as possible. In order to insure this it might be expedient to fix a period for the reporting of the claims to be considered by the Commission. The German Government, therefore, proposes that the Commission should consider only such claims as are brought before it within at least six months after its first meeting as provided in Article III of the above-named agreement.

I should be obliged to your Excellency for a statement as to whether the American Government is in agreement herewith.

At the same time I take advantage of this occasion to renew to you, Mr. Ambassador, the assurance of my most distinguished consideration.

WIRTH.

AMERICAN EMBASSY,
Berlin, August 10, 1922.

From American Ambassador.

Mr. Chancellor:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of to-day's date transmitting the draft of the agreement enclosed to you in my note of June 23, as modified as a result of the negotiations that have been carried on between us.

In accordance with the instructions that I have received from my Government, I am authorized by the President to state that he has no intention of pressing against Germany or of presenting to the Commission established under the claims agreement any claims not covered by the Treaty of August 25, 1921, or any claims falling within Paragraphs 5 to 7, inclusive, of the annex following Article 244 of the Treaty of Versailles.

With regard to your suggestion that the Commission shall only consider such claims as are presented to it within six months after its first meeting, as provided for in Article III, I have the honor to inform you that I am now in receipt of instructions from my Government to the effect that it agrees that notices of all claims to be presented to the Commission must be filed within the period of six months as above stated.

I avail myself once more of the opportunity to renew to you, Mr. Chancellor, the assurances of my most distinguished consideration.

PARCEL POST CONVENTION

between the United States of America and Finland.

The undersigned, Hubert Work, Postmaster General of the United States of America and G. E. F. Albrecht, Postmaster General of the Republic of Finland, by virtue of authority vested in them, for the purpose of making better arrangements for a parcel post system of exchange between the above mentioned countries, have agreed upon the following articles:

Article I.

The provisions of this convention shall relate only to parcels of mail matter to be exchanged by the system herein provided for, and shall in no way affect the arrangements now existing under the Universal Postal Convention, which will continue in force as heretofore; and all the agreements hereinafter contained shall apply exclusively to mails exchanged under these articles.

Article II.

There shall be admitted to the mails exchanged under this Convention articles of merchandise and mail matter (except letters, post cards, and written matter) of all kinds that are admitted under any conditions to the domestic mails of the country of origin, except that no packet may exceed 22 pounds (10 kilograms) in weight, nor the following dimensions: Greatest length in any direction, 3 feet 6 inches (105 centimeters); greatest length and girth combined 6 feet (180 centimeters); and must be so wrapped or inclosed as to permit their contents to be easily examined by postmasters and customs officers, excepting only those articles whose admission in this manner is forbidden by the laws of the country of destination, due notice of which shall be mutually given

PAKETTIPOSTISOPIMUS

Amerikan Yhdysvaltain ja Suomen välillä.

Allekirjoittaneet, Hubert Work, Amerikan Yhdysvaltain Pääpostitirehtööri ja G. E. F. Albrecht, Suomen Tasavallan postilaitoksen Pääjohtaja ovat heilleannetun valtuuden nojalla pakettipostin vaihdon parantamiseksi yllämainittujen maiden välillä sopineet seuraavista artikloista:

I Artikla.

Tämän sopimuksen määräykset koskevat ainoastaan paketteja, jotka vaihdetaan tässä määrätyn järjestelmän mukaan, eivätkä tuota mitään muutosta maailmanpostisopimuksen voimassa oleviin määräyksiin, jotka edelleen ovat voimassa, kuten tähän asti; kaikki seuraavaan sisältyvät määräykset koskevat yksinomaan niitä posteja, jotka vaihdetaan näiden artiklain mukaisesti.

II Artikla.

Niissä posteissa, jotka vaihdetaan tämän sopimuksen mukaisesti, voidaan kuljettaa kaikenlaatuisia tavaroita ja postilähetyksiä (paitsi kirjeitä, postikortteja ja kirjallisia ilmoituksia), mikäli näitä lähetyksiä ylimalkaan voidaan postissa kuljettaa postiinjättömaan kotimaisessa postinvaihdossa. Kuitenkaan ei mikään paketti saa olla 22 naulaa (10 kilogrammaa) painavampi eikä myöskään ylittää seuraavia mittoja: suurin pituus mihin suuntaan tahansa 3 jalkaa 6 tuumaa (105 senttimetriä); sekä pituus ja ympäryys yhteensä 6 jalkaa (180 senttimetriä); ja tulee pakettien olla siten päällystetyt tai pakatut, että postivirkailijat ja tullivirkamiehet helposti voivat tarkastaa niiden sisällyksen. Poikkeuksena tästä ovat ainoastaan sellaiset esineet, joiden maahantuont mellan Amerikas Förenta Stater och Finland.

Undertecknade, Hubert Work, General-postdirektör i Amerikas Förenta Stater och G. E. F. Albrecht, Generaldirektör för postverket i Republiken Finland, hava, i kraft av dem meddelat bemyndigande, i och för förbättrande av utväxling av paketpost mellan ovannämnda länder, överenskommit om följande artiklar:

Artikel I.

Bestämmelserna i denna konvention gälla endast paket, som utväxlas enligt det häri föreskrivna system, och medföra ingen ändring i gällande bestämmelser uti världspostkonventionen, vilka fortfarande gälla såsom hittills; alla i det följande innefattade bestämmelser gälla uteslutande deposter, vilka utväxlas i enlighet med dessa artiklar.

Artikel II.

I de poster, vilka utväxlas i enlighet med denna konvention, kunna befordras varor och postförsändelser av varje slag (med undantag av brev, postkort och skriftliga meddelanden), såvida försändelserna över huvud taget kunna befordras med post i den inrikes postutväxlingen i inlämningslandet. Dock må icke något paket överstiga i vikt 22 skålpund (10 kilogram) och ej heller överskrida följande mått: största längd i vilken som helst riktning 3 fot 6 tum (105 centimeter); och i längd och omfång tillsammans 6 fot (180 centimeter); och skola paketen vara så emballerade eller inslagna, att deras innehåll lätt kan undersökas av postfunktionärer och tulltjänstemän. Undantag härifrån utgöra endast sådana föremål, vilkas införsel på detta sätt är förbjuden genom

Kaikkia luvallisia tavaroita, jotka postitse on lähetetty toisesta maasta toiseen tahi toisessa maassa vastaanotettu toisesta, ei saa pidättää tai saattaa minkäänlaisen tarkastuksen alaisiksi, sellaista lukuunottamatta, joka on tarpeellinen tullimaksujen kantamista varten, vaan ovat ne lähetettävät nopeimmilla kuljetusneuvoilla osoitepaikkaan, mutta ovat kuitenkin kuljetettaessa asianomaisen maan lakien ja määräysten alaiset.

Nonreceipt of parcel

4. I fall något å kartan uppfört paket saknas, skall, efter det förhållandet konstaterats av ännu en tjänsteman, den å kartan angående försändelsen gjorda anteckningen överkorsas och om saken besvaring avlåtas omedelbart på sätt ovan angivits.

Postiinjättömaahan ei kuitenkaan palauteta II artiklan mukaan kiellettyjä paketteja eikä sellaisia, jotka eivät täytä sanotussa artiklassa määrättyjä ehtoja suuruuteen ja painoon nähden, vaan meneteltäköön sellaisten pakettien suhteen lopullisesti osoitemaan tullilakien ja määräysten mukaan.

Perishable articles.

When the contents of a parcel which cannot be delivered are liable to deterioration or corruption, they may be destroyed at once, if necessary, or, if expedient, sold, without previous notice or judicial formality, for the benefit of the right person, the particulars of each sale being notified by one post office to the other.

Jos perillesaamaton paketti sisältää esineitä, jotka helposti voivat pahentua tai pilaantua, voidaan ne tarpeen vaatiessa heti hävittää tahi myös, jos niin katsotaan sopivaksi, ilman edellä käypää tiedoksiantoa ja laillisia muotoja noudattamatta myydä asianomaisen hyväksi; myyntiä koskevista tarkemmista seikoista tulee toisen postitoimiston ilmoittaa toiselle.

Om innehållet i ett obeställbart paket utgöres av föremål, som lätt kunna försämras eller skämmas, kunna dessa, om sådant är av nöden, omedelbart förstöras eller ock, om så synes lämpligt, utan föregående tillkännagivande och utan iakttagande av laga formaliteter, försäljas till förmån för den som vederbör; de närmare omständigheterna vid försäljningen skola av den ena postanstalten meddelas den andra.

Postal convention with Canada. Preamble.

For the purpose of making better postal arrangements between the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada, the undersigned, Hubert Work, Postmaster General of the United States of America, and Charles Murphy, Postmaster General of the Dominion of Canada, by virtue of authority vested in them by law, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

Articles admitted to the mails.

(a) Articles of every kind or nature which are admitted to the domestic mails of either country except as herein prohibited shall be admitted to the mails exchanged under this Convention; subject, however, to such regulations as the postal administration of the country of destination may deem necessary to protect its customs revenues.

Prohibited articles.

(b) The following articles are prohibited admission to the mails exchanged under this Convention:

Publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; any article or matter that is inadmissible to the domestic mails of either country; packages sent at parcel post rates and single volumes of printed books sent at printed matter rate, the weight of which exceeds five kilograms (eleven pounds).

are enclosed under one wrapper bearing the address of such office, the individual copies shall be delivered without further charge to the respective addressees, the amount of postage thereon at the above rate being affixed to the bulk package; provided further that exception shall be made as regards legitimate daily newspapers of either country issued as frequently as six times a week, the rates of postage on which packages originating in either country and addressed to bona fide subscribers in the other shall be at the rate of not less than one cent per pound or fraction thereof. Daily newspapers.

(d) Except as required by the regulations of the country of destination for the collection of its customs duties, all admissible matter mailed in one country for the other, or received in one country from the other, whether by land or sea conveyance, shall be free from any detention or inspection whatever, and shall be forwarded by the most speedy means to its destination and be promptly delivered to the respective persons to whom it is addressed, being subject in its transmission to the laws and regulations of such country respectively. Freedom from detention, etc.

ARTICLE 2.

(a) Each administration shall retain to its own use the whole of the postage and registration, insurance or special delivery fees it collects on postal articles exchanged with the other, including deficient postage, but it is agreed that on packages sent at parcel post rates, the country of origin shall allow to the country of destination thirty cents a parcel on the total excess number of such parcel post packages despatched over the number of such parcel post packages received; settlement to be made in the General Postal Account between the two countries on the basis of statistics taken during the first seven days of April and October of each year. Retention of collections. Excess parcel post packages.

(b) In case of the loss of a registered article originating in either country and addressed to the other, the maximum indemnity shall be twenty-five dollars, or the actual value of the lost registered article when the same is less than twenty-five dollars. Indemnity for lost registered articles.

(d) The special delivery fee to be levied and collected upon first class mail matter originating in either country and addressed to the other shall be twenty cents. Special delivery fee.

(e) Articles of every kind not prepaid or insufficiently prepaid, originating in either country and addressed to the other, shall be dealt with in accordance with the domestic laws and regulations of the country of origin. Insufficient postage.

ARTICLE 3.

No postage charges shall be levied in either country on fully prepaid correspondence originating in the other, nor shall any charge be made in the country of destination upon official correspondence which under the postal regulations of the country of origin is entitled to freedom from postage; but the country of destination will receive, forward and deliver the same free of charge; provided that in case a parcel post package is redirected from one address to another in the country of destination, it shall be subject to an additional charge for postage, and, in case of insured packages, postage and insurance fee; and provided further that the country of destination may, at its option, levy and collect from the addressee for interior service and delivery, a charge, the amount of which is to be fixed according to its own regulations, but which shall in no case exceed five cents for each package regardless of weight. Delivery of prepaid and official correspondence. Redirected parcel post packages. Interior delivery charge.

ARTICLE 4.

Evading postage.

In case any correspondence is tendered for mailing in either country obviously with the intention to evade the higher postage rates applicable to it in the other country, it shall be refused, unless payment be made of such higher rates.

ARTICLE 5.

Exchanges.

(a) Exchanges of mails under this Convention, whether by sea or over land, shall be effected through the post offices of both countries already designated as exchange post offices, or through such others as may be hereafter agreed upon, under such regulations relative to the details of the exchanges as may be mutually determined to be essential to the security and expedition of the mails and the protection of the customs revenues.

Expense of conveyance.

(b) Each country shall provide for and bear the expense of the conveyance of its mails to the other; or if by agreement the conveyance in both directions in overland exchanges, other than by railway, is provided by one of them, the expense of transportation shall be shared between them in proportion to the distance travelled over the territory of each.

ARTICLE 6.

Free transit of closed mails.

The United States of America and the Dominion of Canada each grants to the other, free of any charges, detention or examination whatsoever, the transit across its territory, by all trains that it uses for its own mails, of the closed mails made up by any authorized exchange office of either country addressed to any other exchange office of the same country, or to any exchange office of the other country.

ARTICLE 7.

Registry.

(a) Any packet of mailable correspondence, with the exception of parcels prepaid at parcel post rates, may be registered upon payment of the rate of postage and the registration fee applicable thereto in the country of origin.

(b) An acknowledgment of the delivery of a registered article shall be returned to the sender when requested; but either country may require of the sender prepayment of a fee therefor not exceeding ten cents.

ARTICLE 8.

List of registered articles.

(a) Overland exchanges of ordinary international mail may be effected without the use of letter bills, but registered articles must be accompanied by a descriptive list thereof by means of which the registered articles may be identified for the purpose of acknowledgment by the receiving offices.

Missing articles.

(b) If a registered article advised shall not be found in the mails by the receiving office, its absence shall be immediately reported by the receiving to the sending office.

ARTICLE 9.

Mail sacks.

Ordinary and registered exchanges shall be effected in properly closed sacks, under such regulations relative to the details of the exchanges as may be mutually determined to be essential; except that articles which it is impracticable to enclose in mail sacks may be handled outside of mail sacks under such regulations as may be mutually agreed upon from time to time.

ARTICLE 10.

Return of undelivered matter.

(a) All registered articles, ordinary letters, postal cards, and other manuscript matter, business or commercial papers, books (bound or stitched), proofs of printing, engravings, photographs, drawings, maps, and all other articles manifestly of value to the sender, (except as provided for in (b) and (c)), which are not delivered from any cause, shall be reciprocally returned without charge, through the appropriate exchange offices of the two countries, after the expiration of the period for their detention prescribed by the laws or regulations of the country of destination; except that returned packages sent at parcel post rates shall be liable on return to senders to a charge equal to the amount required to fully prepay the postage thereon when originally mailed, and that insufficiently prepaid articles shall be liable on return to senders to the charge for deficient postage that would have been collected from the addressees if said articles had been delivered.

Parcel post articles, etc.

Return requests.

(b) Fully prepaid articles which bear requests by the senders for their return in case of non-delivery by a certain date or within a specified time, shall be reciprocally returned without charge, (except as provided for in (a)), directly to the despatching exchange office, at the expiration of the period for their retention indicated in the requests.

With designation of sender.

(c) Fully prepaid articles bearing on the covers the business cards, the names and addresses of the senders, or designation of places to which they may be returned, as Post Office Box, Street and Number, etc., without request for their return in case of non-delivery within a specified time, shall be reciprocally returned without charge (except as provided for in (a)), directly to the despatching exchange office, at the expiration of the period of detention prescribed by the country of destination.

ARTICLE 11.

Rules of Universal Postal Union to govern.

All matters connected with the exchange of mails between the two countries, which are not herein provided for, shall be governed by the provisions of the Universal Postal Convention and Regulations then in force, so far as the provisions of such Universal Postal Convention and Regulations shall be obligatory upon both of the contracting parties, except as hereafter modified or changed.

ARTICLE 12.

Further regulations.

The Postmaster General of the United States of America and the Postmaster General of the Dominion of Canada shall have authority to jointly make such further regulations of order and detail and to provide for such changes and modifications as may be found necessary to carry out the present Convention from time to time; and may by agreement prescribe conditions for the admission to the mails of any of the articles prohibited by Article 1.

Ante, p. 2226.

ARTICLE 13.

Abrogation of farmers convention. Vol. 25, p. 1413.

This Convention abrogates the special Postal Convention between the two countries signed at the City of Washington the twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and at Ottawa the nineteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and all amendments thereto. It shall be ratified by the contracting countries in accordance with their respective laws, and its ratifications shall be exchanged as early as possible. WHEREAS, the United States suffers through destruction by fire an annual loss of life estimated at 15,000 human beings, most of them women and children, and Fire Prevention Day. Preamble.

WHEREAS, in addition to the above, forest fires, during the five years ended with 1920, further reduced our diminishing timber resources by a total of over $85,000,000, also threatening with aridity over 56,000,000 acres of hitherto productive woodland, and

WHEREAS, most of our fire losses are due to carelessness and ignorance and may be easily prevented by increased care and education on the part of citizens:

THEREFORE, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, do urge upon the Governors of the various States to designate and set apart October 10th, 1921—anniversary of the Chicago fire—as Fire Prevention Day with these principal objects in view, to wit: Urging observance of October 10, 1921, as. A PROCLAMATION.

To the People of the United States:

Announcing death of Senator Philander Chase Knox, formerly Attorney General and Secretary of State.

It is my distressing duty to announce to the People of the United States the death of Philander Chase Knox, a Senator from the State of Pennsylvania, and formerly Attorney General and Secretary of State of the United States, which occurred at his residence in Washington on the 12th instant.

In his death his State has lost a most valuable and faithful servant, and his country one of its greatest statesmen. His good judgment, wise discrimination and keen perception eminently fitted him for the legal profession. Admitted to the Bar in 1875, he early became recognized as one of the foremost lawyers of his State. Twice honored by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by election to the Senate of the United States he took, by his wise counsel, a prominent part in the framing of our laws and in the direction of our foreign policy. As Attorney General of the United States he rendered opinions noted for their legal ability. As Secretary of State, while guided by the principle to deal justly with all nations, his conduct of our foreign relations was ever marked by a devotion to the best interests of his country.

Tribute of respect directed.

As an expression of the national sorrow at his death and in recognition of his valuable services to his country, his devotion to the public interests and his exalted patriotism, I do hereby direct that the National Flag be displayed at half staff on the Executive Offices of the United States on the day of his funeral, and that on all the Embassies, Legations and Consulates of the United States in foreign countries the National Flag shall be displayed at half staff for ten days from the receipt of this proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION.

Thanksgiving Day, 1921. Preamble.

That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes, it is proper that the President should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for blessings bestowed, and of prayer for guidance in modes of life that may deserve continuance of Divine favor.

Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace, and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations, after a long period of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness therefor, we may well unite in the hope that Providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aims which have guided us, the aspirations which have inspired us. We shall be prospered as we shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying to help others; asking, before all else, the privilege of service. As we render thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority, in the tasks they must discharge. Their hands will be steadied, their purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers.

Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for use to recognize that we have been thus favored, and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks, we will do well to pledge, in humility and all sincerity, our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence, as part of a plan whose wisdom we can not question. Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the Providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised, for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterward; to all mankind in God's own justice.

Thursday, November 24, 1921, designated as a day of general thanksgiving.

Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November, to be observed by the people as a day of Thanksgiving, devotion and prayer; urging that at their hearthsides and their altars they will give thanks for all that has been rendered unto them, and will pray for a continuance of the Divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

American Education Week. Preamble.

Whereas public education is the basis of citizenship and is of primary importance to the welfare of the Nation, and

Whereas more than five million boys and girls in America are not availing themselves of our free school advantages and are lacking in that youthful schooling which is so essential to the making of an intelligent citizenship, and

Whereas the experience of the war revealed vast elements of population that are illiterate, physically unfit; or unfamiliar with American ideals and traditions; and our future strength and security are much dependent on their education and commitment to American ideals;

Urging the setting apart of December 4 to 10, 1921, as.

Therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, do urge the Governors of the various States and Territories to set apart December 4th to 10th, inclusive, 1921, as American Education Week, during which Recommendations of observance.

Citizens in every state are urged to give special and thoughtful attention to the needs and the aims of the public schools. It is particularly recommended that effort be addressed to a practical expression of community interest in public education. To that end organizations for civic advancement and social betterment are earnestly requested, when it can be made practicable, to provide programs which will inform the people concerning the vital needs in this direction, instruct them regarding shortcomings and deficiencies in present facilities, and bring to their attention specific, constructive methods by which, in the respective communities, these deficiencies may be supplied. The subject of public education has always been very close to the American heart, and to the fact that it has been made a chief responsibility of local governmental units, we largely owe the wide diffusion of educational facilities. It is believed that a widespread and earnest effort at observance of Education Week would do much to emphasize this feeling of immediate responsibility. Therefore it is suggested that the pulpit, press, schools, and public gatherings be enlisted in behalf of this special effort.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
